BRIEFLETS. Monseigneur Emard, Bishop of Valleyfield, arrived at the Canadian College in Rome on the 23rd inst. The bazaar recently held at St. Joseph, Man., for the benefit of the local Catholic schools, netted six hundred dollars. His Honor Lieutenant-Governor Patterson left last Saturday for Ottawa, where he will be the guest of Sir Wilfrid Laurier. Mrs. John Gilmory Shea, the convert widow of the peerless Catholic historian, is dead at her home in Elizabeth, N.J., at the age of 65. Rev. Father LaRue will preach next Sunday evening in the church of the Immaculate Conception, continuing his series on "The Church."

On Sunday last, at 6 A.M., His Grace Archbishop Langevin conferred Tonsure and Minor Orders on Abbe Garon in the chapel of St. Boniface Hospital. The Hon. Clifford Sifton says that Major Walsh has already reached the Yukon but will not make Dawson City his headquarters. He is looking for a more central location. The first time you receive a new-issue Dominion five-dollar bill, look carefully at it, lest it might be a one fraudulently raised by pasting the five of another government issue on top of the one. This has been done lately with too much success. At the church of the Immaculate Conception on Sunday evening last, the First Sunday of Advent, the beginning of a penitential season, the beautiful and solemn services of the Stations of the Cross took the place of the usual vespers and sermon. The usual fast on the Wednesdays of Advent will, next week, be anticipated on Tuesday, eve of the Immaculate Conception. Tuesday will, therefore, be a fast day and Wednesday will not. This is in accordance with an indult dated May 12th, 1892. Very Rev. Father Allard, O.M.I., V.G., reports that the mortality on St. Peter's Reserve, from consumption, is greater than in many years past, and this dread disease is unfortunately spreading. Fr. Allard recently opened a new church on the Roseau Indian reserve. We regret to have to record the death of Mr. J. E. Gellay, so well known some twelve years ago as the contractor who built the Winnipeg Post office. He died at Notre Dame de Lourdes, Manitoba, fortified with all the rites of Holy Church. Though he had been ailing for some time, the end came rather suddenly. His daughters, Mrs. Driscoll and Mrs. C. H. Royal and his son Mr. George Gellay, of the Manitoba Hotel, will please accept our heartfelt sympathy in their sad bereavement. R. I. P. Miss Rosaie Parent, daughter of the postmaster at Letellier was married last week to Mr. Paul Boiteau. The happy couple spent the first days of their honeymoon in Winnipeg. That was a gracious act of our kindly Lieutenant-Governor when, on Thanksgiving Day, he provided all the inmates of the provincial jail with plenty of turkey, plum pudding and apples. Very Rev. Father Allard, O.M.I., V.G., Rev. Father Camper, O.M.I., Rev. Father Magnan, O.M.I., and Reverend Father Poitras, O.M.I., were in town last week consulting with His Grace the Archbishop, who, we are glad to say, is now almost completely restored to health and strength. We are requested to contradict the item that appeared last week in the Free Press to the effect that Chief Prince was still an inmate of St. Boniface hospital; he left the hospital long before the date when that item appeared and he was never dangerously ill during his stay in the hospital. We have been informed on the best authority that the report of the Grand Jury on the condition of the Selkirk Lunatic asylum was very deeply tinged with political bias and therefore wrongs the worthy and devoted gentlemen who conduct this establishment to the best of their ability. As a memento of the concert at which Madame Albani sang last month at Balmoral, the Queen has presented the Canadian diva with a beautiful gold inkstand richly encrusted with jewels. Her Majesty always calls on Madame Albani when the latter spends her autumn holiday at Braemar near Balmoral. Rev. Father Duhauc, O.M.I., who has been transferred from Hull, Que., to the diocese of Prince Albert, arrived in Winnipeg last Saturday and is the guest of Rev. Father Guillet, O.M.I., at St. Mary's Presbytery. He will leave on Friday for Prince Albert, where he is to take the place of Rev. Father Michel, as Vicar General. Adventurous Miss—"I want you to tell me about the Klondike. I've been reading so many descriptions of it and I'm just crazy to go there." Returned Klondiker—"You mean you would be." Miss—"I would be what?" Klondiker—"Crazy to go there."—DETROIT FREE PRESS. Mr. Hannis Taylor, a narrow minded enemy of all things Catholic, late ambassador to the court of the Catholic King, has revealed in the North American Review some of the most confidential conversations he has had with Spanish statesmen. Both the governments of the United States and of Spain are incensed at his thus selling the secrets of office. News comes from the Straits Settlements that an earthquake was felt on Sept. the 21st at Kudat in North Borneo, during which a new island was thrown up from the sea, fifty yards from the mainland, opposite Labuan. The island, which seems to be increasing in size and emits inflammable gas with a strong smell of petroleum, is 200 yards long by 150 yards wide and 60 feet high.

