

COUNTY NEWS.

A Budget of News and Gossip. Personal Intelligence.—A Little of Every-thing Well Mixed Up.
NEW DUBLIN.

MONDAY, April 13.—Mr. A. Kendrick of West Winchester and Mr. H. Kendrick of Chagerville have returned home after spending a few days visiting friends in this vicinity.
Miss Miriam McConkey and Miss Ella Fairbairn spent their Easter holidays at home.
Mr. Green of Tinop is visiting Mrs. Kendrick.
Council met on Monday, 6th inst. and Mr. J. Barry was appointed township clerk in place of the late Mr. Brown. Miss Vienna Kendrick is spending a few days in Athens visiting friends.

BROWN'S CORNERS.

MONDAY, April 13.—Mr. McLaren is recovering from recent sickness.
Mr. J. Garrett, who is attending the business college in Brockville, is spending his Easter holidays in this vicinity.
Messrs. Ed. Carley and J. Brown passed through here en route for Plum Hollow.
Mr. Charles Leveque of Frankville was visiting friends at Eastons' Corners last Sunday.
Miss M. McDougall spent her Easter holidays in Brockville.
Mr. D. W. Best and family of Hav-look are spending a few days with Geo. Steacy, near Frankville.
Mr. Chas. Leebach has gone hunting wild geese.
Mr. and Mrs. DeWolfe of Toronto were guests of Samuel Hanton last week.

WILKINSON.

SATURDAY, April 11.—We are pleased to state that Mr. James Alguire, who has been sick for some time past, was out Friday for the first.
Mrs. Johnston was called to the bedside of her sister, Mrs. Israel Stevens, of Delta.
Mrs. Mary Coleman is visiting her niece, Mrs. E. Rowan.
Mrs. Erastus Rowan entertained a number of her friends at her home on Friday night last.
Mr. Malcolm Kelly is spending a few weeks at his home, which took Mrs. Rore Ann Kavanagh has returned home after visiting relatives at Beale's Mill.
Mr. Morley Earl has engaged Willie Kay for the coming summer.

The Mission Band met at the house of Mrs. W. Towner last Wednesday. The prayer meeting is to be held in the school house next Wednesday evening.

PLUM HOLLOW.

MONDAY, April 13.—Sugar-making is now in full blast, the past week being one of the best for years, and the people were kept busy night and day, the run of sap was so great.
Plum Hollow has lost another landmark in the person of Oram Lillio, being one of the oldest and most respected residents of this place, having been born and brought up in sight of where he died. His death, which was sudden and unexpected, occurred last Thursday. The funeral, which was held at his residence on Saturday last, was well attended despite the busy time and bad roads, after which the remains were placed in the cemetery close by. He leaves a wife and a daughter to mourn his loss. The family have the sympathy of the whole community.
Nearly all the spring birds have put in an appearance; the frog also thinks reminds us of one of the plagues of Egypt.

FRONT OF YONGE.

MONDAY, April 13.—Mr. Samuel Hogaboom, who is residing at the house in Belleville, and was at his home in Caintown during the vacation, has returned to the said institution. His many friends were glad to see him.
A large number of people in this township have died during the winter. A tramp who strayed through this section of country last week was looked through by X rays, and was found to contain four large dimmers, composed of two goose eggs, 9 hen eggs, half a loaf of bread and a pint of maple syrup.
Mr. John Torrance and Wm. Keys, who went to Syracuse, N. Y., in search of employment, have returned to Caintown.
Much of the milk in this township is being taken to the butter factory at Mallorytown, where it is manufactured into butter.
We are glad to hear that our much esteemed friend Father Kelly has much improved in health under the skillful treatment of the Kingston physicians. His many friends are anxiously awaiting his arrival home.

NEWBORO.

