

TEMPERANCE IS STILL AN ISSUE

Importance of Teaching Its Scientific Side to Young Is Emphasized

Y.W.C.T.U. HAS MEETING Anti-Narcotics an Enemy—Allege Alcohol in Many Patent Medicines

An interesting meeting of the Y.W.C.T.U. was held last evening at Miss N. Deacon's home...

She emphasized the importance of the devotional half hour and the importance of prayer...

She spoke of one Bible reading of special interest on "Hospitality" for service not show.

In speaking of the "Traveler's Aid" work, she drew attention to the help the revenue of the company of Surprise Soap wrappers was to this work.

She said the importance of teaching Scientific Temperance to the boys and girls cannot be over-estimated.

She also drew attention to the percentage of alcohol in some patent medicines, also essences received a scoring as well as soft drinks.

After many helpful quotations and suggestions she closed saying "Pull if you can pull, Push if you can push, If you can neither pull or push, at least keep out of the way."

During the business part of the program, Mrs. Keeber was appointed Superintendent of Dept. of Health and Heridity.

The annual garden party was also discussed and Mrs. O'Flynn's offer of her spacious lawn was gratefully accepted for June 14 or 15.

Those members having flowers brought them and some got from friends for the "Flower Mission Work" to take the sick and shut ins.

Letter to the Editor

Editor Ontario,—I notice our School Board is boosting salaries while Port Arthur is reducing them ten per cent.

Prices of all kinds of stuff and wages generally are on the toboggan but with our School Board it seems simply a matter of "Ask and ye shall receive" building included.

Well they are certainly determined to gobble up the town. I ask the property holders to take their pencils in hand and figure out how much per hour the teachers are getting for their services.

I have done so and find that four of the lady teachers get two dollars per hour, and one male teacher, over five dollars. I wish I was a teacher with 5 1/2 hours per day and about three months holidays each year.

Are we going to let this go without a public protest? Yours truly, D. H. Ackerville, V.S.

TO ENDOW MOTHERHOOD

Sydney, N. S. W., Labor Party presents Bill for This

SYDNEY, N.S.W., June 17.—The parliamentary Labor Party here has approved a draft of a bill providing endowment for motherhood.

Provision is made in the bill for a pension of about $2.50 a week to widowed mothers up to an age provided for by the Commonwealth.

Parents in receipt of an income of $48.50 will receive an endowment of $1.10 for each child under fourteen years of age after the first two.

The bill applies to persons resident in New South Wales two years or more.

The scheme is estimated to cost $1,600,000 annually.

ST. AGNES SCHOOL CLOSING

St. Agnes Girls' School has closed another successful year, perhaps the most successful in its history as Ex-Mayor Ketcheson, one of the directors of the institution, stated at the commencement exercises held last evening in the chapel.

The early Agnes girls in the city of Belleville were evinced by the public interest in the closing, a large number of citizens being present.

Judge Willis, in a short address, urged loyalty to the institution on the part of students and graduates and hinted that perhaps within six months they might have an opportunity to put their fidelity to St. Agnes to the test.

At the closing, a large number of the students and graduates were present, and Miss Carroll and the staff and impressing upon the students their great privileges in being permitted to attend such a school.

The school looked its best. The chapel was decked with flowers and the Edna and Ferns and the rooms adjoining were decorated with the work of the students.

Among the spectators were the parents of many of the students. The Edna and Ferns and the rooms adjoining were decorated with the work of the students.

SUSPECT ARMS FOR SINN FEIN AND SEIZE THEM AT HOBOKEN

NEW YORK, June 16.—Six hundred machine guns, believed by Federal authorities to have been destined for Ireland, were discovered by Customs agents late yesterday on board the steamship East Side at Hoboken, and later were seized on a search warrant by the Hoboken police.

The seized machine guns, known as the Thompson Sub Machine Co., and made by the Colt's Patent Firearms Manufacturing Company, are the latest development of automatic quick-firing small arms.

Guns of this type, capable of firing more than 600 shots a minute, recently were acquired by the riot squad of the New York police department.

SPEND $137,000 ON COUNTY ROADS

This Comes to 7.2 Mills on the Dollar as Fixed by Roads Committee

WHERE MONEY GOES Farmers and Regular Teams $5.50; Other Teams Get Only $5.00 a Day

$137,000 is the total appropriation for the present year for the County of Hastings County Roads and County Roads, or 7.2 mills on the dollar as fixed by the roads and buildings committees.

