Lord Fisher, of Kilverstone: "Am in entire accord with your plan which I am sending to Viscount Esher, G. C. B."

Earl of Kintore: "I am in cordial sympathy with your idea to keep alive and foster the great progress in drawing our nations together. Such a day would assuredly have its effect upon Europe and Asia."

Viscount Bryce: "Your plan interests me greatly and I am suggesting it to the British Committee."

Very Rev. W. Moore Ide, Dean of Worcester, suggests the adoption of the plan by the United States and Canada, thence spreading to the rest of the English-speaking world.

AUSTRALIA.

Acting Premier, 1911, Hon. W. M. Hughes: "The object you have in mind has my sympathy and hope it will prove successful."

Lord Mayor of Melbourne, 1911: "Echoes to the full the sentiments conveyed in my letter relative to the Annual Anglo-Saxon holiday."

SOUTH AFRICA.

The Mayor of Cape Town, 1911: "The proposals you so earnestly advocate command my sincere sympathy."