MONDAY, April 13.—Sleighing has disappeared.
Maple Syrup 75c per gallon.
Thomas Elliott, whose health has been declining for the past three years, is slowly dying from gangrene. The output of syrup from this locality this spring will be quite small in comparison with other seasons on account of a large number of bushes not being tapped because of the depression in prices.
Mrs. Daniel Campbell is quite ill. The lakes are unsafe for traffic. The water has risen very rapidly and the shore ice has disappeared.
Mr. Calvin Shaw of the School of Oratory, Ottawa, is paying his relatives in this vicinity a visit.
Mr. Geo. Preston will officiate as landlord in the Hotel DeWight, beginning on the 15th of April. Mr. J. R. Wright will retire to his private residence on Duane street.
The store of Tets Bros., of Bedford Mills, was burglarized on Saturday night. Bower Williams, who is clerk for the firm, was absent during the early part of the evening, and on returning found that some of the glass had been broken close to where a key that fitted one of the doors of the store was hanging. This aroused his suspicion, and he at once notified Mr. Benj. Tett, when an examination of the store showed that a quantity of jewelry, some cash, and several watches were taken. Suspicion at once rested upon a young man named Brador, who had been seen in the vicinity during the early part of the night. He was found in the boarding house and at once examined, but no jewelry was found on his person. This did not change the mind of Mr. Tett, however, and accordingly a watch was set on Brador. About five o'clock Sunday morning he arose and wandered in the direction of the bush. After carrying a small bag which had once contained shot, and then began leisurely to examine his booty. At this instant one of the party who had been carefully dogging his steps presented himself and took possession of the bag and its contents, which, on examination, proved to be stolen jewelry. A watch was still maintained on the movements of Brador, and in the meantime a messenger was despatched for Constable Gosselin of Newboro, who at once set out for the scene of the robbery. During the time which intervened, Brador kept travelling through the woods towards Newboro, and was in the act of crossing the road in the vicinity of Mr. Casey Knap's farm when he was seen by the constable and taken into custody. He was at once brought to Newboro and placed in the lock-up to await examination.

WOODBINE.

MONDAY, April 13.—Mr. Albert Wright, of Delta, paid our village a flying visit recently.
Mr. Malcolm Kelly, late of Smith's Falls, is spending a few days at the guest of his mother, Mrs. A.W. Kelly. Messrs. A. E. Donaldson, J. B. Saunders, Wm. Hicks and W. Beatty passed through our village on Sunday on the way to Melville, where they attended the funeral of the late Joseph McIntosh.
We regret to learn that Mr. Bennett Barrington is dangerously ill.
Miss Eva Stevens of Forfar, who has been home from Mrs. N. J. Romen, returned home on Thursday.
Our popular school teacher, Mr. Fred Ritter, has purchased a new bicycle.
A party of old folks from Upper Town spent a very enjoyable time at the home of Mr. A. W. Kelly on Tuesday evening.
Mr. Wm. Jacob of Union Valley spent Sunday as the guest of Mr. Thos. Kavanagh.
Mr. John Kinead, of Caintown, accompanied by his daughter, Miss Emma, passed through our village this morning.
While Mr. James Alguire was working in the bush last week he succeeded in capturing three young foxes. Anyone wishing for a pet should give him a call.

SHEATOWN.

Our concert was a grand success! Both from point of amusement, and from a financial standpoint, those taking part acquitted themselves very creditably and were highly commended by the large and attentive audience. Proceeds $20.
The mayor is suffering from an attack of the blues because illness prevented him from attending the concert at our academy on Monday night.
The Cox boys are all at home after their winter's sojourn with Uncle Sam. They are always welcome in our midst.
J. Maloney registered at our hotel last week.
John Shaw has taken a contract to supply the Industrial Home with maple syrup. We wish him success in his sweet undertaking.
The proprietor of the "Union Bed" calculates to utilize to the best advantage this year. He already has a plan for fixing it in the finest possible shape for profitable market gardening.
Mr. Ed. Keyes should be highly commended for the able and efficient manner in which he has provided adequate accommodation for visitors coming from a distance to attend the entertainment given in our academy.
Visitors—S. Dale, J. Gonyan, T. Laidman, Joe McLokey, Miss M. Tuffey, T. Diphoo, and Miss B. Smith.

