

EXPRESS TRAIN, BRASS FOUNDRIES, MACHINE SHOPS

Roll Them All in One, Says Corp. Patte, and You Have a Bombardment.

The following interesting letter from Corporal George Patte, to his father, Mr. John Patte, Colborne street, gives his impression of the great battle the Canadians have just gone through.

June 7th, 1916.

Well, here goes for a few lines to let you know that all goes well so far, although we have been getting shelled on all sides this last few days. We were in billets the other day, and they shelled us from early morning until late in the afternoon. They sure kept us ducking for cover. We came up to the front line trench that night, and believe me, it was some warm spot best part of the night. They opened up on us again next morning, and they certainly had one beautiful variety of goods to show us. Coal-boxes, minnow wafers, run jars, grenades and saws, and you can take it from me that it was sure hell for about five hours. I wish that it was possible to explain just what one of these bombardments are like. No use trying, though, a fellow has to go through one to realize the damage they can do in a short time, and the noise they make. You just think there is an earthquake on all the time. It sounds as if there were express trains, brass foundries and machine shops flying through the air all the time, then a bang, and the earth trembles. She is some life, alright. They have nothing on us, though. They always get back more than they send now. We were all pleased when the later reports of the naval engagement came out, it certainly didn't sound any too good at first. Leave it to those boys in blue. They will make Fritz run for his hole every time.

Give my regards to all.

GEORGE.

Seventh Day Adventists are Increasing One Thousand a Month Being Added to Their Numbers.

The annual conference of the Seventh Day Adventists is now in full operation, and a large delegation is present. The grounds, located near Rawdon street, on Colborne street East, are splendidly laid out with tents of various sizes. One large canvas pavilion occupies the centre where the general work of the conference is daily being carried on; another for the youths, many of whom are present, and although a number of living tents are on the grounds, these being insufficient to accommodate the large number in attendance, the people of the city have gladly opened their homes for that purpose.

The Adventist people consider their conference as being of vital importance, being as it is a time when plans are made for the further progress of the work in the province and according to statistics derived from some of their prominent men on the grounds, the Adventist people are rapidly increasing throughout the world at the rate of over a thousand per month.

They have entered every place on the habitable globe, and are strictly a missionary people. They hold in common with all other evangelical bodies that Christ is their only Saviour, that the Bible alone is their guide. They differ, however, in some other points, one of which is the binding claims of the Ten Commandments, and particularly the fourth command, which teaches that the seventh day is the Sabbath or Saturday.

Interesting speakers are now in attendance from various places. Professor Kern from Washington, D.C., spoke in the afternoon. His theme on the three specific phases of the Kingdom of God especially appealed to all.

In the evening at 8 o'clock, Elder M. J. Allen of Toronto spoke very enthusiastically on "the soon coming of Christ." He brought out many points that proved the event near. A large crowd was present and manifested more than an ordinary interest. A cordial invitation was extended to the people of this city to hear Elder M. M. Campbell Wednesday night. Mr. Campbell is the president of the Eastern Canadian Union Conference.

With the City Police

Jos. Opechany appeared in the police court this morning, charged with theft of a number of articles of furniture. He was remanded until Friday. Annie Harp, on a charge of stealing flowers, was warned and allowed to go. A charge of assault preferred against Joseph Hardean, was adjourned for a week. A drunk was assessed $5.

DEAF MUTE IS DETERMINED TO BE A SOLDIER

Turned Down by the 215th,
He Met With Like Fate
From the Bantams.

LATTER OBTAINING
MEN STEADILY

Half Holiday For the Men
To-day in Order to Attend the Tattoo.

The local depot of the Bantam battalion yesterday received an application for enlistment from a deaf mute, who expressed in writing his desire to become a soldier. "I am not afraid of war," he stated, "I can nurse or cook, if I can't do anything else." Having been previously rejected by the 215th Battalion, but believing it to be because of his height, and being anxious to serve his country, he applied to the Bantams, but was once more rejected, appearing to be deeply grieved. It is not every man who makes such efforts to do the khaki, but the example of this man should prove an inspiration to many who are physically fit.

Two recruits yesterday. The local depot of the Bantam battalion now being prosecuted by the Bantams, most of whose time is devoted to recruiting. A list of eligibles has been obtained and is now being thoroughly checked over, every man upon it, wherever possible, being accepted personally and reasoned with courteously yet persuasively. With what results, is readily being seen in the fact that in the last four days seven recruits have been obtained, with many more still in view.

Lieut. McKissock is in Simcoe on business to-day. The work of the local squad continues, however, in his absence. A lecture upon "Duties" was delivered this morning by Sergt. Lenning, following which the men engaged in recruiting. The afternoon is a holiday in order to enable all to attend the military tattoo.

Some Competition. Another Bantam rooster has been obtained, and will be placed in the window with the others very shortly. The slogan of "One recruit for every egg; an egg for every recruit," is exciting keen competition between the feathered bantams and their khaki-clad rivals, the latter being considerably in the lead at present. It is expected that a brood of chicks will be added to the exhibit in the window very shortly.

