

MINISTER DISCUSSES HIS WIFE'S TROUBLES

Rev. A.H. Sykes, former pastor of the Watkins Park Presbyterian church, Nashville, Tenn., says:

"After seeing what Tanlac has accomplished in my wife's case, I am convinced that it is a medicine of great power and extraordinary merit. I do not think I have seen anything give such prompt results. Mrs. Sykes has been in delicate health for ten months, suffering from stomach trouble and nervous breakdown.

"I frequently sought medical advice but Tanlac is the only thing that gave her any relief. After taking the medicine only a short time, she was able to sit up and help with the household duties. I think it only a short time until her health will be fully restored."

Tanlac is sold by leading druggists everywhere.

and sister, J. E. Tedford and Mrs. P. E. Dickinson here; also Mrs. Benjamin Tedford from Nova Scotia.

Mr. and Mrs. Gideon Holmes have returned to their home in Stickney after making a two weeks' visit with her daughter, Mrs. O. P. Wasson.

The farmers' meeting was held at P. E. Dickinson's, August 19. A larger crowd than usual was there. Rev. A. L. Tedford was the principle speaker, telling us of similar organizations in the west, how they were managed, etc. The talk was certainly good, an inspiration to press on, not only in our worldly affairs, but also not to neglect the spiritual side which by far the most important. The next meeting will be at C. P. Wasson's.

Mrs. Anna DeWitt of Foreston is here visiting her relatives and friends here. The next missionary meeting will be at J. E. Tedford's. The last was held at Armand Henderson's in Armand.

KELLY-ANDERSON

One of the prettiest weddings of the season took place on Wednesday, August 17, at high noon, when Beulah Isabel, only daughter of the late Wm. Anderson, and Mrs. Nellie Anderson, was united in marriage with Burton Kelly at the home of the bride, by the Rev. Mr. Flemmington, in the presence of about 75 invited guests. The bridal party entered the parlor, which had been decorated with hydrangea sweet peas and golden rod, to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, played by Mrs. B. C. Palmer, and took their places under a beautiful arch of evergreen, intermingled with crimson hollyhocks, nasturtiums and scarlet runners. First came the best man, Walter Riddle, then the groom, followed by the bridesmaid, Miss Mary Davidson, then came the bride leaning on the arm of her uncle, John McNair. The bride looked charming in a handsome travelling suit of copper brown, with feathered hat to match. She carried a lovely shower bouquet of sweet peas. The bridesmaid also looked pretty in a dainty gown of Copenhagen blue, with a white sash. The groom wore the convention black, and the best man, a suit of brown. Immediately after congratulations a sumptuous dinner was served, the Misses Lillian Larlee, Christine, Annie and Grace Anderson, made dainty waitresses. After a few minutes of social chat, the happy couple left in an auto which had been decorated with flowers, tin cans, bells, and various inscriptions, for the depot, where amidst a shower of confetti, they left on the down-express for Woodstock and other points, for a brief honeymoon, after which they will return home. Miss Emma Palmer opened the door, and Miss Lillian Larlee, ushered the guests. The presents, were both beautiful and costly, and included furniture, linen, pyrex ware, aluminum, silver and cash.

The groom's gift to the bride was a pearl necklace, to the bridesmaid an onyx ring, and the best man, a watch chain. The bride, who is one of our most popular young ladies, has been the very efficient stenographer for G. B. McLaughlin for the past two years. The groom, who was formerly of Woodstock, is the obliging druggist at the Regal Pharmacy. Both he and the best man took part in the Great War.

Mr. and Mrs. Kelly have a host of friends who wish them a long and prosperous voyage over the Matrimonial Sea. Among those coming from a distance to attend the wedding were: Miss Smith, Fredericton; Mrs. D. Cluff, Mrs. Henderson, Woodstock; Mrs. Howard, Riley Brook; Mr. and Mrs. John McNair, Wapke; Mrs. E. Craig, Miss Alma Craig, Hillside; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Anderson and family, Kintore; Miss Hafford, Arthurville, and Mrs. Herbert Dionne of Gladwyn.

Be Your Own Doctor.

When you meet with an accident - a cut, a burn, a scald or a bruise - don't spend money needlessly in doctor's bills, but apply Zam-Buk at once. This herbal balm will end the pain, stop the bleeding, prevent festering and heal quickly. Keep a box handy.

For skin troubles Zam-Buk is equally valuable. A skin disease cured by Zam-Buk does not break out again, because Zam-Buk cures from the "root" up.

Zam-Buk is best for eczema, boils, blood-poisoning and piles. All dealers 50c box.
