REV. PLACID DOYLE

A patriot priest lies buried beneath the green sods of France. In the vigor of youth and glow of patriotism, but particularly in eagerness for the boys' spiritual welfare Father Placid Doyle was the first Friar of the Cincinnati province to volunteer for chaplain's services and to enter the service. "The boys need priests, and the relation of the priest's place is with the boys." A patriot priest lies buried beneath chapitain's services and to enter the service. Father Placid (Herbart) Dovle was a native of Chatham, Ontario, Canada, where he was born January 26th. With his parents he attended St. Joseph's in charge of the Franciscan Fathers. In 1902 he came to Cincinnati to make his preparatory studies in our Seraphic Seminary, and on August 15th, the year of his graduation, entered the Order of Friars Minor at Mt. On June 16th, 1915, he was ordained a priest, and at once appointed to teach in the Seminary. Last year. July, 1917, he was transferred to his

There he met many Canadian boys, returned from the front, who told him of the sad need of priests in France, and he immediately resolved that his place was with the boys in war. Father Placid's letter of appli-cation to Father Provincial tells eloquently of the noble purpose that prompted this young priest to enlist for the military chaplaincy. "You know me, dear Father," he writes, "and will believe me, when I say that in this request I am not pro-moted by the desire to seek worldly glory and the estimation of men; but only the welfare of our boys at the front who are in such dire need spiritual assistance, and the greater glory of God and our Holy Church. > > MISS FRANCES CONNOR Waupun Democrat. Dec. 13

Waupun, Wis, has been called in the past week to surrender some of its best loved residents who fell victims to the epidemic of influenza. The dread disease entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Conner and broke their beautiful family circle by claiming their youngest daughter, Frances, who passed away Saturday, Dec. 7, at 11 a. m. after a brief illness. The young girl, just entering woman-hood, had only recovered since last April from an illness which had last-ed for seventeen months and which doubtless had left her little power of resistance when struck down by in-fluenza, although she had been smart and active the past summer.

Frances was born Aug. 23, 1900, at Kingston, Ontario, and was educated at St. Mary's convent, Peterboro, On-tario, until she came with her family to Waupun six years ago, when Mr. Connor became superintendent of the twine factory at the prison. She en tered high school here and graduated with honors with the class of 1916 as its youngest member, and was a great favorite with her classmates. She developed unusual talents in music and dramatic readings and possessed a personality that made her greatly

After graduation she entered the Ursuline College at Chatham, Ontario, and was taken ill there soon after and came home, arriving here New Year's Day, 1917. Through all her long sickness she showed her remarkable character by the courage and fortitude with which she bore her affliction, while the deep and abiding faith and joy of her religion peace to the world, give eternal rest to his priestly soul!—St. Anthony's On Friday she was much pleased at receiving a letter from her brother written the day of the signing of the

The surviving members of the family are her parents, four sisters, Sister St. Thomas of St. Angela's College at London, Ontario, Edith and Kathleen who are teaching in Western Canada, Winifred at home and one brother, Thomas, with the 10th Canadian Battalion in France. To them the deepest sympathy is extended and the assurance that alcomparatively brief, the little daughter made many friends who will treasure the memory of her bright sweet girlhood.

The funeral was held Tuesday at 9 o'clock from St. Joseph's Church, Rev.
