All pupils, whose names are on the roll, are charged with the dues, unless notice has been given of their removal from the institution.

Twelve Exhibitions were founded by the Council of King's College, 1841. They are tenable for three years. Accordingly, the regular number of vacancies each year is four; to two of which is attached exemption from College dues for tuition—to one, in addition to the above, the annual stipend of £10—and to one, exemption from College dues for both Board and Tuition, with the liberty to commute the privilege of boarding for an annual stipend of £20.