Of this amount $72,000 will be spent on County Roads as follows: Sibley, $5,800; Thurlow, $12,000; Tyendinaga, $8,000; ...

The following schedule of wages has been adopted: Foreman, $4.25; Farmers team, $5.50; Regular teams, $5.50; Other men, $5.00; Engineer, $4.25; All other men, $3.50.

Hastings has 442 miles of County roads, 145 miles of county provincial roads, employing 133 men. The road from Tweed to Belleville bears probably the heaviest traffic in the county and should be taken over as a provincial highway.

A standard load of gravel is to consist of one and one-half yards, according to the report. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Workman entertained company from Frankford on Sunday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Benson Searis who has been visiting their daughter, Mrs. H. D'Arce, for a couple of weeks, have returned to their home at Oak Lake.

The little son of Mr. H. Downs had the misfortune to fall from the barn and dislocate his shoulder. Mr. Farley was called and the little fellow was soon made as comfortable as was possible.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Searis, of Zion Hill, visited the latter's sister, Mrs. Harvey D'Arce, recently. They were accompanied by Mrs. H. Gay of Foxboro, who visited her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Huffman.

Operation in King street, Chateaufort, June 5th, young people day, and young people were sent out in all directions to gather in young people, June 13th, Auto Sunday, about 30 homes were visited outside the town, beside those inside, it has been a grand success, but the coming week must surpass anything which has been done yet. Next Sunday is marked that day.

The W. C. T. U. held their meeting on Tuesday last at King St. Church, about 15 new members were taken in and quite a few names were handed in, who were not able to attend this meeting, but who will join us later on.

Drunkness has increased in Montreal in the first month under the new provincial law. Much trouble was done by a hall storm at Neville, Sask.

Voting By Proving Big Topic At National Council Meet

CALGARY, ALTA., June 17.—Some women are never satisfied. For years the National Council tried out for votes for women, now some are asking for votes by mail. The proxy system dies hard.

At the meeting limited their delegates' proxies at most to three, but this year's second day sessions saw the special committee on rearrangement of by-laws introducing a motion "of which no notice had been given" that if federated associations were unable to be represented and did not wish to appoint a proxy, votes relating to matters on the agenda might be sent to the corresponding secretary before the credentials committee.

This motion caused more discussion than any yet submitted. Mrs. L. Y. McKinley, Canada's first woman member, was on her feet at once. "This gives unlimited proxy voting," she thought you were cutting it down. This is worse than proxy voting," said Mrs. McKinley in a whole convention being swamped by the people who stayed home.

Mr. E. B. Burbank, of the Saskatchewan, endorsed the motion as a solution to have women in distant places able to record their wishes.

Miss Charlotte Whittion asked what was the use of spending money in coming together if discussion and interaction was of no value. If New Brunswick voted as New Brunswick and British Columbia as British Columbia, this would defeat the thing they had been twenty-seven years in building up. Why should the dead hand of a written vote strangle living discussions?

Mrs. Harold Riley, Calgary, said: "We the West will kill the National Council if we cannot have representation. We want all women represented. At present only ten per cent are included."

Mr. Carmichael, Nova Scotia, thought the matter too serious for immediate decision. The motion was out of order and should be sent out as a notice of motion.

One national president of a federated society declared that the motion would turn an annual meeting into a local council. Its votes by mail would represent local opinions, in considering the national gathering, it was to be hoped that the federated societies would remember this.

Discussions ended in the motion being resolved into a notice to be sent later, but one of several, however, that has made with its protest. Among the changes in the by-laws was the limiting of the three places in her own province. Another change was to bring in resolutions and executive business, but was finally passed. Its sponsor, Mrs. E. M. Murray, Halifax, submitted a long list of taxation in Canada, and her committee urged an equitable system of distributing the burdens of the province. Mrs. C. O. Edwards, for one new legislation pertaining to women and children. Delegates voiced audible disgust in so much legislation for the protection of women and girls thrown out by the Senate.

A hardship pointed out was that in case of divorce, woman's domestic help must be that of her husband. This was obviously unfair where a de-country with some woman and thus could not be reached.

Still another "Made in Canada" hour was sounded in the convention by Mrs. Sears, Ottawa, who outlined her scheme to help Canadian industries. Her own time and money were to be devoted to a federal bureau of information at Ottawa, assisted by a provincial bureau in each province. These would communicate with each woman's organization, asking for co-operation in goods and boosting Canadian-made products. They would collect all possible information concerning home manufacturers bring their goods up to the standard. All goods were to be trade marked and placed on the list.

