LOCAL AFFAIRS.

—Cryderman of Walkerton trims wall paper ready for wall free.

—Go to Ladies' Aid dinner in Curle's lawn on 24th. Good meals, 25 cts.

—The GAZETTE for the balance of the year to new subscribers for 50 cents cash.

—Miss Kate Pletsch and Mr. J. Debocher of Ayton, were in town on Sunday calling on friends.

—The bricklayers have commenced raising the wall of U. Schmidt's brick block on Elora st. south.

—All kinds of garden sass that was up has been cut down by the severe frost of the early part of this week.

—Chris. Weiler of Formosa, has an advertisement in another column re eggs for hatching. See adv. for particulars and prices.

—A. Murat left with us a stock of Alfalfa clover which measured 21 inches in length. He had an acre of this kind but alas, it is no more, being cut down with the frost.

—A grand ball will be held in McDonald's hall, Mildmay, on Friday evening, May 24th, 1895. First-class dance music will be provided. Every person invited. Tickets, 35 cents a couple.

—Business won't come if you sit still and wait for it. Stir it up with new circulars, new posters, new price lists, new advertisements and new printed matter generally. The GAZETTE office is the proper place to get such work done.

—Charles Buhlman disposed of his harness business to Mr. Adam Pletsch, of Walkerton, last week. Mr. Pletsch comes here highly recommended as a harness maker, and as he is an old Carriek boy, we have no fear but that he will be able to conduct a very successful business here.

—Walkerton has organized a cricket club with the following officers:—Hon. Pres., H. Cargill, M. P.; Pres., Sheriff O'Connor; Vice-Pres., G. W. McKee; Sec., A. Maybec; Treas., W. G. Stovel; Captain, E. Gabel. As ye editor of the GAZETTE is an old player, also a lover of the game, will be glad to see Walkerton cricket club have a successful year.

—Sunday, children to the number of 35, took their first communion in the R. C. church. The ceremony was in charge of Rev. Father Brohman. During the service the rev. gentleman gave a fluent discourse, on the "Holy Communion," showing it to be every person's duty to become servants of the most High God. The children were very prettily dressed, the girls in white, the emblem of purity, while the boys wore roses over their hearts. May the children ever bear in mind the vows they took at the altar that day.

If you want to get a first-class wire fence, call on Geo. Curle, Mildmay.

—See the People's Drug Store's change of adv. this issue.

—Work has been commenced on the erection of the priest's house this week.

—A. Runstettler is going to ship a car load of horses from here for Montreal Saturday.

—Mr. Havens and Miss Nelson, of Harriston, spent Sunday with the former's uncle, Geo. Warner.

—Rev. Mr. Haist has had a neat sidewalk laid from the road to the rear of his premises this week.

—Remember the Ladies' Aid of the Methodist church will serve dinner on Curle's lawn on the 24th. Meals 25c.

—Schnitzler Bros. have their saw mill in full running order now. They commenced operations on Monday last.

—John Wilton sold a steer to Mr. J. Rowland, of Walkerton, and which was shipped from this station on Thursday. The beast was 38 months old and weighed 1500 pounds.

—A week from Friday is the day of the grand celebration in Mildmay by the Athletic Association. Don't miss seeing the various games and performances. Bicycle race takes place at 11:30 a. m.

—It is our sad duty this week to intimate to our readers that Joseph William, beloved son of Sarah A. and Andrew Teskey, died on Monday morning. Deceased had been ailing for about a year. While working in Mt. Forest he contracted a cold, which being neglected turned into consumption. He was a young man of great promise, but was cut off in the prime of life, being only 17 years, 4 months and 20 days of age. The funeral took place on Wednesday afternoon from his father's residence, Absalom st. east, to Walkerton cemetery and was largely attended by friends and acquaintances. The bereaved family have the sincere sympathy of all the community in their sad bereavement.

—Well Bro. Chester, in reference to your little bit of eulogism, I might state that I accept your challenge re bona fide subscribers, and during the past three months that I have been in charge, I can show a larger number of new subscribers than you can show for a whole year, and if I couldn't turn out a better and more popular rag than you do I would throw up the sponge and quit the business altogether. Another fact is I am able to write my own business locals, which you are evidently not able to do as you steal business locals one after another and give no credit for same. If you really cannot write up one just call at our office and we will endeavor to accommodate you. As for us being N. G. as you stated in your last issue, we will relegate you one notch higher with the following initials to place behind your name:—N. D. G. Yours in reference to "kids should feel before they jump," we direct your attention to your own infantile steps in the journalistic arena and the success that has been attained by journalists in Clifford. We are here to stay, which, judging from appearances is more than we can say of some of our friends in a neighboring town.

