On the first of April, McCoach of Princeton, on his eightieth birthday, manifested tokens of good cheer from friends, most and valuable of which was given by eighty occupants of chairs in American college, graduated from Princeton. McCoach's administration, O'Neil of New York, is a byrterian, but he lives a church the Calvary Baptist church. Rev. R. S. McArthur is O'Neil has shown his good Baptist friends by erecting stone archway and gate entrance of the Calvary church, sending the board of trustees receipt of $1,000, the total amount of the Calvary church. Deaths.

BARRS.—At Geneva, New York, 5th instant, after a short illness, Rev. Walter Barrs, formerly of Wolfville, aged thirty-two years.
CROOKS.—At Seal Harbor, Guysboro Co., February 13th, Eddie, infant son of John and Bessie Crooks, aged 5 months and 3 days.
CROOKS.—At Seal Harbor, Guysboro Co., March 6th, Florence, infant daughter of Charles and Rachel Crooks, aged 6 months and 23 days.
PATTERSON.—At South Ohio, March 22, of pneumonia, Alfred Patterson, aged 38 years. He leaves a widow who is at death's door from the same disease; six helpless children are sorrowfully awaiting the issue of their mother's sickness. How inscrutable are the ways of Providence.
CROOKS.—At Seal Harbor, N. S., March 20, of consumption, Charles, second son of Charles and Ann Crooks, in the 25th year of his age. He professed faith in Christ and was baptized seven years ago, and united with the Seal Harbor church. He bore his suffering with a Christian faith. May the Lord bless the sorrowing father, brother and sister.
STAFFORD.—On March 26th, at the residence of Mrs. DeWolf, Fort Greville, Cumberland Co., N. S., Prof. John Stafford of Bloomfield, New Jersey. For the last fifteen years he has resided chiefly at Lower Cove, Cumberland Co., N. S. Prof. Stafford was a gentleman of rare musical ability, and was highly esteemed by his large circle of friends. He leaves a wife and one daughter to mourn for a kind husband and loving father. (American papers please copy.)
CROOKS.—At Seal Harbor, N. S., February 27, of consumption, Elijah, eldest son of Charles and Ann Crooks, in the 29th year of his age. Bro. Crooks was baptized and united with Seal Harbor church in the year 1834. Through all these years he lived and walked with God. For three years he was unable to work, but he bore his suffering with a Christian faith. For the last two months he was confined to his bed, his suffering was great, yet in all his sufferings he murmured not, but fell asleep in Jesus.
MESSENGER.—At Centerville, Annapolis Co., March 19th, Margaret, relict of the late Ebenezer Messenger, aged 85 years. For months our sister has been feeling the infirmities of age and has been longing for the summons, "child, come home." She was baptized about thirty five years ago, by the late Dr. Armstrong, then pastor of the Bridgetown Baptist church. Her walk in the church and community was such as to cause her to be greatly missed now that she has gone to "follow the Lamb whithersoever He goeth." She leaves behind her three sons and a daughter, who expect to meet her by and by.
CALL.—At his late residence, South Ohio, March 11, Deacon Josiah Cann, aged 75 years. It has been evident for some time that his work was drawing to a close. We were very reluctant to believe that he must leave us. On Wednesday, just at sunset, after having completed the work of the day he lay down upon a lounge for a few minutes rest. In less than fifteen minutes his spirit was gone to that rest which remaineth for the people of God. A sorrowing wife and seven children mourn his death. The occasion of the funeral was impressed by the pastor in an address based upon Psalm 147.

Deaths.

