GOSSIP.

Mr. F. S. Peer, Mt. Morris, N. Y., recently returned from the Islands of Jersey, Guernsey and Great Britain with 11 head of pure-bred stock, consisting of Jersey and Guernsey cattle, Cotswold and Hampshire sheep, and a few Berkshires. The stock is in quarantine at Garfield, N. J.

George Green, Fairview, Ont., has recently imported a choice pair of Berkshires, boar and sow, from the Hood farm herd at Lowell, Mass., which are said to be extra good ones. George knows a good one when he sees it, and that is the kind he breeds, shows and sells.

From the London Live Stock Journal we learn that on June 23rd a fine collection of Shropshires, purchased through Messrs. Alfred Mansell & Co., of Shrewsbury, left Millwall docks per steamship Arrago, of the Elder-Dempster line, for Mr. John Campbell, of Woodville, Ont. For ten years past most of Mr. Campbell's selections in Shropshires have been made from the Newton-on-the-Hill flock, the exhibits from which have been singularly successful, both in the Canadian and American showyards. Mr. Campbell's shipment this season included one of the winners in the pen of three lambs at the recent Shropshire and West Midland Show, sired by the 60-guinea Manchester Guardian, third R.A.S.E. Two of Mr. Williams' field ewes, also winners at the same show, and sired by Manchester Guardian, are included in Mr. Campbell's selections. Mr. Williams also supplies a splendid ram lamb by Sam's Best, which, however, has not been exhibited, but which his late owner thinks will render an excellent account of himself in the Canadian showings. Five field ewes and one ram were purchased from the flock of Mr. A. E. Mansell, and two ram lambs from Mr. R. C. Pryce, the whole forming a really good lot of animals, suitable for breeding and showing purposes. The shipment comprised forty-five head, and included some Cotswolds and Oxford from Mr. Russell-Swanwick, Mr. Garne, and Mr. Stilgoe.

R. S. Nicholson, Sylvan, Ont., writes: "The Shorthorn heifers advertised in FARMER'S ADVOCATE recently are all sold, along with some young cows. Thos. Boak & Son, Gerry, N. Y., takes three cows, one a Lovely, only three descents from that grand Cruickshank imp. Lovely 10th. She is safe in calf to Royal Standard, first-prize winner at Toronto as a calf, and first at Ottawa as a yearling last year, beating the bull that took first at Toronto. 2nd Mina of Sylvan, only two removes from the Highland Society winner, imp. Minerva. She is a Mina of the richest breeding, sired by the first-prize Toronto and Columbian Nornman. She is three years old, and carrying her third calf to Royal Standard. Also 21th Maid of Sylvan, the four top-sires in whose pedigree were all first-prize Toronto winners. Her dam was also a Toronto and Columbian winner, which accounts for her too being a Toronto winner. She is in calf to our imp. Chief of Stars, a Cruickshank Clipper, by the famous sire, Star of Morning. These three would be a prominent trio in any herd, and Messrs. Boak are to be congratulated on such an acquisition to their herd. Have also sold to Eli Perkins, of Petrolia, three beautiful yearling heifers, all sired by Indian Brave, and bred to Chief of Stars. If he had another to match them he would have a show herd. Mr. Perkins is interested in oil, in addition to which he farms some four hundred acres, having been feeding steers for some years, and made a success of it. We believe he will be equally successful with Shorthorns. He has acted wisely in laying so good a foundation. Would report the sale of several others did space permit. Our Chief of Stars has done well since his arrival here. We never fed a beast that made better use of its feed. He is out with the cows every day, fed very little grain, and is in fine working form. He is almost a full brother in blood to Mr. Duthie's Chief stock bull, Pride of Morning, the sires in their pedigrees being identical, excepting that Chief of Stars has the advantage of the great Mario cross. As an individual he almost fills the bill; his top is one continual plane from shoulder top to turn of tail, without the least variation from truth, grandly set down in the loins, and full in twist; his flanks well down, making his lower line run parallel with his upper line, beautifully covered shoulders, and nicely turned rib, and his whole body covered thickly with a fine quality of flesh and hair. He has fine Shorthorn character throughout. He is large, masculine in appearance, with a noble bearing, without the least suspicion of coarseness in any part. We are expecting great things of him."

IMPORTANT ENGLISH HEREFORD SALE.
As announced in our advertising columns in this issue, Messrs. John Thornton & Co. will on Sept. 11th sell by auction the noted herd of Hereford cattle belonging to Mr. J. S. Oliver, at Trescome, Cornwall, England, numbering over 100 head. The herd was established in 1841, and by judicious purchase from eminent breeders, and the constant and consistent use of high class sires, has been maintained at a very high level of quality. Clarence 1894, a son of Merlin, is one of the stock bulls now in service. He is the sire of Sorcerer, winner of first at the Royal this year. A grand crop of calves by Clarence will be in the sale list.

BIG PRICES FOR BLOOD STOCK.
Some extraordinary sales of Thoroughbred horses have been made at Newmarket during the past month. Four figures were commonly and cheerfully paid for anything that was good, but the top stuff made up to 10,000 gs. The late Duke of Westminster's yearlings, twelve in number, had a remarkable sale, realizing 4,200 and averaging 350 gs. Those making 4,000 gs. and over were a Persimmon bay colt, the Red or mane ornament, which was sold to H. S. Sawyer for 10,000 gs.; a bay colt, the Duke of Westminster's, which was sold to the Duke of Westminster for 4,000 gs.; and a bay colt, the Duke of Westminster's, which was sold to the Duke of Westminster for 4,000 gs.
