To the preparing the bill just passed the Attorney General has given good the public production of the property of the product of the produc passed the Attorney General has given a great deal of labor, and the bill shows it. It is a comprehensive and thorough measure and cannot fail to have a most beneficial effect upon the highway service. When once the full benefit of the road tax is realized the result will be very manifest, and not the least important will be that the great and bye road grants will be relieved of many charges which now come upon them because of the large degree in which the present road law fails to effect the purpose for which it is intended. The new law does not add to the road tax. If anything it reduces it in amount, but it is designed to render the tax available, which at present it is not to a large extent.

Several of the Opposition papers have drawn attention to the fact that the Provincial Secretary did not vote for Mr. Ellis' bill to abolish the Legislative Council, and have commented upon it as a proof that the Government is insincere in its policy as respects that institution. The position taken by the Provincial Secretary ought to be well understood, as he has made it plain upon several cocasions. He is prepared to vote to place the Legislative Council under the control of the people, so that they may abolish it when they see fit, or he is prepared, after the people has expressed desire to have the institution lopped off, to aid in voting it out; but he thinks such an important change in the constitution of the country ought not to be made until it has been dealt with in some way by the people. While we may differ with the Provincial Secretary as to the conclusion, and it is not antagonistic to the conclusion of the Government as the conclusion of the Reichard Secretary as to the conclusion, and it is not antagonistic to the conclusion of the Reichard Secretary as to the conclusion, and it is not antagonistic to the conclusion of the Reichard Secretary as to the conclusion, and it is not antagonistic to the conclusion of the Government as those of the sumpage entirely will be sufficient.