—The Kickapoo Medicine Co., who have been holding forth in the town hall for the past week have attracted large crowds to their entertainments. Thursday and Saturday evenings they gave a grand double program. On Thursday evening they had a ladies' nail driving contest for a silver pickle cruet, which was won by Mrs. John McGaan, and on Saturday evening they had a ladies' wood sawing contest, the prize being another silver pickle cruet, which was won by Miss T. Guittard. Mr. Coleman, the Irish comedian, has been the favorite through the company's entire sojourn here. Prof. Zarnes magician, has been mystifying the people by a large number of difficult slight of hand tricks. As a trapeze artiste Mr. Zarnes has very few equals Geo. Fox, the black faced comedian, with his witticisms took the house by storm. The doctor in his various harangues on the expedience with which the Indian medicines act upon the human system, gives a very fluent discourse. For the real old Indian dances you want to visit the Indian camp to understand the beauties whereof we speak. The company close their engagement here to-night with a grand double program. During this evenings proceeding a large silver pitcher will be presented to the person guessing nearest the number of beans contained in a glass jar. The company leave on Friday and open a week's engagement in Neustadt.

—Miss A. Messner and Miss M. Pherson of Formosa, were the guests of Miss Rosa Herring on Sunday.

—Don't forget Ladies' Aid dinner in connection with the Methodist church on 24th of May. Dinner to be served on Curle's lawn. Proceeds to be applied on debt of Church.

—The GAZETTE office, Mildmay, is the proper place to get all printing done on shortest notice. We guarantee first-class work and at prices to suit the times. Give us a call.

—Monday morning there was a great time at the G. T. R. station when a Mr. Scott of Galt shipped some seven car loads of export cattle. There were some 140 cattle in the consignment.

—Andrew Gissler, proprietor of the woollen mills, has issued bills announcing that he is prepared to buy any quantity of wool at highest market price. He has also a large stock of tweeds, blankets, flannels, and yarn which he will exchange at the lowest prices. Custom work a specialty.

—The directors of the Carriek Branch Agricultural Society are having the fair grounds levelled off this week. When finished it will make a vast improvement to the grounds. It is to everybody's interest to help in this work and eventually we will have one of the best show grounds in the county. Come friends, shoulder a spade and give a hand.

—All last week people around here were complaining of the heat and had their stoves removed to summer quarters, but at time of writing several have returned them to their winter resorts. Up till Saturday we have had exceedingly warm weather but a sudden change took place, when Jack Frost and the sun had a tussle in which the latter came out second best. Sunday morning the ground was white with the beautiful. Sunday night there was a heavy frost. People who were in a hurry to discard their winter garments were glad to replace them once more. It is thought by a good many who know that fruit would be severely damaged by the heavy frost on Monday as plowed land was frozen so hard as to hold up a team of horses.

—The arrangements made with the Wingham Dramatic Co., to present their play "Among the Breakers" having fallen through, the directors of the Athletic Association have made a contract with the Kickapoo Indian Medicine Concert Co., to give a grand concert in the Town Hall on the evening of the 24th, also for a grand exhibition on the grounds in the afternoon. These will be the best entertainments ever given by the above company in Mildmay. Poles 30 feet high will be erected by Prof. Zarnes to do his famous swinging trapeze and ring exhibition upon, while happy Dick Coleman will render some of his most popular Irish songs. Geo. Fox, the black faced comedian will also be present and perform some of his fancy dances and render some of his popular songs and witty sayings. A stage will be erected on the grounds for the afternoon performance.

—Grand celebration of her Majesty's Birthday in Mildmay on Friday, May 24th, 1895, under the management of the Mildmay Athletic Association. At great expense the Association have secured the following baseball teams to give a grand exhibition of this popular game. Unions of Gorrie and Wroxeter, vs. Alphas of Galt, also a match between the bachelors and benedicts of Mildmay. They have also secured the Wingham Lacrosse Club, champions of Huron District, and Walkertons, champions of the Saugeen District, to give an exhibition of the national game. Prof. Van Every of Galt, high rope and trapeze artiste, has been secured for the occasion. The Citizen's Band of Walkerton, will discourse sweet music during the day. Contracts have been signed by all the performers (with forfeit) and all parties going to Mildmay may rest assured of seeing the whole programme carried out without a hitch. A grand Calithumpian parade is being arranged for that day. All umpires, referees, judges, etc., are selected by the directors and are instructed to call the games sharp on time. Their decisions in all cases are final. The village will be beautifully decorated for the occasion and ample arrangements are being made to accommodate a large concourse of people. The afternoon train going south will be held until 6:45, and the night train for the north will leave at 10:15 instead of 9:35, thereby giving people an opportunity to attend the variety entertainment in the evening.
