Ottawa, 24th February, 1932.

Dear Mr. Ladner:-

It is with sincere gratitude that I acknowledge your very kind letter.

The decision which confronted me was indeed difficult, but I concluded that the avenue of service proposed was about the only one in which I could possibly help consistently with my other obligations at this time. It is quite apparent that much work is going to be entailed and I do greatly appreciate your expression of goodwill.

You can forget about the title without any complaint from me.

Yours truly,

Leon J. Ladner, Esq., K.C.,
470 Granville St.,
Vancouver, B.C.
