

District Dashes

A very pretty but quiet wedding was solemnized by Rev. Mr. McGreggor, of Comber, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Vint, Thursday evening, October 1st. The contracting parties were Mr. Charles H. Vint and Miss Ethel A. Butler, both of Tilbury North.—Tilbury News.

Master Donald Fletcher, of Valetta, was badly bitten by a sow on Friday last. Donald was in the field when the sow, which had a litter of young pigs, attacked him, knocking him down and biting his hand and leg. In the former case almost severing one finger from the hand.—Merlin Mirror.

Here's the way the French Canadian in Essex County advertised the loss of his dog: "Stole or run away—been loose about two weeks, heels almost black and white dog, him tail out of pretty close to my body, somebody find her keep I belong to him.—Joe Bordenham.

The death of Martin Welsh occurred at his home in Tilbury North on Thursday morning, after an illness of several weeks, which followed an attack of typhoid fever. The deceased was well and favorably known throughout this section. His sister Miss Welsh and the other members of the family have the sympathy of a large number of friends in Tilbury and vicinity.—Tilbury News.

An apple dealer remarked the other day that the farmers of Ontario were not as much alive to their own interests as the farmers of New York State. He said there the farmers buy their own barrels, pick and pack their own apples and then sell them for a good price to the buyer. Here they get the least possible money for their fruit because they were unwilling to do the work and do it properly.—Dresden Standard.

John McHardy, of Stewart, and his son Alexander, of Scotland, who is visiting his father, made the News a friendly call on Tuesday. Alexander expects to go to Toronto from here and will take up his residence there, having secured a position in that city. Mr. McHardy speaks very highly of this country, but would not admit that it was better than the land he had recently left. He says that the voyage across the deep blue and up the St. Lawrence was a grand trip.—Tilbury News.

Mr. S. Barr, of Dealtown, was in town yesterday, looking well and hearty. He reports having lost over $500 by a furious hailstorm three weeks ago, which destroyed nearly fifty acres of corn and other crops; several others in that vicinity also lost heavily; large maple trees were torn up by the roots, and all the fruit trees were destroyed or stripped of their fruit. With his four daughters he visited his old home near Ingersoll a few days since, and after comparing notes with the farmers there, states as his firm opinion, that owing to the great profits of the dairy industry, there is much more money in farming in Oxford than there is in Kent.—Blenheim News.

APPRECIATED.

The Merlin Mirror has the following to say of two Chatham concert artists who appeared at a concert in that place recently:

Bernie Weldon, of Chatham, is fast coming to the front as an entertainer. He is gifted with a particularly fine and pleasing voice, as well as an splendid stage appearance. His many selections pleased the large audience present, as was evidenced by the repeated encores given him. He too can again come to Merlin and be sure of a rousing reception.

Miss Edythe Hill is the possessor of an excellent contralto voice and sings with much expression. In sacred or sentimental songs Miss Hill would excel and could not fail to please. Her voice is particularly fine in the lower registers and her diction is good.

HOWARD'S OLDEST WOMAN DEAD

Wednesday, Sept. 30, there passed away the oldest woman in Howard Township, if not in Kent County, in the person of Mrs. Sarah Clark, widow of the late Samuel Clark. Mrs. Clark, who had reached the advanced age of 97 years, was born in England. Shortly after her marriage she came to this country in 1830, her first child being born in Howard. The family first settled in Tilbury, but about 1838 moved to the 5th concession, Howard, on to the present Clark farm. At that time that part of Howard was a wilderness, the only previous settlers being John McKay and Mr. McPherson, of Ridgeway. The husband died in 1860, leaving besides the widow a large family. The surviving members now are: Samuel, William, Joseph and Frank Clark, of Howard, George and Thomas, who reside in Kansas, and Mrs. Brandon, of Ridgeway.

A VERY BAD ACCIDENT.

On Thursday morning last a very serious accident happened to Mr. Wm. Randall, of Bay City, foreman of the construction gang at the sugar factory.

Mr. Randall was directing the moving of several cars loaded with coal and was using a hoisting engine and wrench with two hundred feet of two-inch rope for the purpose and while in the act of starting the rope around the drumhead, his sleeve caught in the machinery which was running very rapidly and lacerated his arm in a horrible manner, breaking almost every bone from the fingers to the elbow and tearing the flesh to ribbons. Mr. Randall, who is perry, assisted by one of the workmen, Geo. Kersey, turned the lever, which stopped the machinery.—Dresden Standard.

Some people talk too much to really say anything.

Scrofula

It is commonly inherited. Few are entirely free from it. Pale, weak, puny children are afflicted with it in nine cases out of ten, and many adults suffer from it. Common indications are bunces in the neck, abscesses, cutaneous eruptions, inflamed eyelids, sore ears, rickets, catarrh, wasting, and general debility.

Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pills

Eradicate it, positively and absolutely. This statement is based on the thousands of permanent cures these medicines have wrought.

"The face of my little girl from the time she was three months old, broke out and was covered with scabs. We gave her Hood's Sarsaparilla and it cured her." T. M. CARLING, Clinton, Ontario.

Hood's Sarsaparilla promises to cure and keeps the promise.

SIDE TRACKED TO-NIGHT.

Theatre-goers at large will no doubt be glad to hear that our old friend, the funny tramp, Horatio Irving Booth, will stop in his peregrinations and lay over for a rest, the freight car in which he travels being "Side Tracked."

The play is well known as a good, sensational comedy, chuck full of fun, fire and ginger. The play has been rewritten and strengthened, is being played with a fine cast composed of actors and actresses, and is making a greater than ever. The plot, while not deep, is thrillingly interesting and serves to amuse and entertain, as it shows the true inwardness of certain hypocritical human beings, and the innate nobility of character of one of the "genius homo," called a tramp proving the truth of the axiom: "It is not the clothes that make the man," and "A ragged coat may cover an honest heart."

A complete new outfit of stage effects and picturesque scenery, including the great railroad switch scene with its manipulation of the signal switch system, and the transferring of freight cars making them true to the title, "Side Tracked."

SIDE TRACKED TO-NIGHT.

THE GREAT PAULINE.

From the Burlington (Vt.) Daily Free Press: "The Great Pauline, the eminent French hypnotist and mind reader, is giving a series of entertaining and instructive lectures."

They are both amusing and instructive and fully demonstrate the power of mind over matter. His work is of such a character that the most skeptical must admit that it is genuine hypnotism and no slight of hand work. Nothing has ever appeared in Burlington that has furnished so much amusement and instruction and at the same time giving a peep into the mysteries of this great unexplained science. One of the great feats performed by the Great Pauline was placing a young man under the influence of his magic spell Tuesday evening and on Wednesday evening, twenty-four hours afterward, awakened him, unharmed and as natural as ever. The man was placed in a show window where he was viewed by thousands of people. The Pauline demonstrated his power over the subject by causing him to lie down, rise up and answer just as he wished. This he would do while standing on the sidewalk outside the building. To better illustrate the power of hypnotism, Pauline invited anyone to awaken the subject. A great many tried with no effect. As hard as it is to believe such a thing, we must either confess that it is so or our eyes are deceiving us. The sign "Standing room only" is out tonight and to say that our people are interested would be putting it mildly. He will appear at the Opera House here all next week.

Prices, 10, 20 and 30 cents.