SEELEY'S BAY.
SATURDAY, April 11.—Stevenson has recovered the harness and bob sleigh from the horses that were drowned in Delta lake a few days ago. The water was about 75 feet deep where the team was drowned. A. Chapman, who is very ill of spinal disease, is so low that very little hopes are entertained of his recovery.
Robt. Gardiner's cheese factory has commenced the season's operations last Monday. Wm. Flood, Sorpton, is a gage's cheesemaker again this season.
Owing to the prospects of cheese being low in price, Gilt Edge cheese factory commenced Friday to make butter for the balance of this month.
The village lot on the corner of Adelaide and Helen streets, owned by Dr. Bowen, has changed owners. Mr. Myles Young becoming the purchaser. Mr. Wm. Chapman returned home Wednesday after a week's visit to friends at Portland and New Boyne.
E. A. Putnam, who has been confined to his house the past week by the grippe, has so far recovered as to be able to be seen on the streets again.
The revival meetings that were being held in Coleman's hall the past two or three weeks closed last Tuesday evening.
Jackson Bros. are erecting a new smokestack on their power mill.
Mrs. Edward Imeson is in a very critical state. She is afflicted with a cancer and same is improving slowly.
Mr. Myles Young is improving slowly.
This has been a great week for sugar making.
The sleighing is about gone and the roads are in a very bad condition.
Mr. T. V. Russell is improving slowly.
Mr. A. B. Chapman has removed from Kingston and will again take charge of the saw mill.

INDIAN OIL.

The greatest medicine of the age, Mr. James Kavanagh of Chagerville, came into our store, after purchasing a bottle of Indian Oil, remarked: "That is the best medicine you have in the store." We naturally asked him what he had used it for with such gratifying results. His reply was: "For everything; colds, coughs, hoarseness, sprains, bruises, cuts, pains of all descriptions in man and for least—use it for tooth aches, scratches, galls, and anything requiring a liniment. It will cure, as it cures, and does not irritate the least." J. P. Lamb & Son, proprietors.

LOCAL SUMMARY.

ATHENS AND NEIGHBORING LOCALITIES BRIEFLY WRITTEN UP.

Events as Seen by Our Knight of the Pen.—Local Announcements.
Solid Right Down.

Imitates of the Industrial Home will this year eat bread manufactured by S. Moore, Athens.

The latest styles in ties, from 15c up, at A. M. Chasells.

A full line of up-to-date bicycles. Call and see them. At G. W. Beach's.

Since resuming the barber business the general Mac has been rushed with customers.

All kinds of ready-made clothing at H. H. Arnold's. Men's, boys' and children's in great variety.

Miss Ida Bates, Elbe Mills, is learning the millinery business with Miss Sexton.

Call in and take a look at the new spring suitings at A. M. Chasells.

Mr. James Stinson, for some time ill with the grippe, is again able to go to work on the B. & W.

Go to H. H. Arnold's for your wall paper. Special low price and large assortment.

Dr. Chamberlain, who has been inspecting Brockville gaol, has with drawn the night watch who has been guarding Lapoint.

Spring Capes.—You will find a stack of that mostly any woman can be suited from $5, $10, $15, $20, $25 and $35.00 up at G. W. Beach's.

Mr. John Barry, a popular farmer of Elizabethtown, was appointed clerk of that township in place of N. E. Brown, deceased.

At a meeting of the council of the Ontario Land Surveyors, held in Toronto on Friday last, Mr. B. J. Saunders, of Brockville, was appointed chairman of the committee on drainage, a position which his conference considered him eminently qualified to fill.

Mrs. John Ferguson, of Escott, died on the 4th inst., at the General Hospital in Brockville. Mrs. Ferguson, whose maiden name was Mercy Hogaboom, had not been ill long. She leaves a husband and several grown-up children to mourn their great loss.

The millinery openings in Athens last week attracted a large number of ladies from village and country. The displays were tasty and elegant and an lady must indeed be difficult to please who could not find in the great variety of shapes and trimmings pre-ent something that just suited her taste.

