

HASZARD'S GAZETTE, DECEMBER 9.

I SHALL NOT LEARN A TRADE.

Shan't you? I should like to know why not. Hundreds and tens of thousands have learned this before you, and many more will do the same thing. A trade well learned may make a name and a fortune earned. If you ever get either without working for it, you will be either very "lucky" or very unfortunate.

I don't think much of a boy who says he is not going to learn a trade. If his place in the world is such, that he can learn a good trade and have a good situation, he will be very unwise not to seize the opportunity. A boy who goes to a trade determined to make himself master of his business, and to be a well informed and intelligent workman, will soon rise to the head of his profession, if he pursues the right path. The faithful apprentice who delights to do his day's work well, and do it to the best of his ability, so as to earn the praise of his employer, will feel happier and be a more honorable man, than he who does just enough to shuffle along through the day, and then hurries away from his work as though it were a nuisance and a curse.

I knew a boy who was too poor to go to school and college, although he would have liked that course very well. But he had to work. So he went to learn a trade. He tried to do his work always to the very best of his ability. He went to a place, and one day his master came to look at what he had done, and after closely examining it, he turned around and said to his foreman, "James, that is very excellent work for a new boy." Did not that little fellow feel as proud as if he won a triumph? He was rewarded from the start with the good opinion of his employer, and he never forgot the pleasure with which he heard his master's encouraging words. He always tried to do his work well—do in fact the very best; and while other apprentices did not seem to care how their work was done, or how they spent their master's time, he took a pride in working as though he was in a higher post, and is now doing well in more ways than one in the world.

Not long ago a boy was leaving school, and as I had a chance to speak to him, I said, "What are you going to do?"

"I am going into a mercant's jobbing house."

"Going to be a clerk then. Why do you not learn a trade?" "Trade?" said he, "I ain't going to learn a trade."

"Not going to learn a trade? I should like to know why a trade is not as good as a clerkship. I suppose you think it more genteel and respectable! What would you be with your jobbing house, I wonder?"

Learn a trade! Did you never hear of such a man as Ben Franklin, who learned the printing trade, and became one of the most distinguished men of modern times? Have you never heard of a carpenter named Kittenhouse, or a man who made philosophical instruments, and afterwards revolutionized the world with his discoveries in the steam engine? Have you heard of James Watt, or is it genteel not to know anything about trades of those who have learned them? Who was Arkwright, that followed the trade of a barber? or Whitney, or Fulton? Who was Governor Armstrong, of Massachusetts, or Isaac Hill, of New Hampshire, who learned the trade of a printer. Did you ever hear of the man who swung his sledges at the anvil, and became the distinguished Elihu Burritt? Did you ever hear of a distinguished cobbler named Roger Sherman? Or of the illustrious lame cobbler of London named John Pounds, who founded Ragged Schools, and put into operation one of the greatest pieces of moral machinery of the age?

A POOR BOY'S NOBLE RESOLUTION.

I know I am poor, but I am not ragged, and I will try to be honest. I can go to Sunday School, and there I can get many a tract and pretty book, and my teacher says, if I get the knowledge of Christ, I shall be richer than many a man who owns a million of dollars. Yes, I am poor! But I am not poor enough to steal or to beg, or to lie. And I am not near poor enough to sell on Sundays, or to go to grog shops. What if I am poor? My teacher says the blessed Saviour was poor. And he says, God loves the poor.

I will sing a little before I work:

He that is down need fear no fall,
He that is poor, no pride;
He that is humble over all,
Let us give God to be our guide.

Thank ye for that good John Buuyan! they say you were a poor boy yourself once; no better than a tinker. Very well, you are rich enough now, I dare say.

I don't see after all, but that I can sing as gaily as if I had a thousand dollars. Money does not lighten people's hearts. There is Squire Jones, he is rich! but I never heard him sing a hymn in my life. His cheek is paler than mine, and his arm is thinner; and I am sure he can't sleep sounder than I do.

No, I am not so poor either. This fine spring morning, I feel quite rich. The red clouds yonder, where the sun is going to rise, are mine. All these robes and thrushes and larks are mine. I never was sick in my life. I have bread and water. What could money buy for me more than this?

I thought I was poor, but I am rich. The birds have no purse or pocket-book; neither have I. They have food and drink; so have I. They are cheerful; so am I. They are taken care of by their Creator; so am I.

MRS. WINSLOW.

An experienced Nurse and Female Physician, presents to the affections of Mothers, her

SOOTHING SYRUP,

For Children Teething.

For the Nervous, Affections, Convulsions, Fever, Inflammation of the Bowels, &c. that attend this period of childhood, she recommends it as sure to produce the desired effect, giving Rest to the Mother and Relief and Health to the Infant.

A child in Congress-Street was cured by the Soothing Syrup, of Chronic Dysentery, Diarrhoea, often being given every two hours attending Physician.

Mr. Gilmore, of Edinburg, says: "It has never failed to cure the Dysentery or Diarrhoea in children whenever used in the village. Lots of it is sold."

One parent informs me his child has suffered to an alarming extent, with Flatulence or Wind Colic. Lately they have used the Soothing Syrup, and it always effects a speedy cure.

