Ottawa, Aug. 1st, 1914

Rev. Sir,-

With reference to your remarks as to the need of a new school building at Big Cove, New Brunswick, I beg to say that the Department has no funds available this year for the purpose of building, but Mr. Agent Irving has been instructed to state what repairs would be needed to make the building comfortable for the winter and the probable cost.

Your obedient servant,

Asst. Deputy and Secretary.

Supt. of Indian Schools.,