A post mortem examination of the body of the infant found near Rockford, as stated in last week's issue, has revealed the fact that the child had been born healthy and had been killed by having its skull broken. The fact that the child was found where the body was found came from the river is still regarded as an indication of the murders came from York state.

The results of the examinations in Queen's College were made known last week and proved very interesting reading to a large number in Leeds county. Among those who graduated M. D., was J. Boyle, B. A., formerly on the staff of the Athens High School. His name and that of G. W. Mylkes of Augusta, a successful 3rd year student, appear in the list of House Surgeons, an honor conferred upon only four students.

Conventions are not always the "dead sure thing" that some aspirants for political honors would have them to be, and it was probably this consideration that influenced the course of the "War Correspondent of the Recorder" last week. The complexity of things political in this riding being not just to the satisfaction of the local party, but of the whole of the riding.

A convention of the Reformers of South Leeds will be held at Delta on Thursday, April 16th, at one o'clock, p.m., for the election of officers and transaction of other business. It is hoped that a full representation from each municipality is requested. A special train will be run on the B. & W. to accommodate those attending the convention.

Mr. Messner that formulated the doctrine of the "Magnetic Fluid," which, proceeding from the magnetism, and spreading itself in space, could receive all impulses of motion, and in which he never carried money about. An old tale is this: The departing Croesus was a clergyman who had been a student of the law and a servant of treasure on earth than in heaven. In his last days he was carefully studying the law of the "Magnetic Fluid." "Ah, Tom," he said to his servant, "I must go and leave all my gold about me behind me." "Ay, sir," replied Tom, "there's no help for it. You take it. It would only help for it."

Cure for a Bad Headache. A fellow in Muskoka gave me this nut to crack the other day: A man married a widow who lived with her daughter-in-law. A short time after his father married his wife's daughter-in-law. This wife thus became the mother-in-law and at the same time, the daughter-in-law of his own father. His wife's daughter-in-law was now his stepmother. His step-mother, who is the daughter-in-law of his wife, recently had a son. This boy is his brother because he is the child of his father and of his stepmother, but being also the son of the daughter-in-law of his wife, his wife becomes the boy's grandmother, and he is himself his grandmother's grandfather.—Tom Swallow, in Toronto Sunday World.

Collector—I was in a hole. Collector—You afraid I can't collect that bill, doctor. Grimes is in a hole most of the time. Doctor—If I thought he had plenty of work? Collector—So he has, but he's a grave digger, you know.

A Good Tale Story. Lord Tenterden once, at his own table called a country magistrate if you would take a venison. "Thank you, my lord, boiled chicken," said the magistrate, "I have just had a venison matter every body else in the county is in the habit of." "That, sir," said the judge, "is no answer to my question. I now ask you if you will take venison. I now ask you if you will take venison. I now ask you if you will take venison."

The latest styles in hats at A. M. Chasells.

Rev. W. W. Giles has returned to Athens after spending the winter in New York city.

For best possible value in men's and boys' spring hats and caps see H. H. Arnold's new stock. Just in.

A New Yorker has just bought a lot on Wellock Island, in Rideau Lake, below Westport.

A full line of G.W. Beach's furnishings and underwear at A. M. Chasells. See the samples in his show window.

The Montreal conference of the Methodist Church will hold its next session in St. Leonard, Quebec, commencing on June 4th.

Drive out the impurities from your blood with Hood's Sarsaparilla and thus avoid that tired, languid feeling and even serious illness.

J. D. Knowlton, Singleton's Corners, suffered the loss of six ewes a few days ago, death resulting from eating too much provender.

You are hereby warned not to make any purchases until you have examined the new spring stock of dress goods at G. W. Beach's.

On account of funds accumulating quickly, will land money on real estate for the lowest rate—$12,000 on hand now. Mortgages also purchased.—JOHN CRAWLEY, Athens, Ont.

The new woman is coming on all right. In Ottawa on Monday, Mrs. Bion was fined $1 and costs for beating her husband.

The ice in Charlestown Lake is still quite thick, though badly honeycombed. It is said to be already within a few inches of the water mark and an unusually high level is anticipated.

