CARD.
WE regret to announce to our subscribers and friends the total destruction of our printing office in New York, on Christmas Eve. This event will necessarily cause a postponement in the delivery of THE TRIBUNE for some time. We have, however, duplicated the Manual in the office of our printer, and every copy of the book is the chief feature involved in it. We shall immediately send a copy of the Manual to every subscriber, and respectfully ask the indulgence of subscribers under these circumstances. The preparation of new type, the re-arrangement of the matter, and the printing of the book, we can make, copy time, but we think that we may safely promise that the delay will not exceed two months at the utmost, and in the meantime the demand for the Manual on our office records (the foundation of all the rates) is ready at the service of subscribers.

Respectfully,
DUN, WILMAN & CO.,