Corp. Gwyn is ill. Corp. Gwyn, who returned to duty in Toronto last week, and a large delegation is present. The grounds, located near Rawdon street, on Colborne street East, are splendidly laid out with tents of various sizes. One large canvas pavilion occupies the centre where the general work of the conference is daily being carried on; another for the youths, many of whom are present, and although a number of living tents are on the grounds, these being insufficient to accommodate the large number in attendance, the people of the city have gladly opened their homes for that purpose.

Camera Man at the Tattoo Great Affair To-day, and Points of Interest as Well, to be Screened.

Thanks to the enterprise of Mr. C. J. Mitchell, a moving picture operator representing the Ford Monthly News is here to-day to take pictures of the great tattoo at Agricultural Park. He will take pictures of the 125th battalion and all the field sports held at the park this afternoon.

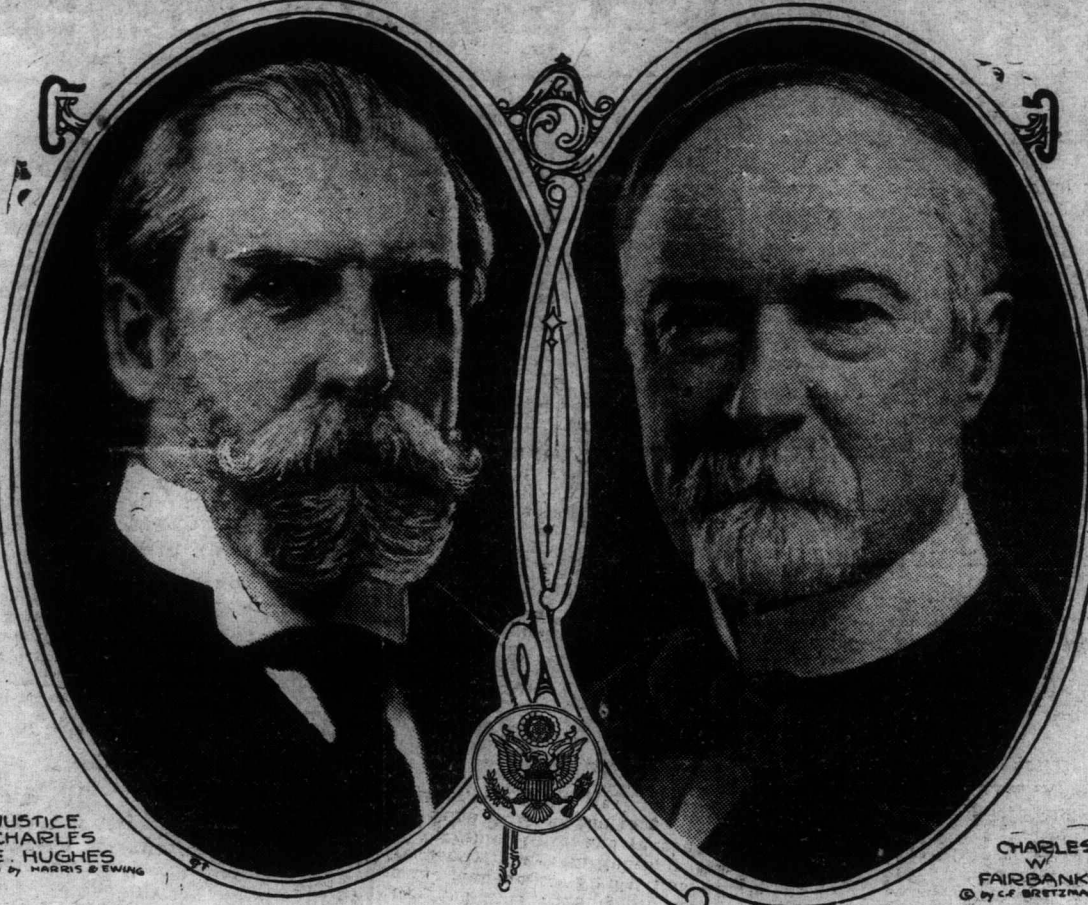

To-morrow he will proceed to take pictures of a general nature, such as the Bell memorial in course of construction, the post office, the fire hall, and also the 215th battalion.

By Friday or Saturday of this week the pictures will be ready for the screen, and will be shown at the Brant, every day continuously for probably a whole week or even longer.

TELLS OF GERMAN PLOTS IN INDIA

Rev. Roy C. Benson, B.A., Gives Interesting Address at Fiverville
Baptist Church.

In an address given under the auspices of the B.P.U. of the Riverdale Baptist church, Rev. R. C. Benson, B.A., of Vuyuru, India, a missionary of the Canadian Baptist Foreign Mission Board, told of a steady stream of German agents to stir up strife and sedition in India at the beginning of the war. Mr. Benson said that there were thousands of German spies there when the war began, and a mighty agh of relief went up all over the country when it was felt that these were behind wire entanglements in internment camps.

He declared that India was not yet ready for self-government because of lack of education, lack of aggressive initiative. Custom and caste also held India in their grip. The loyalty of India to the British crown could not be questioned. The native princes had promised to send men and to open their money chests if money were needed for a victorious issue of the war.

