Nice girl from Thorold is Miss Mississauga

What's a nice girl from tiny Thorold (pop. 8,000) doing with the Miss Mississauga banner after competing with 17 young things from this town of 150,000 persons, Port Credit and Streetsville? Well, she's got credentials, see! Namely a 5'8½" frame topped in blond hair, a dazzling pair of green eyes set in a fresh-as-country-cream face and a thoroughly unpretentious nature. Eighteen year old Dianne Wainman, a girl who models part time, helps out at a Vic Tanny Gym, and wants to be a figure skating teacher, came to Mississauga in June and was crowned Miss Mississauga for 1972 in Friday night's beauty pageant. Her reaction, Saturday, after a dizzying Friday night was that "it will be a wonderful experience" with "a lot of obligations" but a chance to learn a little. Former Miss Thorold and Miss Niagara Region, Dianne stunned judges and more than 400 in attendance with a hot pant formal and a beguiling swim suit. Dianne placed first in the competition ahead of first runner-up Sue Campbell and second runner-up Angelique La Bonte. She was crowned by Barbara Bell, Miss Mississauga 1971. Judges at the competition were Mississauga Councillor Lou Parsons, prize winning photographer Bert Hoferichter, Linda Reed, Mississauga News Community Editor, columnist Martha Moore, and Sheridan Mall manager Steve Sell. Comedian Al Boliska handled master of ceremonies' duties. To Diane, the beauty title is worth $2,000 in gifts as an entrant in the Miss Canada pageant Nov. 8, a Walter Thornton modelling course and $100 from Sheridan Mall, as well as several smaller prizes.

Police beat

Mississauga Police detectives arrested two suspects Monday in connection with the Friday indecent assault on a 9 year old Metro girl near the Etobicoke Creek. The case is still under active investigation and the suspects names were not released before press time on Tuesday. Superintendent Charles Robinson told The Times that two girls, 8 and 9, were playing beside the creek near the Toronto Golf Club around 5:30 on Friday when two teenage boys approached them and indecently assaulted the older child. The girl later told her father what had happened at their home in Etobicoke and he called the Toronto Police. The case was then handed over to the Mississauga authorities. In the third heroin seizure ever in Mississauga a 22 year old American man was arrested at Malton Airport on Oct. 11 as he tried to pass through customs. Dennis Eddis, of Philadelphia, had just walked off a plane from England and a subsequent search of his body revealed four small folded paper slips containing heroin and hashish taped to his legs. Customs officers also found a brass hashish pipe. Eddie appeared in provincial court last week on a charge of possession of heroin and was fined $350. The lesser charge of possession of hashish was dropped. Police estimate, the heroin was worth about $30 on the open market.
