CATHOLIC PRESS.

N. Y. Catholic Review. The glory of the Catholic Church is that it is for all nations, for all countries, all times. Wise and simple, rich and poor, high and low find in it the fulfillment of the requirements of their mind. Its doctrines are so profound that only the subtlest intellects can fathom their mysterious depths, yet a child with a little catechism may understand sufficiently all that it proposes as indispensable to faith. Before its altars all men are equal. Reduced to their lowest terms, its theory is love and its practice is the cross. It is the visible activity of Christ in the world. It is the cloud by day, pillar of fire at night, always visible, leading those who will follow it to the Promised Land. "Today, to day if you should hear His voice, harden not your hearts."

It is authoritatively announced that His Holiness the Pope had consented to permit the members of the Vatican choir to go to Chicago; and not only to go there, but to sing there. This permission is almost without precedent, and is one more proof of the interest taken by the Holy Father in this gathering together of the wonders of the earth to celebrate an event which meant so much for Christendom. Think of the Pope's choir singing the Salve Regina, the hymn Columbus loved above all others, on the shores of Lake Michigan, near the end of the nineteenth century! And think of the goodness of God, which guided the little fleet, and by which we are permitted to listen to the same devout song which floated over the unknown water daily at sunset from the deck of the Santa Maria!

It is announced that in consequence of the outcome of the recent trial of Dr. Briggs by the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, there have been many conversions to the Catholic fold. That result is not surprising, but it is none the less gratifying to those who desire the conversion of this country to Catholicity. Undoubtedly other cities than New York can make a similar announcement in this matter to the one which comes from that municipality.

The recent conversion of two Protestant clergymen in this city by the newspapers. Otherwise the general public would never have known of their change of faith. For it is not the way of the Catholic Church to make a noise every time it receives a new member, and it is quietly welcoming tens of thousands right here in the United States every year. As that sterling paper, The Catholic Universe of Cleveland, O., says: "In our own diocese there are thousands of devout Catholics who were once among the flower of the denominational brethren in their respective localities—honest men and women, whose intellectual graspings after a logical and unchangeable system of belief and practice brought them gradually within the benign influence of Catholic truth. The grace of God supplied the right use of reason and conviction crowned their quest with the peace and certainty of true faith. During his recent Episcopal tour of the diocese, our Right Rev. Bishop confirmed with the sacramental chrism more than one hundred of these newly recruited soldiers of the cross. That is the story of the Church in all parts of our great country. Annually, thousands enter the true fold from the best informed and best disposed among non-Catholic Christians." The Church is fulfilling its mission here—sanctifying its own and attracting to its fold those who want the truth. Converts will not find themselves strangers when they enter it—they will meet in it many old friends who have entered before them. They will shortly feel quite at home.

What Protestants Say.

The New Haven, Conn., Union was among the secular papers to defend the Catholic Church from the attacks of the Christian Endeavorers at Montreal, and it said, editorially, in a recent issue: "It is a matter of deep regret that it is impossible for any great body of Protestant Christians to get together without some pious ass jumping up and emitting his bray against the Catholics. These holy donkeys at the meeting of Christian Endeavorers at Montreal. Their names and titles are Rev. Mr. Karmarth of India, Dr. Wayland Hoyt of Minneapolis, and Dr. J. D. Burrell of New York city. These are all eminent and respected clergymen at home, and in their own churches they can howl against the Catholics as eloquently and indignantly as they please; they are among their own people, and their rantings hurt nobody but themselves. Even the very indiscreet Rev. J. D. Fulton, who has made his living for years lecturing about the 'man of sin,' the 'beast of seven heads and ten horns,' is permitted to go up and down the country without being seriously disturbed. What is to be expected of him is well understood, and nobody cares a straw for his frantic ravings. But the Christian Endeavorers are a body of tolerant Christians imbued with a true missionary spirit. They went to Montreal, a great Catholic city, because they were welcomed there and in the sincere hope of breaking down some of the barriers between Protestant and Catholic. They had reason to hope they saw results from their work, for they saw the new spirit of tolerance and friendship had developed among the Catholic people under the kindly policy of the Pope and leadership of Archbishop Satolli. But the three pious donkeys of whom we have spoken have spoiled it. For they have provoked a riot among the ignorant and excitable portion of the Catholic population which has more than once made it dangerous for the innocent delegates, men and women alike, to move about the streets. That there have been no murders is undoubtedly due to the efforts of the Catholic priests and the untiring vigilance and bravery of a police composed wholly of Catholic adherents. It makes a Protestant blush for shame at the bigoted, intolerant spirit displayed by the three imitators of Burchard at Montreal. It puts back for years the accomplishment of that Christian union which the Christian Endeavorers on one side and the Pope and his ablegate on the other are seeking in America.

SIR STUART KNILL, BART.

London Would Like to See a Few More Genuine Catholic Lord Mayors.

Amongst the honors awarded by the Queen this year, none is better deserved than that conferred on the Lord Mayor. In future, Mr. Stuart Knill will be known as Sir Stuart Knill, Bart. He has had a very trying term of office, and has had to put up with many insults from insolent and ignorant persons. But he has borne them all, and has performed his duties in a most dignified and loyal manner. It is pleasing to find that the sheriffs who supported the Lord Mayor on so many trying, but nevertheless, grand occasions, have received knighthoods, and in future will be known as Sir Joseph Renals and Sir Walter H. Wilkin. Taking up all things into consideration, and looking at the great many good works Sir Stuart Knill has done, we do not think the city of London would be sorry to see a few more genuine Catholic Lord Mayors. Of course, there are a few ignorant persons who would cry out insults were another Catholic Lord Mayor elected; but, thank goodness, they are very few. The majority of the people of the city, we feel sure, wish with us that Sir Stuart Knill may live to enjoy his well deserved honors.—London Catholic Universe.

PILGRIMAGE TO ST. ANNE DE BEAUPRE.

St. Anne de Beaupre, the famous shrine of the Quebec Controversy, has been visited for the first time by a large number of people than in any of its history. The pilgrims not only came from all parts of Canada, but also from several States of the American Union, and included people of all nationalities. The cures reported to have occurred are numerous. In years past the beautiful Church of St. Anne was reached only by boat, and the number of pilgrims was necessarily smaller. Since the opening of the Q. M. C. Railway,

THE COLUMBIAN JUBILEE.

The number of pilgrims have increased—True Witness. A pilgrimage by special train via the Grand Trunk Railway to this celebrated shrine will take place on Monday, Aug. 21, and will arrive at Anne's 7 p. m. Monday, 22nd. It is under the direction of Rev. Father Casey, Campellford. Special cheap rates have been secured.
