

FINAL DRAFT OF METHODIST STATION SHEET

Rev. Gilbert Earle Transferred To Jerusalem And Rev. Wm. Lawson Comes To Zion—Reports Received.

SACKVILLE OWNED BY METHODISTS YESTERDAY

Sackville, June 19.—While Methodism is always to the front in the university towns, it was especially so today, as the pupils of the Presbyterian and Baptist churches, as well as those of their own commission were occupied by ministers of the body, and their people had an opportunity of hearing the Gospel according to Methodism. But of course, the great centre of attraction was the conference church. Early morning prayer meeting was well attended, this was followed at 9.30, by a love feast, conducted by the venerable Dr. Stewart, with his usual force and vigor. At 11 a. m. the Rev. Dr. Carman, general superintendent, preached on the mission of the people from the words, "And Jesus returned in the power of the spirit into Galilee, and from which was deduced certain lessons on the connection between the man and the place the preacher and the people."

Two young men were ordained to the work of the ministry, George Morris and Charles Stebbings, each of whom spoke on their call to the ministry. At 3.30 a well attended meeting was held in the interests of Sabbath school work, when various phases of that work were dealt with by Revs. Dr. Flanders and Aquila Lucas, and Colonel Beer, of Charlottetown. Mrs. Lucas presided, as she is the superintendent of the Sackville Sabbath School. The evening service was of great interest, as all were anxious to hear Rev. J. W. Aitkins, associate secretary of the department of temperance and moral reform. The president, Rev. Howard Sprague, D. D., was in charge of the service. Rev. H. E. Thomas led in prayer. Rev. J. W. Aitkins took as his subject the leaving of the three measures of meal. The lesson was a silent power, working away quietly, but doing a mighty work. God is the transforming power in the home. His address was full of power and point, and easily applicable. The ballot box is as sacred as the prayer meeting, he said. The large audience listened with wrapt attention.

Saturday Proceedings. At the successful banquet of the Historical Society held in the Academy Building last evening, no one in attendance could have failed to notice some remarks made by the general superintendent on the comparative merits of the British and American Methodism. The people of Eastern Canada are intensely British, and the Methodists of these provinces have no regrets that so many of their preachers in their motherland, the mother church in the motherland. FRANK HALEY KILLED BETWEEN I.C.R. CARS

Truro Man Fell Under Wheels Of Freight Train And Is Crushed To Death—Broken Rail Found.

Special to The Standard. Truro, N. S., June 19.—Death came suddenly Saturday night to Frank Haley. He with two Sydney boys were on No. 17 freight and were endeavoring to get to Springfield. While riding between the cars he lost his balance and fell under the wheels. His left leg and arm were severed. One of his companions, McNeil, informed the train crew of the accident and the freight was backed up and Haley brought to Truro. He was conscious and hope was held out for his recovery, but he died at two o'clock this morning. On the return to town from Onslow Station where the accident occurred, a broken rail was discovered, which would probably have caused the derailment of the Moncton freight.

In the Moldava district 100 persons perished as the result of the sudden collapse of houses, and in the Tomesvar district 180 persons are reported drowned.

INQUEST IN HERALD FIRE POSTPONED

Crown Attorney Announces That It Is The Intention To Secure Definite Information As To Responsibility.

NOTHING STARTLING IN EVIDENCE ADDUCED

Special to The Standard. Montreal, June 19.—On the request of the Crown Attorney, Mr. J. C. Walsh, the inquest into the Herald fatality was adjourned on Saturday until July 5th. In making the request Mr. Walsh stated that it was the desire of the crown to sift the responsibility for the affair to the bottom, and this the crown found that it could not do until it had had an opportunity to sift the matters that had been brought to its attention and learn whether there was anything substantial in them.

To this, Mr. McDougall, counsel for Mr. James Brerly, manager of the Herald, entered objection. It was a serious matter for them that the inquiry should be lengthened and he would prefer sitting continuously until the final result was reached. Coroner McMahon agreed with Mr. Walsh, saying that people were sometimes not willing to speak and put off doing so until their conscience forced them to come forward and tell what they knew. So far he could not see that anything had been shown against anybody but it was the duty of the crown and of themselves to sit as long as there was any possibility of the ends of justice being furthered. He was also of the opinion that delay would dissipate prejudice and for these reasons he adjourned the inquest to the 5th.

No Sensations. None of the evidence heard on Saturday was of a startling nature. Chief Tremblay, of the fire department, said that he was on the scene a minute after the alarm had been received and there was no fire in the premises until five minutes after the alarm. During that time the firemen were engaged in saving those still in the building. By the time this was done the fire was raging from the top to the bottom. The centre wall fell between the second floor with the collapse of the water tank. W. J. Butler, the Herald's engineer, told of general conditions in the building. Plaster had fallen at different times. The centre wall fell between the first crackling noise that he heard and the actual collapse. He had never observed any shaking of the centre wall and considered the building perfectly safe.

