Custom House, Saint Andrews, 1st January, 1830.

SIR,

The Seamen's Sixpences due from yourself and your Crew while in command of the Provincial Revenue Schooner, never having been paid to me as Receiver of the said Sixpences at this Port, I have the honor by command of the Commissioners of the Royal Hospital Greenwich to forward you a form which you are required to fill up with the least possible delay, and return into this Office.

I am, &c.

J. M. SPEARMAN, Depy. Recr.

St. Andrews, 1st July, 1830.

SIR,

I beg leave to request you will do me the favour to lay the enclosed letter before His Honor the President.

The letter of which this is a Copy, I had the honor of addressing to His Honor, so long ago as the 11th April last, and suppose it must have miscarried as I have not yet had the honor of a reply.

I have the honor, &c.

(Signed) J. M. SPEARMAN, Depy. Receiver.

JOHN BLACK, Esquire, Private Secretary.

Copy referred to in the preceding Letter.Saint Andrews, 11th April, 1830.

TO HIS HONOR THE PRESIDENT.

Sir,

The Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty having been pleased by their Commission to appoint me Deputy Receiver of Seamen's Sixpences for this Port, I beg leave to represent to your Honor that there is a large sum due on this account from the Masters and Crews of the Revenue Cutters Elizabeth and Defiance. I also beg leave to state that on making application to the late and present Masters of the above vessels, I have been informed that they always accounted for these sums, on drawing from the Treasury the wages and subsistence of themselves and Crews, and that the same are now in the hands of the Provincial Treasurer. I have therefore the honor to request that you will issue your order to that Officer to pay over to me the amount of the said sums at the rate of Sixpence per man per month for the whole period the said vessels have been in Commission, otherwise I shall be unable to prepare and forward the Accounts called for by the Receiver General.

I have the honor, &c.

(Signed) J. M. SPEARMAN, Deputy Receiver.