More women are appearing with Doug in important roles in "The Three Musketeers" than have ever before been seen with him in a photo play. Marguerite De La Motte, Mary MacLaren and Barbara La Marr, all the highest paid photoplayers on the screen.

All told, there are one hundred and sixteen persons in the cast, not counting the extras, and the weekly payroll for "The Three Musketeers" reaches the staggering figure of $50,000 a week.

It is believed by Director Niblo and Doug that this picture will be completed about the middle of July, following which plans will be immediately laid by Fairbanks for the production of "The Virginia," the most of which will be filmed in Wroming, where the story is laid.

Anybody who wasn't afraid of Jack Johnson and who packed clothing, walling in either first was known as a white hope after the Texas negro became heavyweight champion of the world. The first important white hope to tackle Johnson was Stanley Ketchel, whose triumph had been among middleweights.

He was no match for the powerful Johnson who knocked him out in 12 rounds at Colma, Cal., Oct. 16, 1909. Ketchel weighed only 177 pounds while Johnson's total displacement was 198 pounds.

Only once in the 12 rounds was there an opportunity for the Michigan fighter to win. This was just a moment before the finish when Ketchel sent the champion to the floor with a left swing to the jaw. Johnson toppled over on his back and made several attempts to rise before he succeeded. Whether he was purposely staying down for a rest, no one ever learned.

Seeing that Johnson appeared dazed, Ketchel rushed at the negro as soon as he arose. Johnson calmly awaited the attack and jammed a right and then a left against the challenger's jaw. These terrific swats not only sent Ketchel sprawling on his back, but their force overbalanced Johnson and he, too, fell down. Both men were on the floor when the referee began calling the seconds. Johnson got up, but Ketchel remained prostrate and was counted out.

WHEN POTATOES ARE OLD

Old potatoes cook up in fancy ways much better than new ones. There are potatoes on grates, so good served with mutton cutlets or grilled chops.

They are layers of white sauce and cold, cooked, sliced, and well-seasoned potatoes placed alternately in a fireproof dish with a final thick layer of grated cheese on top.

The potato thistle, a savory luncheon dish, is made by lining a greased pie dish with mashed potatoes, seasoned with pepper, salt, and beaten to a snowy texture with a hot milk. You next fill the lined dish with minced lamb, veal or any other left-over meat, well seasoned and moistened with cold gravy.

Cover with a layer of the mashed potatoes. Criss cross with knife, dab with bits of butter, and bake till nicely brown.

Winfred and Winona Withrow, little daughters of Mrs. W. J. Withrow, of 233 Gladstone avenue, Ottawa, and granddaughters of Mr. Hamilton MacCarthy, the sculptor, have accompanied Mr. Rex Beach, the well-known author and Mrs. Beach to their summer home at Ardley, the Hudson. Mr. and Mrs. Beach who have been in Ottawa on a visit to friends, including Mr. Harry W. Briggs, took quite a fancy to these little girls and will entertain them for a few weeks. Their mother will go for them at the end of August.

Bishop Bidwell, of the diocese of Ontario, paid a short visit to Belleville last evening. Arriving from Kingston at fifty-five he was met and escorted to the Hotel Quinque where he was entertained by the directors of St. Agnes School. Among the guests of the directors were Warden Embury and the Anglican members of the County Council. Bishop Bidwell attended St. Agnes closing exercises and took the early train back to Kingston.

"DOUG" TOSSES AWAY ONE MORE MILLION IN BRAND NEW FILM

LOS ANGELES, June 16.—Doug Fairbanks is spending a million dollars! It will take him three months. He has cut the strings of his purse, turned it upside down and is pouring a million dollars into a film version of "The Three Musketeers."

Edward Knoblock has adapted the story from Alexander Dumas' famous novel. Fred Niblo, who directed Doug in "The Mark of Zorro," is also directing "The Three Musketeers."

Very few times in the history of the motion picture industry has a scale as the forthcoming Fairbanks offering. Nearly a hundred thousand dollars have been spent on costumes, and more than half that amount on exterior sets, not counting the ship and pier yet to be built. The payroll is more than three times as heavy for this picture as it has been on any previous Fairbanks brother and business manager. "Our aim has been to get the best talent available, regardless of cost."

On Sunday, June 19, a memorial tablet to the memory of the late Rev. Hector Currie, who was minister of Knox Church, Tedford, for 35 years, will be unveiled.