Other employees testified that they thought the building was perfectly safe and described the collapse as it had appeared to them, their stories fairly agreeing in the main that it was the upper floors which fell first. The detachment from the same regiment of one of the deceased, Duncan J. Miller, president of the typographical union, having been a sergeant in that regiment.

The funeral of ten of the victims, members of Typographical Union No. 176, took place on Saturday, thousands of people lining the streets along which the ten hearse passed. They were followed by a very large number of members of the printing trade, friends and relatives, the procession being a mile in length. It was headed by the Prince of Wales band and a firing detachment from the same regiment of one of the deceased, Duncan J. Miller, president of the typographical union, having been a sergeant in that regiment.

Clarke, K.C., one of the committee of three appointed by the shareholders to act with curator Keason in the winding up of the affairs of the bank, of Julius T. Two other local concerns who were generally assisted by the St. Stephen's Bank and now find it difficult to transact business, are understood to be in financial difficulties.

TWO DROWNED AT MILLINOCKET

S. A. Harriman And Owen Chase Are Missing Since Monday And Canoe Is Found Overturned In Lake.

Bangor, Me., June 19.—S. A. Harriman, 30, and his brother-in-law, Owen Chase, both of Bangor, were believed to have been drowned in Millinocket lake. The men left home last Monday on a fishing trip, intending to be gone several days. They had dinner at Marston's camp, and started across the lake in a canoe toward their camping place, saying that they would return on Thursday.

On Saturday, as they had not appeared the men at Marston's camp investigated and found that Harriman and Chase had not been at the intended camping place. Later the canoe was found overturned at the mouth of Mud Brook, with part of the provisions and camping outfit washed in. There appears to be no doubt that the canoe was overturned and both men drowned last Monday. No trace of the bodies has been found.

Harriman was employed by the Bangor and Aroostook Railroad and leaves a wife and two children. Chase was unmarried.

3 EMIGRANTS KILLED IN COLLISION

Light Engine Plunges Head On Into Rapidly Moving Emigrant Train At Norwich, N. Y., With Fatal Result.

Norwich, N. Y., June 19.—A passenger train loaded with emigrants, en route to the west, running as the second section of No. 5, the Chicago Limited, on the Ontario and Western Railway, was wrecked at Parker, a small station, 16 miles southwest of this village, at 2.15 o'clock this morning. Three passengers were killed and 25 were injured, several seriously. The wreck occurred when the emigrant train dashed into a locomotive running light.

The engine running light, was returning to Sydney from Guilford summit, where it had been sent to assist a coal train over the heavy grade. The engineer, B. F. Kingman, had orders to wait at the summit until the second section of No. 5 had passed, but for some unexplained reason, the engine was dropping back to Sydney when at a sharp curve he collided with the heavily loaded passenger train which was running about 30 miles an hour, up the heavy grade. The light engine, making about 25 miles, struck it head on.

A relief train was quickly sent from Norwich, carrying physicians and assistance and the dead and injured were brought to this village, where they were cared for at the railroad Y. M. C. A. building. There is no hospital in Norwich.

BEOTHIC SAILS FROM BOSTON

Hunting Expedition With Capt. Bartlett As Pilot Off For Frozen North—Coals At North Sydney.

Boston, June 19.—Her hold filled with triaskets for the Igloo dwellers of the Frozen North, and cabins decorated with big game guns and an abundance of supplies, the four steamship Beothic, chartered by Harry Whitney, of New Haven, Conn., and Paul J. Rainey, of Cleveland, on a hunting expedition in the Arctic, sailed from Pier 2 of the New Haven docks in South Boston today.

Flags were flying and whistles saluted from most of the craft in the harbor as the Beothic swung into the channel under command of Capt. Robert Bartlett, who made the trip with Peary. Others on the steamer were Dr. M. J. Johnson, of Lexington, Ky., and Hugh M. Inman of New York. A party of New York and Boston society folk were on the pier to see the sportsmen off.

Cook's Records. The Beothic is chartered in the name of Mr. Rainey and the expedition is called the Rainey Hunting expedition. Speculation as to whether Mr. Whitney would recover Dr. Cook's records entrusted to Whitney who left them at Etah remained unsatisfied by the last word of Capt. Bartlett, who said, with a smile, "We probably will not bother to take the time to hunt up Cook's records."

The crew is a seasoned one in the Arctic and the ship is shodded with two inch steel plates to withstand the ice pressure. An immense quantity of supplies has been put aboard for trading with the natives and for the consumption of the sportsman and crew. Among the supplies were 20 barrels of sugar, 10 barrels of cornmeal, and 400 pounds of tobacco.

Clearance papers were taken out for North Sydney, C. B. where the Beothic will take on buaker coal. Valencia, Spain, June 19.—Anti-clerical rioters today broke into the Catholic Club and demolished the furniture. Demonstrations also occurred in other quarters. Since last Sunday, when a crowd of republicans were attacked by groups of Catholics while leaving an anti-clerical meeting and were fired upon from the Carlist Club, there have been many clashes between the two factions.

