

Varsity Seniors Are Champions

McGill Defeated by 12 to 0--The Game All Varsity's Way.

The Tackling A Strong Feature

The Good Work of the Back Division--The Cup Back in the Right Place Again.

The Varsity seniors demonstrated the fact that they are the fastest team in the Intercollegiate Union by winning their fourth game on Saturday, defeating McGill by 12 to 0.

which was converted by Baldwin Score 6-0. McGill then worked the ball down to the other end and kicked over the line, but Beattie saved it.

For Varsity, Baldwin, Percy and George Biggs, Beattie, and McCollum played star games. The McGill stars were Kenney and B. Molson.

Varsity has seldom had a faster team, and if they play their usual game when they meet the Argonauts, the Argonauts will almost certainly be defeated.

POLITICAL SCIENCE.

The Club Holds Its First Meeting--A Good Debate.

PROGRAM FOR 1901-1902.

On Friday afternoon last the Political Science Club held its first meeting. The honorary president, Dr. Wickett, occupied the chair, and the meeting was well attended.

The speakers had evidently spent considerable time and thought upon the subject, and had their speeches well in hand, the debate being remarkable for the fluency of speech of each of the debaters.

Mr. Soule rendered the song of the "Chinese Soldier-Man" from "San Toy" in his usual happy manner, and was encored.

Mr. Looser took up the affirmative side with ability, and showed the fallacy of some of the arguments of his opponents. It could not be denied, he said, that the workman had a great deal to do with the profits in every firm. There was an extraordinary profit which arose from good relations between capital and labor, and which could be destroyed by the laborer refusing to maintain good-will to his employer and to do his best work.

Mr. Clappison was the last speaker, and in his remarks showed a close acquaintance with the subject. He addressed further arguments to show that profit-sharing would by no means abolish strikes, and argued that this system would affect the freedom of the working classes.

Dr. Wickett, in summing up the debate, offered some suggestions to the speakers. They had not sufficiently defined the terms which they used, the result being that there was a difference of opinion on the meaning of "profits" and "profit-sharing."

The following is the program for the year. Great credit is due to President Honeywell and his committee for the varied and attractive program which they have provided.

MULOCK CUP SERIES.

The Snap-Back Rules Adopted--Twelve On a Side.

SCHEDULE OF GAMES.

The representatives of the different years and colleges that have teams in the Mulock Cup Rugby series met on Thursday afternoon to arrange the schedule and go over some other business.

The question of adopting the snap-back game on rules compiled by Mr. Burnside was brought up and strongly discussed, being finally adopted, as they considered it to be better than the rules now in vogue.

The new game will be played with 12 men on a side, in place of 15, and while the man is snapping the ball back, the wings must stand five yards apart, and those in possession of the ball are allowed to block only with their hands.

The quarter, on receiving the ball from the snapper-back, cannot buck the line before taking three steps. In the kick-off, a man must kick the ball ten yards towards his opponents' goal, and any player on his side will be offside till the ball has gone that far or been touched by an opponent.

The following are the referees appointed for the games: Thiff, Burnside, A. J. Mackenzie, W. Ross, V. E. Henderson, F. D. Woodworth, F. Rutter, A. E. Barr, Dr. McKenzie, Doc Wright, Percy Brown.

DEBATE AT THE LIT.

Capital Punishment Discussed--Messrs. Woodroffe and Younge For Queen's.

MR. CUNNINGHAM'S REPORT.

A well-attended meeting was that of the Literary Society last Friday evening. There was a good deal of business to be discussed, and this, together with the debate, caused the hour to be late when the society adjourned.

King Edward and the Duke of Cornwall, being our most distinguished Varsity grads, were made honorary members of the society, and efforts are to be made at once to find out whether the illustrious members are "Unionist" or "Old Lit." in their political views.

proceeds from the programs. Mr. Cunningham spoke strongly of the enthusiastic support he had received in most cases, but advised the society in the future to act sooner and more promptly if the balcony was to be retained for the Arts men.

Mr. O'Dell, '03, led the negative. He pointed out that there should be some extraordinary punishment for that greatest of crimes--murder--and that it would not be just to enforce a punishment of the same character for forgery, e.g., as for murder.

Mr. Jamieson, '05, spoke next on the affirmative in a very forcible manner. He showed how public sentiment was gradually growing stronger in favor of the abolition of capital punishment, and called attention to a great principle of just punishment, i.e., that it should not prevent the spectacle of cruelty.

Messrs. Honeywell, Broadfoot, and Baird, the judges, gave the decision in favor of the negative. Mr. Soule rendered the song of the "Chinese Soldier-Man" from "San Toy" in his usual happy manner, and was encored.

HARMONIC CLUB NOTES.

The Executive of the Harmonic Club is at present busy arranging for the tour which will take place during the week beginning November 16.

The Glee Club practices continue to be most interesting and well attended. It is the opinion of all that the club, though it can boast of having had some of the finest conductors in Canada, has never had a better man as leader than Mr. Cringan.

The orchestra practices are held on Wednesdays at 4.30. They are most enthusiastic meetings, and the orchestra is experiencing wonderful success for such a young organization.

THE SCRUTINEERS.

Act. III.

Pirates' chorus: Hist! hist! Hist! hist! Mum is the command; Hush! hush! Beware the pirate band!

Mr. O'Dell, '03, led the negative. He pointed out that there should be some extraordinary punishment for that greatest of crimes--murder--and that it would not be just to enforce a punishment of the same character for forgery, e.g., as for murder.

Messrs. Honeywell, Broadfoot, and Baird, the judges, gave the decision in favor of the negative. Mr. Soule rendered the song of the "Chinese Soldier-Man" from "San Toy" in his usual happy manner, and was encored.

POLITICAL SCIENCE DINNER.

The Political Science Club is without a doubt the most popular of all the department societies, and has one occasion distinguished on more than one occasion for its progressiveness and its up-to-date methods of making its work interesting and attractive.

There is certain to be a good time, and every Political Science man who has any appetite either for material or intellectual food will be sure to be on hand.

HARBOR ALUMNI.

The Harbord Alumnae will hold the annual open reception on Friday evening, November 15, 1901, at 8 o'clock, in the assembly room of the Institute.
