Dalton McCarthy is president of the new company and Capt. J. E. Matthews, of Toronto, general manager. Six boats are being arranged for to start about May 24th. Four of the boats are the Angler, of New York; Garden City, of Toronto; Cambridge and Tred Oven, of Baltimore.

440 Found. Mr. Edron, California is a lovely country, the sick get well, the poor get rich, cyclones and frosts are practically unknown. A hundred to three hundred dollars is made each year on fruits with irrigation. The California Land and Water Exchange, of Dayton, Ohio, control large quantities of land in California, which they plant, cultivate, pay taxes for ten years, paying you $40 per acre as your part of the profit, they keeping the balance for the care and cultivation. They give an acre of land away with each 4 certificates. All they ask you to do is to pay for the irrigation, which can be done in small payments each month. They will send you the names of 90 persons who last year received from $25 to $300 on one year's investment. President Harrison says, "Half of the good things of California have not been told." The Hon. Jeremiah Bush says, "Truly California is a poor man's paradise." It is free to all holders of California Land and Water Exchange, of Dayton, Ohio, give a free return ticket to view the property. Why should any one be poor when such a chance remains open and you do not have to do any labor or work, to get the profits and do not have to leave home. Write them to-day and get full particulars. A CALIFORNIAN.

One of the best things said about the big Canadian cheese was the remark of a jolly Irish farmer from Lanark, who drove into Perth, the other day on purpose to see it.

"Why," said he, after staring up its immense proportions with great satisfaction "if skippers ever get into that cheese they'll be as big as wood chucks."

The act was passed at the last session of the Ontario Legislature for the protection of bees, which was that "no person, in sprinkling fruit trees during that period within which such trees are in full bloom, shall use or cause to be used any mixture containing Paris Green or any other poisonous substance injurious to bees; and the penalty for an infraction of the law is not less than $1 or more than $5."

The editor sat on a hard bottom chair trying to think of a thought; and he plunged all his fingers about through his hair, but he did not see the thought. He had written on temperance, traffic and trade, and the prospect of making a crop, and joked about ice cream and weak lemonade, till his readers had told him to stop. And weary of thinking, sleep came to his eyes, and he pitched his head on the desk, when the thought, which, awake, had refused to arise, came in troops that were strong and grotesque.

And as the ideas swirled about, he selected the bright one of the tribe and this it is the dream which, while dreaming he wrote—"Now is the time to subscribe."

Mr. Langstaff died at his home in Athens on Friday night. He had been out walking in the evening, apparently as well as usual, but he was taken ill after returning to the house and died before morning. Deceased was a pensioner of the American government, having served in the late civil war. For many years he had followed his vocation of shoemaker in North Augusta, Addison and the county, conducted by the Orange order, took place on Saturday. The remains were conveyed to Christ church where service was conducted by the pastor, Rev. W. Wright, and were then interred in the Methodist burying ground, the beautiful service of the Orange order as well as that of the Church being performed at the grave. His brother, J. Langstaff, of North Augusta, attended the funeral.

The Baptists of Athens held a very successful Corn Festival in their church on Wednesday evening last. The menu consisted of corn bread, corned beef, corn starch pudding, and in fact the whole bill of fare was corn. The tables were nicely arranged in the basement, and after all had enjoyed the good things before them, they went up higher where a literary and musical entertainment had been provided. The choir sang a solo in fine selection. Mr. R. S. McConnel of Glen Buel sang a solo in a fine baritone voice, which was well received. The Misses Bertha Gile, and Lila Hawks favored the audience with a recitation each, followed by Miss Lillie Earl with a solo. John Thompson, the fisherman evangelist, made a short, but very interesting speech, and also gave a solo in his canny Scotch dialect, in which pathos and power were equally manifest. The Rev. Mr. Murdoch deserves much credit for his zeal in bringing this, one of the most successful festivals ever held by the Baptists in Athens, to so successful a termination.

WILLIAMS—In Athens on Tuesday, 25th inst., the wife of Mr. N. C. Williams, of a son.
