

Reference Works.

Arctic Bibliography. 1953 - 1965. $146.80. 1967 - 1971. $14.30 per annum. 1975 - $10.80 per annum. University Microfilms International.

A basic bibliography of international sources covering numerous disciplines. Especially useful for sociology, economics and geographical studies. Published every other year.

Canadian Almanac and Directory. 1884 - 1978. $1,050.00. per volume - $15.00. Micromedia.

Perhaps the most useful, general reference work on Canada. Useful for virtually all disciplines.

Canadian Parliamentary Guide. 1862 - 1912. $175.00 Micromedia.

Another basic reference tool. Includes biographies of the federal and provincial members, election results and Supreme Court data.

Canadian Studies Program. $1,638.00. Microfilm Centre of Texas.

This is a very general and comprehensive collection of current clippings, articles and other writings on a vast variety of subjects. Of particular use to non-Canadian libraries seeking broad coverage on a wide variety of topics. Updated annually.

McKims Directory of Canadian Publications. 1892 - 1942. $178.00. McLaren Micropublishing.

Essentially a reference source of publishing data for the period covered. Useful in libraries for building collections and to bibliographers and researchers.

Maclean-Hunter Special Files - Price on application.
Maclean-Hunter Microfilm Services.

Maclean-Hunter Microfilm Services put together a number of subject collections based on back issues of Macleans. There are new subjects being added constantly, some of which could be of use for the Canadian Studies Abroad Programme.

Toronto City Directories. A complete collection. In progress.
McLaren Micropublishing.

City directories provide a basic reference source for a variety of historical information relating to many disciplines. This project has been "in progress" for some time and hopefully will be completed in the near future.