In conclusion Mr. Benson told of some of the difficulties met by the missionary in the proclamation of the Gospel. But all these were gradually being overcome by the steady persistent teaching and preaching of Christ and His power to meet the needs of the people.

MERLIN KOPP AND BUSTER BURRILL OUT.
"Buster" Burrill and Merlin Kopp, the two former Canadian leaguers, are still out of the game, and Buffalo fans are anxiously awaiting their return from the hospital. Both boys were going at top speed when they became sick, and there was no doubt about their making good.

Spain to England and France to Yorkshire Are Records

The best record for long-distance flying is held at present by Messrs. Vester and Scurr, of Spennymer, in Durham, who possess a pigeon named Prince of Rome which flew from Rome to its loft in 32 1/2 hours, a distance of 1,083 miles, when competing in a test race. A bird, King of Rome, owned by Mr. H. Hudson, of Derby, flew in the same race, and won it by flying a distance of 1,001 miles in much less time than the Durham arrival. A hen pigeon, Her Majesty, flew from Bordeaux, in the South of France, to her loft at Aberdeen, a distance of 854 miles, but took several days over the journey.

A very satisfactory feat was performed by a bird owned by Dr. Barker, of Clitheroe, Lancs., which, when flying from Rome to its loft in France, flew home to Lancashire and entered its loft the day following the tows.

The first English-bred bird to fly from Spain to England was a dark chequer cock named Alfonso, which in 1907 flew from San Sebastian to the loft of its owner, Mr. T. H. Burton, of Liverpool, a distance of 705 miles, homing on the third day following the tows, and thus winning the first prize in the Manchester Flying Club. Birds frequently flew from Rennes, in France, to Yorkshire lofts, and reached home the same days as the tows or, in bad weather, early the next morning.

Trade Worth While
Dr. M. Clark, M.P., writes: I sometimes tell them in the House of Commons that I wish the apple growers of British Columbia and the manufacturers of Ontario would take a leaf out of the book of the grain growers of the plains and the cattle raisers of Alberta. What is that leaf? Why it is this: That we raise such fine wheat and such beautiful beef that we defy competition, let it come from where it may. That is the kind of man the world has got to beat, and that is the kind of country one would be proud to inhabit.

Diseases of Calves
White scours or cholera is caused by a germ which enters the body through the navel shortly after birth. The symptoms generally appear when the calf is about three days old and death occurs shortly afterwards. The only method of avoiding this disease is by having the calf dropped in a clean stall and making sure that it does not come in contact with filth or manure until the navel cord is dry. At birth the cord should be tied and disinfected.

Scholar and Cricketer
Dr. Edward Lyttleton, who retired from the headmastership of Eton, will be always remembered as a cricketer. He was a captain of the greatest eleven that either University has turned out, the 1878 Cambridge team, which never lost a match and beat the Australians.

MOVIE MAN TO "TAKE" 215TH

To-morrow Morning Whole
Battalion Will Parade

The muster roll of the 215th Battalion this morning stood at 507, although the actual strength is a few men over that figure. To-morrow morning, weather permitting, a most novel event will take place, when a moving picture will be taken of the full battalion on the march. For this purpose, to men have been called in to the city from Burford, St. George, and Scotland, while the Paris quota will arrive in the city early in the morning. With the companies now fully organized, men will no longer be stationed at Burford, Scotland and St. George, but will be united with the other squads. The Burford section will go to Paris, there to form a part of B Company, under Captain Pearce—the company being 125 strong—while the others will be amalgamated into A and C companies in the city.

A system of military police has now been established by the 215th Battalion, a squad of six men having been detailed for the duty, under the command of Provost Sergt. Arthur C. R. Jones.

Economic Ties Must Find Allies

side of the proposals that our chief attention will be directed. The enemy countries are to be denied the favored nation treatment during a certain unspecified number of years, and it is proposed that customs duties or prohibitions of a temporary or permanent character shall be adopted.

"On the question of prohibition, we shall be able to judge when we know what it is proposed to prohibit. As to tariffs, we do not think that an antiquated machine will be found very serviceable in practice. Our allies have tried it and have failed with it. In our hands it would be a weapon against the allies as well as against ourselves. It would offer them tariffs where hitherto there were to be had free markets, but its most disastrous effect would be upon this country. What is the real factor that is enabling the allies to last out a war of endurance? It is the credit of one country, and that country is free trade England. It is the resources of free trade that enabled us to bear the strain of this unprecedented struggle. It is the resources of free trade which will finally give us victory. That is the fact which parliament will have in mind when it comes to the consideration of this great subject."

CHURCH ADVERTISING

"I believe," says Dr. Talcott Williams, "that if churches spent as much for advertising as they do for music, they would have larger congregations and better worship."

"If great causes were to spend more money in the public press instead of depending on begging for their support, they would undoubtedly come much nearer to success."

Thought is moving in this direction. The churches are using more and better advertising, while many public movements have been successfully carried on through the advertising columns of the daily newspapers.