BRITISH AND FOREIGN.
—The notorious Dr. Tanner finds his parliamentary tactics do not work well when he comes to face a wild Irish mob. At Ballinacree on the other day, he was knocked down and dragged ignominiously through the mud.
—O'Brien Dalton has written to Timothy Healy, M. P., apologizing for the assault which he recently made upon him at Cork, and begs Mr. Healy to remember that he (Dalton) had just been released from prison and was snarling under an unjust accusation.
—Thomas Chas. Barrin, conservative M. P. for London, died at home to day of exhaustion, resulting from a surgical operation. For more than twenty years he was a partner in Baring Bros. & Co., London and Liverpool. He was born in Adderbury, Oxfordshire, in 1811.
—It is odd to read of a King receiving a medal in recognition of a brave deed done on behalf of his subjects. But we read that King Humbert of Italy has been awarded a gold medal "for civil valor" on the occasion of the collapse of a house in Rome, last January. At some risk to himself, the King went to the aid of some persons, who were badly injured in the ruins, was foremost in the work of rescue, and showed much sympathy for the sufferers.
—Over 2,000 dissenting ministers have signed the protest against Sir Charles Dilke's rule of life. Sir Charles persists that he will stand as a candidate for parliament until he receives the official veto of the Liberal chief. He has invited the opinion of Mr. Morley and Sir William Harcourt on his candidature, without a response. Mr. Stanshore, the Liberal caucus chief, disapproves the candidature, on the ground that if the Forest of Dean electors return Sir Charles Dilke many thousands of Dissenters will withhold their votes from Liberals at the coming elections.

UNITED STATES.

—Gen. Ben. Butler is reported as saying he will argue no more jury cases. Age, he says, is beginning to tell on him.
—In Bangor, Me., Leslie Ellis drained a quart bottle of whiskey without touching the bottle from his lips, and died the next day. It is said that his companions, who had wagered he could not do it, left him six hours in an unconscious condition before calling a physician.
—A recent Washington despatch declares that it is quite possible to transport torpedo boats on flat cars over railroad lines, thus moving them rapidly from one point to another on the coast, or from the seaboard to the lakes. The advantages of such a plan in time of war are apparent.
—Miss Zoe Clayton arrived in New York from San Francisco on the 27th ult. She walked all the way from the Golden Gate, having made a wager in San Francisco in August last that she would walk to New York and arrive there before April 9, 1891. Her best day's work was 40 miles, and her poorest was 3 miles one day, when she sprained her ankle. She wore out five pairs of shoes on the trip, and had the last pair half-soled several times.
—The best yet. Petter's Liniment has proved itself a positive cure for coughs and colds. Don't suffer further and try this invaluable compound. 50c bottle.

