New York, June 4, p. m. A revenue cutter, with a party of officials and invited guests, left Fort...

THE WASHINGTON CABINET. Gen. Bristow, the new Secretary of the Treasury, assumed the duties of the office yesterday.

PARIS, June 4. The Assembly to-day passed the Electoral Bill to a second reading by a vote of 398 to 318.

LOUIS BLANC and Gambetta opposed the bill, and at the conclusion of their speeches received a perfect ovation from the Left.

BATHE and Dufour advocated the bill. The Right Centre has issued a programme favoring an immediate organization of the supporters of President MacMahon for a continuation of the title of President of the Republic, and the maintenance of a political truce at the end of the present seven years, or in the event of a vacancy in the Presidency in the meantime.

THE LEFT CENTRE are dissatisfied with the programme, as not conceding sufficient to them.

LONDON, June 4. HOMELESS STRIKERS. The owners of the Durham mines are evicting large numbers of tenants who are the striking miners, and 228 of these evicted families are camping in the fields.

THE GLOUCESTER NOMINATIONS—All the Candidates for Separate Schools—Some Very Tall Talk—Sam Napier Thrown Out the Window—Hon. Robert Young Threatened.

BATHURST, June 4. Messrs. Burns, Blanchard, Meahan, and Targoon were severally nominated to-day.

MR. O'BRIEN demanded a poll. Mr. Blanchard spoke first.

He said the Government of to-day was the same Government that was in power in 1870, because their policy was the same and they had made no improvements in the country. He had fought for four years against the school law because no Catholic could remain in the Catholic Church and support such a law.

He wanted the Catholics to have the spending of their money for schools, and would accord the same rights to Protestants. He would if elected oppose the school law and the Government.

The great question of the day was the school law, and whether there should be religious instruction in schools. Religious instruction after school hours would not do; it must be during school hours.

Mr. Burns said as the Government had so basely sacrificed the interests of the country it was not considered that any Catholic representative would be considered eligible to represent this County, and the matter was left to the decision of the most influential men, viz, the clergy, who made the selection, and he was in consequence not before the electors.

He was an avowed enemy to that school law; was politically opposed to that man (pointing to Hon. R. Young) who had joined the Government and aided in carrying out the law. He was an advocate of Separate Schools, and was disposed to accept conciliatory measures. It would be a proud day for him when the Government were turned out and the man who sits in the Legislative Council. No future act of the Government could repair the injury they had done in passing the school law. He condemned Napier for voting in favor of the Government. He said there was less unanimity of feeling for taxation among Protestants than among Catholics. Catholics were in favor of taxation for schools. There was a meeting at Tranelle at which Father Meahan and Targoon went to the meeting in Pokenouche, but they did not dare to go.

Mr. Meahan said he had always aided Catholic institutions when his means permitted his doing so. Speaking of the school law he would go for its repeal and against the Government. It had been used as a canvas against him that his daughter was teaching under the law. He explained feelingly that the earnings of this young lady went towards educating one of her brothers for the priesthood. Surely his friends would not find fault with him under the circumstances. He had got permission from his priest to send one of his sons to the school, and he accordingly did so.

At the close of Mr. Meahan's speech, a disturbance arose between Mr. Burns and Mr. Meahan about some personal matters, and for a while there was considerable cross-firing, in which Mr. Meahan appeared to have the best of the argument.

Mr. Targoon said he wanted the electors to understand that he was an advocate of Separate Schools, which he wanted to see introduced into this Province. He did not believe separating the Church from the State. His Church made it absolute that Education should be religious. The State should instruct and submit to the Church. No effort should be spared to establish Separate Schools by law.

SAM NAPIER spoke amidst violent interruptions. After his speech being abruptly terminated by yells and threatening gestures he was kicked by one of the Separate School men and jostled out of the window.

HON. MR. YOUNG being called upon to address the electors, said, judging from the utterances of the four candidates, the Government would expect no support from any of them.

Here Mr. Young was interrupted by several roughs who said he must be put down, and one of them threw a hat at him, which struck the Sheriff. Several persons interposed and stopped what at one time seemed to be a serious row.

Mr. Young continued: All he wanted was an opportunity of answering the charges made against the Government by Mr. Burns.

Mr. Young spoke at considerable length, showing that the Government had done a great deal for the country in the matters of immigration, colonization, etc.

There being a disposition among the rowdies present to raise a disturbance, he was advised by some of the candidates to leave the Court House, which he did.

The most popular dance of the day is "The Antoinette Mazurka," at E. Peller & Bro's.
