

FOR TEACHERS OF THE LITTLE ONES

INTRODUCTION—The Golden Text for the Quarter (Phil. 2 : 9) tells of "a name which is above every name." What name is it? Print, JESUS. Think of some of the names by which Jesus is called in the Bible. (The teacher may print some of these on the board):—Jesus, The Lord, The Saviour, The Christ, The Holy One, The Messiah, The Promised One, The Prince of Peace, The Light of the World, Wonderful Counsellor, The Mighty God, Everlasting Father, The Way, The Truth, The Life, King, Judge, The Good Shepherd, Master, Son of Man, Elder Brother, The Great Physician, Prophet, Priest, Redeemer, Friend of Sinners, Teacher, Rewarder, The Lamb of God.

Surely it may be truly said of One who bore so many wonderful names that His Name is above every name.

Review—In the Lessons for the Quarter we have seen Jesus going about among men and women, and boys and girls, showing forth the character indicated by these various names. Recall each Lesson, and have "What I have learned" repeated.

Ask in brief, bright questions for the main facts of each Lesson. Dwell especially upon the Resurrection, and the fact that Jesus is living now.

The Son of the Queen—A story is told of the present King Edward, when he was the young Prince of Wales. His Royal mother, our late good Queen Victoria, was staying with her family in her Scottish home at Balmoral. One day a little lad tried to gain entrance to the grounds. When questioned by the guards, he replied, "I want to see oor Queen." They sternly ordered him to be gone. He turned away crying, just as the Prince of Wales walked up to the entrance. "What is the matter, my boy?" said the kindly young prince. "I want ta see oor Queen, and they winna let me in," sobbed the lad.

"Take my hand," said the Prince. The boy firmly grasped the extended hand, and together they entered the great gateway. No need to fear the guards now! He is with the Queen's son, under his care and guidance. Thus the lad was led into the presence of the Queen.

The Son of God—Only Jesus, the Son of God, has the right to present us to God, His Father, the King of Kings. In His great love He offers us to take every one who puts his hand in His and trusts Him. Is it not wonderful?

Sing—

O, if there's only one song I can sing,
When in His beauty I see the great King,
This shall my song in eternity be,
"O, what a wonder that Jesus loved me!"

Something to Remember—He ever liveth to make intercession for us.

Something to Draw—Draw a scroll. Print JESUS is the SON of GOD.