Hundreds of like instances might be enumerated.

PROOF POSITIVE.

Mrs. CURTIS & PARTNER.—Please send us a further supply of Soothing Syrup. We are selling large quantities of it, and from what we can learn, it is used with uniform success, both by children and adults, in all cases of Dysentery or Diarrhoea.

Yours respectfully,

W. D. CRUMBLE,
J. MORSELL,

New-York, July 10th, 1852. 215 Bowery.

How the Brooklyn Daily Advertiser, of June 12th, 1853.

We cheerfully comply with the request of a friend to forward the following letter which we are anxious to furnish to the first responsibility, residing in Lowell, Mass., believing that a vast amount of suffering may be prevented, and many valuable lives saved, by calling the attention of mothers to this valuable prescription of an old and experienced nurse:

Dear Sir—I am happy to be able to certify to the efficiency of Mr. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, and to the truth of what is represented to accomplish.

Having a little boy suffering greatly from teething, who could not rest, and at night by his cries would not permit any of the family to do so, I purchased a bottle of Soothing Syrup, in order to rest the child, and when given to the boy according to the directions, it relieved him of his pain immediately. The following evening upon him again like me, he soon went to sleep, and all pain and nervousness disappeared. We have had no trouble with him since; and the little fellow will pass through with the excreting process of teething, with the aid of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup. Every mother who regards the health and life of her children, should possess it.

NEUROLOGY or SCOLYTIC RHEUMA-TISM CURED.

This may certify that for about four years I was seriously afflicted with a disease in the hip, which Physicians termed Neurology, or Scolytic Rheumatism, and resorted to various remedies without any permanent relief; have been under the care of a regular Physician for six months at a time. Last spring, had a very violent attack, which laid me up, when I made use of the Cramp and Pain Killer, prepared by Messrs. Curtis & Perkins, of Bangor. It gave me immediate relief, and I do not hesitate to say, that it is the best article I ever used. I cheerfully recommend it to all who may be afflicted with similar complaints.

HENRY HUNT,
Boston, Dec. 2, 1847.

Deacon Hunt, the signer of the foregoing certificate, is a man of undoubted veracity and high standing in the community.

AN ASTONISHING CURE OF CHRONIC RHUEMATISM, AFTER BEING DISCHARGED FROM THE HOSPITAL INCURABLE.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. W. Moon, of the Square, Winchester.

To Professor HOLLOWAY.

Tell me, Sir, I beg to inform you that for years I was a sufferer from Chronic Rheumatism, and was often laid up with weeks together by its severe and painful attacks. I tried everything that was recommended, and was attended by one of the most eminent surgeons in this town, but obtained no relief whatever; and fearing that my health would be entirely broken up, I was induced to go into one County Hospital, where I had the best medical treatment the Institution afforded, all of which proved of no avail, and I continued to deteriorate in its prison. The testimony of one individual with whom the public are acquainted, carries with it more weight than whole columns of certificates from strangers, whose faces we never saw, and whose certificates, for ought we know, may have been procured by fraud. Dec. Powney.

Hunter's Balsam. It is not often that we can say anything favorable of patent medicines, on the testimony of those with whom we are acquainted, who have used and tested their merits. But in regard to Hunter's Balsam, put up by our fellow citizen, Jeremiah Curtis, Esq., we have the testimony of many of our own citizens, that the neighborhood to Somersworth, in its purity. The testimony of one individual with whom the public are acquainted, carries with it more weight than whole columns of certificates from strangers, whose faces we never saw, and whose certificates, for ought we know, may have been procured by fraud. Hunter's Pulmonary Balsam. To those afflicted with Coughs, Colds, Consumption, Asthma, Spitting of Blood, and all affections of the Lungs, we recommend Hunter's Pulmonary Balsam. It is believed to be the best article ever invented for these complaints. Price 50cts. a bottle.

INDIAN DISPEPSIA PILLS. For cure of Costiveness, Acidity of the Stomach, Bilious Complaints, Headache, Dizziness, Heart Burning, Pain in the Side, Loss of Appetite, and general Debility,—can be remedied, removed, and entirely cured, by the use of the Indian Dispepsia Pills. These Pills have effected the most astonishing cures in hundreds of cases of the above complaints, and are an invaluable remedy, in an especial manner, for Dispepsia. They are a mild and gentle cathartic, operating mostly upon the blood, cleansing and purifying the same, and causing the digestive organs to perform their appropriate duties, with regularity.

COSTIVENESS.

Bastard Costiveness is, if not removed in time, a cause of more than half of the disorders and pain to which humanity is subject. The medicines too generally had recourse to, do more harm than good, as they weaken and distract the action of the bowels, and increase instead of removing the disorder.

Also, in all Bilious Diseases, attended with Pain in the Side and Right Shoulder Blade, with a dull, yellow concretion. In all Diarrhoeas, Ague and Fever; Bilious Fever and sick Indigestion, they are an valuable Remedy. They are easily digested, and will be found the best Family Physic in the world, purifying the blood, restoring the appetite, and leaving the stomach and bowels in a healthy state. Price 25 cents per box.

For purifying the blood we do not believe these Pills have their equal in the world.