First of May will be Arbor Day. There is a tendency on the part of many teachers to slight this holiday or give it no recognition, finding it easier to teach than to puzzle their brains devising a programme for spending it as the law intended.

LOCAL SUMMARY.

ATHENS AND NEIGHBORING LOCALITIES BRIEFLY WRITTEN UP.

Events as Seen by Our Knight of the Pen.—Local Announcements.
Solid Right Down.

Imitates of the Industrial Home will this year eat bread manufactured by S. Moore, Athens.

The latest styles in ties, from 15c up, at A. M. Chasells.

A full line of up-to-date bicycles. Call and see them. At G. W. Beach's.

Since resuming the barber business the general Mac has been rushed with customers.

All kinds of ready-made clothing at H. H. Arnold's. Men's, boys' and children's in great variety.

Miss Ida Bates, Elbe Mills, is learning the millinery business with Miss Sexton.

Call in and take a look at the new spring suitings at A. M. Chasells.

Mr. James Stinson, for some time ill with the grippe, is again able to go to work on the B. & W.

Go to H. H. Arnold's for your wall paper. Special low price and large assortment.

Dr. Chamberlain, who has been inspecting Brockville gaol, has with drawn the night watch who has been guarding Lapoint.

Spring Capes.—You will find a stack of that mostly any woman can be suited from $5, $10, $15, $20, $25 and $35.00 up at G. W. Beach's.

Mr. John Barry, a popular farmer of Elizabethtown, was appointed clerk of that township in place of N. E. Brown, deceased.

At a meeting of the council of the Ontario Land Surveyors, held in Toronto on Friday last, Mr. B. J. Saunders, of Brockville, was appointed chairman of the committee on drainage, a position which his conference considered him eminently qualified to fill.

Mrs. John Ferguson, of Escott, died on the 4th inst., at the General Hospital in Brockville. Mrs. Ferguson, whose maiden name was Mercy Hogaboom, had not been ill long. She leaves a husband and several grown-up children to mourn their great loss.

The millinery openings in Athens last week attracted a large number of ladies from village and country. The displays were tasty and elegant and an lady must indeed be difficult to please who could not find in the great variety of shapes and trimmings pre-ent something that just suited her taste.

A post mortem examination of the body of the infant found near Rockford, as stated in last week's issue, has revealed the fact that the child had been born healthy and had been killed by having its skull broken. The fact that the child was found where the body was found came from the river is still regarded as an indication of the murders came from York state.

The results of the examinations in Queen's College were made known last week and proved very interesting reading to a large number in Leeds county. Among those who graduated M. D., was J. Boyle, B. A., formerly on the staff of the Athens High School. His name and that of G. W. Mylkes of Augusta, a successful 3rd year student, appear in the list of House Surgeons, an honor conferred upon only four students.

Conventions are not always the "dead sure thing" that some aspirants for political honors would have them to be, and it was probably this consideration that influenced the course of the "War Correspondent of the Recorder" last week. The complexity of things political in this riding being not just to the satisfaction of the local party, but of the whole of the riding.

A convention of the Reformers of South Leeds will be held at Delta on Thursday, April 16th, at one o'clock, p.m., for the election of officers and transaction of other business. It is hoped that a full representation from each municipality is requested. A special train will be run on the B. & W. to accommodate those attending the convention.

Mr. Messner that formulated the doctrine of the "Magnetic Fluid," which, proceeding from the magnetism, and spreading itself in space, could receive all impulses of motion, and in which he never carried money about. An old tale is this: The departing Croesus was a clergyman who had been a student of the law and a servant of treasure on earth than in heaven. In his last days he was carefully studying the law of the "Magnetic Fluid." "Ah, Tom," he said to his servant, "I must go and leave all my gold about me behind me." "Ay, sir," replied Tom, "there's no help for it. You take it. It would only help for it."