TRAGEDIES IN NEIGHBORING MAINE TOWNS

Hotel Hostler Found Dead In Bed With Wounded Woman By His Side—Murder And Suicide.

INFURIATED MAN KILLS WIFE AND HIMSELF

Gorham, Me., June 18.—Walter S. Hanscomb, a hostler, was found early this morning dead with a bullet wound in the forehead, in a bed in the stable of B. W. Bickford, where he was employed, with a bullet wound through his heart. Beside him was Mrs. Annie Stewart, the employee of a Portland hotel, partially unconscious with a wound on the side of her face, also made by a pistol ball. The revolver with which the shooting had been done was found on the floor close by the bed. The man was 32 years old and the woman 38. Both were disrobed. After a thorough investigation of the affair the county authorities have held Ray Welch, a young man of good family in Gorham, as a material witness. Both the man and the woman had been drinking and it is the theory of the county attorney that in flourishing the revolver to frighten a party of young men who were about, Hanscomb accidentally shot the woman and then killed himself, although the possibility that a third party may have done the shooting has not been discarded. It was learned late this afternoon that Carroll Holden, another Gorham boy, lay in a stupefied condition in a room adjoining the one where the bodies were found, throughout the night. Mrs. Stewart is at the Maine General Hospital, and will recover. She has made no statement.

Killed Wife and Himself.

Portland, Me., June 18.—A murder and suicide following close upon a similar tragedy in the neighboring town of Gorham, took place this evening when Wm. Libby, a laborer, shot and killed his wife, Nora Nelson, 25 years old, and then put a bullet through his own head and died at the Maine General Hospital shortly after midnight.

The couple were married two years ago but separated a month ago. Friends brought them together tonight in an attempt at reconciliation, but with tragic results.

MAY FAVORABLE MONTH FOR CROPS

Labor Gazette Reports Encouraging Agricultural Outlook Has Made General Industry Buoyant.

Special to The Standard. Ottawa, June 19.—The Labor Gazette describes agricultural conditions in May as exceptionally favorable, the area devoted to crop being larger and the season considerably earlier than that of 1909. In view of the agricultural outlook, general industry was buoyant. Manufacturing was more active than at any time in the past three years. The amount of building projected is on a scale that promises to exceed previous records.

Lumbering and mining were very active throughout the Dominion, the former being aided by favorable conditions for the drives, and both by buoyant markets. Railway construction gave employment to many thousands of men and provided an active market for heavy materials. Immigration continued very heavy.

General trade, though delayed in certain lines by the prevailing cool weather, was optimistic in tone, values being uniformly firm. Industrial accidents occurring to 376 individual work people in Canada during the month of May, 1910, were reported. Of these 133 were fatal and 243 resulted in serious injuries.

R. L. BORDEN IS HONORED BY LIBERALS

Conservative Leader Has Taken Strong Hold Upon Affections Of Ontario People—First Week Of Tour.

OPPONENT CALLS HIM FOREMOST CANADIAN

Special to The Standard. Toronto, Ont., June 19.—The first week of Hon. R. L. Borden's tour of Ontario ended with the Aymer meeting. During the five days much ground was covered. Visits were paid to Peterboro, Campbellford, Toronto, Ingersoll, Woodstock, Aylmer and St. Thomas. Saturday's and today's lull in the activities was welcomed by the members of the touring party. Tomorrow, Hon. Mr. Borden takes to the road again, with a monster picnic at Niagara Falls, at which speakers will be Sir James Whitney, Mr. Doherty and Mr. Borden. Tuesday, Trenton will be visited, a picnic having been arranged to be shared in by the counties of Hastings, Prince Edward and Northumberland. At this meeting in addition to Messrs. Borden and Doherty, Hon. I. B. Lucas, of the Ontario government will speak. This will be the last appearance of Mr. Doherty on the tour and his place will be filled at the concluding picnics at Port Perry and Finch, by Hon. W. J. Hannay, provincial secretary and Hon. James Duff, minister of agriculture.

Liberals Do Honor. Now that the first part of the tour is over, two or three features stand out prominently. One of these is the tribute of respect paid to the Conservative leader by not only his followers but by his political opponents. Liberals have vied with Conservatives in doing honor to Mr. Borden and to Mr. Doherty. At almost all of the meetings and receptions prominent Liberals have been present to meet the distinguished political members.

At Ingersoll for instance, the strong Liberal riding of South Oxford, on the platform was Dr. McKay, the mayor of the town and a lifelong reformer, who, in a graceful speech which rang with the true national spirit welcomed Mr. Borden not as the leader of a great party, but as a foremost Canadian whose honesty of promise was as marked as his political integrity. Then, again at the reception which was held at the beautiful residence of T. W. Crothers, M. P., St. Thomas, on Friday night, hundreds of Liberals pushed forward to grasp the hand of the man who during the past week, in a quiet and unobtrusive way has secured a hold upon the affections of the people of the province, without the aid of brass bands and carloads of campaign scenery.