What a man attains to seems for a little time to be the highest rung in the ladder, and during that brief period he may be content, but when he discovers that there are other rungs, still higher up, ambition gives birth to discontent, and he begins once more to climb. To climb is really man's chief end. It isn't in attainment, but in work, that man finds his real happiness, consequently it is not strange that we find men working until they break down when there is no real necessity for it. If men only knew it, they could work to almost any extent on through middle life and into old age, if they would only take a little common sense care of their health. The trouble is that they do not take the little stitches here and there that are necessary to preserve health. They pay no attention to the signs of on-coming ill-health. A little biliousness, a little indigestion, a little loss of sleep and appetite, a little nervousness, a little headache, a little shakiness in the morning, and a little dullness all day, a little this and a little that—all these little things they neglect. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery makes the appetite keen, digestion and assimilation perfect, the liver active, the blood pure and the nerves steady. It is the great blood-maker and flesh-builder. It is the great liver invigorator and nerve tonic. It fits a man to work and work and work. Medicine dealers sell it and have nothing else "just as good."

"I was a sufferer five or six years from indigestion," writes B. F. Holmes, of Gaffney, Spartanburg Co., S. C. "I then used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and 'Pleasant Pellets,' which in a few days gave me permanent relief." A man or woman who neglects constipation suffers from slow poisoning. Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. One little "Pellet" is a gentle laxative, and two a mild cathartic. All medicine dealers sell them.

St. Boniface College. THE ONLY Catholic College In America... That competes annually with half a dozen Protestant Colleges & Collegiate Institutes. In proportion to the number of its pupils, St. Boniface College... Has Won... More Scholarships Than any of its Protestant Competitors. Read the following extract from the Northwest Review, July 8th, 1897:—The students of St. Boniface College came off with even more than usual success. They captured the two scholarships for Greek, Achille Rousseau, of the previous year, winning the coveted $40 over 26 competitors from his own and other colleges, and Jean Arpin the corresponding $25 in the Preliminary over twenty competitors. As our candidates numbered only eight against forty from three other colleges, this double victory redounds greatly to their credit. Moreover Achille Rousseau was fourth out of seventy-seven in Latin and Algebra. Antonin Dubuc was first out of one hundred and thirty from St. Boniface, Winnipeg, Portage La Prairie, Brandon and Regina, in the Latin of the Preliminary. The French and History scholarship of $50 in the previous year was won by Fortunat Lachance. In the Latin course of Mental and Moral science, Marius Cinq-Mars took his B. A. degree with first class honors and the Silver Medal, while Noel Beucher and E. J. Golden divided the two scholarships in the Junior B. A. year, receiving $100 each. The only other student in this year, Gus-ave Roan, obtained first class marks in all the honor papers of his course. The St. Boniface candidates maintained their long established reputation for thoroughness in the past subjects, Cinq-Mars being second out of twenty-eight in Latin and first out of thirty-three in Physics. Not one of the St. Boniface men failed in anything.