Cure for a Bad Headache. A fellow in Muskoka gave me this nut to crack the other day: A man married a widow who lived with her daughter-in-law. A short time after his father married his wife's daughter-in-law. This wife thus became the mother-in-law and at the same time, the daughter-in-law of his own father. His wife's daughter-in-law was now his stepmother. His step-mother, who is the daughter-in-law of his wife, recently had a son. This boy is his brother because he is the child of his father and of his stepmother, but being also the son of the daughter-in-law of his wife, his wife becomes the boy's grandmother, and he is himself his grandmother's grandfather.—Tom Swallow, in Toronto Sunday World.

Collector—I was in a hole. Collector—You afraid I can't collect that bill, doctor. Grimes is in a hole most of the time. Doctor—If I thought he had plenty of work? Collector—So he has, but he's a grave digger, you know.

A Good Tale Story. Lord Tenterden once, at his own table called a country magistrate if you would take a venison. "Thank you, my lord, boiled chicken," said the magistrate, "I have just had a venison matter every body else in the county is in the habit of." "That, sir," said the judge, "is no answer to my question. I now ask you if you will take venison. I now ask you if you will take venison. I now ask you if you will take venison."

The latest styles in hats at A. M. Chasells.

Rev. W. W. Giles has returned to Athens after spending the winter in New York city.

For best possible value in men's and boys' spring hats and caps see H. H. Arnold's new stock. Just in.

A New Yorker has just bought a lot on Wellock Island, in Rideau Lake, below Westport.

A full line of G.W. Beach's furnishings and underwear at A. M. Chasells. See the samples in his show window.

The Montreal conference of the Methodist Church will hold its next session in St. Leonard, Quebec, commencing on June 4th.

Drive out the impurities from your blood with Hood's Sarsaparilla and thus avoid that tired, languid feeling and even serious illness.

J. D. Knowlton, Singleton's Corners, suffered the loss of six ewes a few days ago, death resulting from eating too much provender.

You are hereby warned not to make any purchases until you have examined the new spring stock of dress goods at G. W. Beach's.

On account of funds accumulating quickly, will land money on real estate for the lowest rate—$12,000 on hand now. Mortgages also purchased.—JOHN CRAWLEY, Athens, Ont.

The new woman is coming on all right. In Ottawa on Monday, Mrs. Bion was fined $1 and costs for beating her husband.

The ice in Charlestown Lake is still quite thick, though badly honeycombed. It is said to be already within a few inches of the water mark and an unusually high level is anticipated.

First of May will be Arbor Day. There is a tendency on the part of many teachers to slight this holiday or give it no recognition, finding it easier to teach than to puzzle their brains devising a programme for spending it as the law intended.

LOCAL SUMMARY.

ATHENS AND NEIGHBORING LOCALITIES BRIEFLY WRITTEN UP.

Events as Seen by Our Knight of the Pen.—Local Announcements.
Solid Right Down.

Imitates of the Industrial Home will this year eat bread manufactured by S. Moore, Athens.

The latest styles in ties, from 15c up, at A. M. Chasells.

A full line of up-to-date bicycles. Call and see them. At G. W. Beach's.

Since resuming the barber business the general Mac has been rushed with customers.

All kinds of ready-made clothing at H. H. Arnold's. Men's, boys' and children's in great variety.

Miss Ida Bates, Elbe Mills, is learning the millinery business with Miss Sexton.

Call in and take a look at the new spring suitings at A. M. Chasells.

Mr. James Stinson, for some time ill with the grippe, is again able to go to work on the B. & W.

Go to H. H. Arnold's for your wall paper. Special low price and large assortment.

Dr. Chamberlain, who has been inspecting Brockville gaol, has with drawn the night watch who has been guarding Lapoint.

Spring Capes.—You will find a stack of that mostly any woman can be suited from $5, $10, $15, $20, $25 and $35.00 up at G. W. Beach's.

Mr. John Barry, a popular farmer of Elizabethtown, was appointed clerk of that township in place of N. E. Brown, deceased.

At a meeting of the council of the Ontario Land Surveyors, held in Toronto on Friday last, Mr. B. J. Saunders, of Brockville, was appointed chairman of the committee on drainage, a position which his conference considered him eminently qualified to fill.