MORRELL.—At Hampton Village, N. B., March 21, Sarah E. Morrell, relict of W. A. Morrell and daughter of the late Rev. Peter Spragg, fell asleep in Jesus after a short but distressing sickness, aged 61 years. Many years ago, Sister Morrell was baptized by the Rev. W. A. Coge, and united with the First Baptist church at Springfield. Later on in life, Sister Morrell, with her family, removed to this village and became a member of the little church here. She loved the church of God and greatly desired her prosperity. Nine children, eight of whom are members of the Baptist church, are left to mourn her loss. The church has sustained a great loss. May others be actuated by the Holy Spirit to fill the place of the departed.
HEMSON.—At Liverpool, Queens, N. S., March 12, Bro. W. Hemson, aged 23 years. He was baptized into the fellowship of the Milton Baptist church, April 1st, 1888, by Elder P. F. Murray. In August, same year, he was granted a license from the Milton church to preach the gospel (his chosen work). While at McMaster, studying to make himself more efficient for so great a work, he had an attack of hemorrhage of the lungs, and returned home to recruit, but gradually weakened until he fell asleep in Jesus. Bro. Hemson endeavored himself to all with whom he came in contact, by his amiability of disposition and consistent life, being of good parts and a diligent student. He bade fair for usefulness in the Master's service, but the good Lord called him up higher. May God in His great mercy comfort the mourners.
McNEILL.—At Cavendish, P. E. I., March 22, David McNeill, Sen., in the 88th year of his age. Mr. McNeill was the last one of his generation to pass from time. He lived a moral, upright life. Some years ago he professed faith in Jesus, put Him on by baptism, and united with the Cavendish Baptist church, in which he maintained his membership till death. In a carefully preserved body he had a strong and well cultivated mind. He ever evinced a righteous indignation for all that was base and mean, and a deep love for all that was noble and true. Those who knew him best loved him most. His pastor conducted his funeral service, which was largely attended, and spoke from 1 Peter 4: 6. Rev. W. P. Archibald, the highly esteemed pastor of the Presbyterian church, was present and bore testimony to the worth of the departed.
CROOKER.—The death of Doctor Sebä Crooker, took place at the residence of his son, W. A. Crooker, on Tuesday morning, the 17th March, at 10 a. m. He was born in the town of Wisconsin, Maine, August 12, 1800, and came to Grandville, Annapolis County, N. S., in 1848. He was a man of high character, by doctoring a young man of that place, John Mills, who was supposed to be just gone with consumption; he made a cure of this gentleman, who is the father of the Hon. John E. Mills. Dr. Crooker was married to Fernelia Durbin, in Wilnot, Annapolis Co., April 9, 1829. He settled in Clements and was baptized by the Rev. Israel Patten in 1831. In 1836 he moved to Queens Co., and settled at Brookfield. He always took an active part in the church services. In 1848 he returned to Milton, Queens Co., but returned in 1843 to Brookfield, and attended to the calls of the people in northern Queens for many years.
SPURR.—Emma Marie, eldest daughter of Capt. Frank and Alice Spurr, of Clements West, Annapolis Co. This sweet child of 12 years and 3 months was taken up to the happy home, Feb. 11th, after 3 weeks of great suffering. Through it all shows forth the grace of her Saviour in a remarkable manner. The last three days she was blind, but she never murmured; if the Lord saw fit to take her away it was all right; we must not coax her to stay, for she had suffered all her life. When her pain was great she would say, O dear Jesus, how He did suffer when they nailed Him to the cross, and her sufferings were not so bad as His. She was a beautiful singer, and in her last hours would strike up, "I gave My life for Thee," and "Carried by the Angels to the Land of Rest." But the words oftenest on her lips were, "Jesus lover of my soul," etc. Her face would light up with joy when we would tell her she would soon be where there would be no more sickness nor death. "O, mamma, won't it be lovely when we all get home to heaven, where we will never have to part. There will be room enough for us all." "Papa, when you come to the golden gate knock loudly, and Jesus will tell me and I will come to meet you." She felt very anxious about her brothers and sisters, that they might be good and meet her in Heaven. She was an appreciative reader of the Messenger and Visitor, and loved the prayer meeting and her Bible. She would like to have been baptized; but it was what Jesus had done for her and in her that was the ground of her trust. God will comfort her dear parents by precious memories of His grace.

HAVERTROCK.—At 53 Bloomfield St., Halifax, March 2nd, Caroline, relict of the late Christopher Havertrock, aged 78 years, Sister H. was baptized about 20 years ago, at Hammonds Plains, by the late Rev. Dr. Clay, who was instrumental in leading five of her children to Christ. Services were conducted at the house by Rev. J. W. Manning and Rev. Allen Simpson, after which the body was taken to Hammonds Plains for interment, where Rev. E. N. Archibald preached a very appropriate sermon from Rev. 14: 13.

Literary Notes.

The April Arena opens with a paper by Prof. Geo. W. Winterburn, M. D., of New York, dealing with the future of philosophy. Dr. Winterburn, who formerly edited the American Homoeopath, in his forcible essay reviews the rise, growth and fallacies of philosophy during the past, pointing out what he believes will constitute the accepted philosophy of the future. He pays a glowing tribute to Professor Buchanan, whose noble face forms the frontispiece of this number. Thomas G. Sherman, in a paper of great strength, sets forth his views on the evils and injustice of indirect taxation. This contribution will command general attention. Its valuable tables of statistics should be preserved by those interested in the problem of taxation. R. Mason Osgood, A. M., M. D., of New York, contributes an interesting contribution on recent discoveries in "Hypnotism." One of the most striking features of this issue of the Arena is Prof. Jas. T. Bixby's contribution on "Buddhism in the New Testament." It is a reply to Dr. Felix Oswald's paper on the same subject, and is probably the ablest presentation of the Christian side of this problem which has yet appeared. Arthur Dudley Vinton contributes a thoughtful paper on "Morality and Environment." E. P. Powell, the well-known author of "Our Heredity from God," writes on Alexander Hamilton as a popular leader.