Mrs. John Ferguson, of Escott, died on the 4th inst., at the General Hospital in Brockville. Mrs. Ferguson, whose maiden name was Mercy Hogaboom, had not been ill long. She leaves a husband and several grown-up children to mourn their great loss.

The millinery openings in Athens last week attracted a large number of ladies from village and country. The displays were tasty and elegant and an lady must indeed be difficult to please who could not find in the great variety of shapes and trimmings pre-ent something that just suited her taste.

A post mortem examination of the body of the infant found near Rockford, as stated in last week's issue, has revealed the fact that the child had been born healthy and had been killed by having its skull broken. The fact that the child was found where the body was found came from the river is still regarded as an indication of the murders came from York state.

The results of the examinations in Queen's College were made known last week and proved very interesting reading to a large number in Leeds county. Among those who graduated M. D., was J. Boyle, B. A., formerly on the staff of the Athens High School. His name and that of G. W. Mylkes of Augusta, a successful 3rd year student, appear in the list of House Surgeons, an honor conferred upon only four students.

Conventions are not always the "dead sure thing" that some aspirants for political honors would have them to be, and it was probably this consideration that influenced the course of the "War Correspondent of the Recorder" last week. The complexity of things political in this riding being not just to the satisfaction of the local party, but of the whole of the riding.

A convention of the Reformers of South Leeds will be held at Delta on Thursday, April 16th, at one o'clock, p.m., for the election of officers and transaction of other business. It is hoped that a full representation from each municipality is requested. A special train will be run on the B. & W. to accommodate those attending the convention.

Mr. Messner that formulated the doctrine of the "Magnetic Fluid," which, proceeding from the magnetism, and spreading itself in space, could receive all impulses of motion, and in which he never carried money about. An old tale is this: The departing Croesus was a clergyman who had been a student of the law and a servant of treasure on earth than in heaven. In his last days he was carefully studying the law of the "Magnetic Fluid." "Ah, Tom," he said to his servant, "I must go and leave all my gold about me behind me." "Ay, sir," replied Tom, "there's no help for it. You take it. It would only help for it."

Cure for a Bad Headache. A fellow in Muskoka gave me this nut to crack the other day: A man married a widow who lived with her daughter-in-law. A short time after his father married his wife's daughter-in-law. This wife thus became the mother-in-law and at the same time, the daughter-in-law of his own father. His wife's daughter-in-law was now his stepmother. His step-mother, who is the daughter-in-law of his wife, recently had a son. This boy is his brother because he is the child of his father and of his stepmother, but being also the son of the daughter-in-law of his wife, his wife becomes the boy's grandmother, and he is himself his grandmother's grandfather.—Tom Swallow, in Toronto Sunday World.

Collector—I was in a hole. Collector—You afraid I can't collect that bill, doctor. Grimes is in a hole most of the time. Doctor—If I thought he had plenty of work? Collector—So he has, but he's a grave digger, you know.

A Good Tale Story. Lord Tenterden once, at his own table called a country magistrate if you would take a venison. "Thank you, my lord, boiled chicken," said the magistrate, "I have just had a venison matter every body else in the county is in the habit of." "That, sir," said the judge, "is no answer to my question. I now ask you if you will take venison. I now ask you if you will take venison. I now ask you if you will take venison."

The latest styles in hats at A. M. Chasells.

Rev. W. W. Giles has returned to Athens after spending the winter in New York city.

For best possible value in men's and boys' spring hats and caps see H. H. Arnold's new stock. Just in.

A New Yorker has just bought a lot on Wellock Island, in Rideau Lake, below Westport.

A full line of G.W. Beach's furnishings and underwear at A. M. Chasells. See the samples in his show window.

The Montreal conference of the Methodist Church will hold its next session in St. Leonard, Quebec, commencing on June 4th.

Drive out the impurities from your blood with Hood's Sarsaparilla and thus avoid that tired, languid feeling and even serious illness.

J. D. Knowlton, Singleton's Corners, suffered the loss of six ewes a few days ago, death resulting from eating too much provender.

You are hereby warned not to make any purchases until you have