PARK VS. FITZGERALD IN POLICE COURT

The case of Dr. J. H. Park vs. Alex. Fitzgerald was held in the Police Court, Friday morning August 27th, 1926, before His Honor J. J. Keenan. Mr. A. A. Davidson, K. C., represented Dr. J. H. Park and Mr. H. Whiter acted for Mr. Fitzgerald.

Miss Annie Price, the first witness, said she resided in Derby, and last winter was living with Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Park on Phoenix Street, Newcastle. She remembered a conversation between Dr. Park and Alex. Fitzgerald on June 19th, 1926. At the evening between 6 and 7 o'clock Mr. Fitzgerald came on Dr. Park's lawn and asked him if he sent for the police, the Dr. said Yes and his reason for so doing was on account of the language and actions that was going on in the house. Mr. Fitzgerald told the Dr. that it was a dirty lie. Dr. Park asked him to go off the steps and he said he would not go. He said if he were not an old man he would clean the street with him, that he was a dirty pup, and was not worthy of the name of Doctor. Witness heard swearing in the Fitzgerald house. Mr. Forrest and Mrs. MacDonald were in the home at the time. She heard Mr. Fitzgerald calling Mr. Forrest a dirty pup. Fitzgerald's car was in front of the house. She saw Forrest get into the Fitzgerald house. The noise ceased after Forrest arrived at the house, and the swearing and noise continued until Fitzgerald came over to Dr. Park's house. She drew the Doctor's attention to it who listened for awhile and then he phoned the police.

Alex. Casse, sworn, said he lived at Douglastown and knew Alex. Fitzgerald. Was at the Doctor's house on June 19th consulting him professionally. He saw Fitzgerald on the Doctor's doorstep, and the Dr. was in his doorway. Fitzgerald asked him if he sent for the police and he said he did, because of the noise in the house. Fitzgerald said he was a dirty hound, was not worthy of the name Doctor, and if he was not an old man he would sweep the road with him. The Dr. called the police to take him and they said they could not without a warrant. The Dr. then went away. He thought for a warrant. This closed the case for the prosecution.

John E. Ashford, sworn, said he remembered the evening of June 19th, and was one of the policemen who went to Fitzgerald's house on that evening. Was accompanied by Policeman Galley. When he arrived at house he heard no noise. Went into yard and found everything quiet, then walked out to front of the house. Fitzgerald asked him if he was called for and he said he was. He wanted to know who sent for me and I did not tell him. He asked me to go into his house, but I did not go in. I did not know who was in the house. We went down street and returned afterwards, and told Dr. he would have to get a warrant if he wanted Fitzgerald arrested. I think Fitzgerald was under the influence of liquor and was talking in a loud voice and appeared to be excited. The reason I did not arrest him was because I did not see anything to arrest him for.

James Forrest, sworn, said he knew plaintiff and defendant from evening of June 19th. Witness was coming down the road and Fitzgerald came out and asked him if he sent for the police. Witness went in the house about 6 o'clock and between 6 and 10 minutes afterwards the policeman came into the yard. Mr. Fitzgerald and I were talking about some pads and he did not seem to call me any names. When the policeman came they came here the policeman when they came. He did not hear the conversation between Dr. Park and Mr. Fitzgerald.

Mr. Fitzgerald was called in Dr. Park's house and he said witness did not call policeman. I did not know what the Doctor's dog was, and Miss Fitzgerald called the Dr. when he heard Fitzgerald's side the policeman to come and hear what was said to Dr. Park.

John Davidson, sworn, by Mr. Davidson, who is acting as counsel for the defendant. That the defendant Fitzgerald, who is a doctor, did not call the police, and that the defendant Fitzgerald, who is a doctor, did not call the police, and that the defendant Fitzgerald, who is a doctor, did not call the police.

Detroit Offering Sugar to Canada

Detroit firms are offering sugar in Montreal at $17 a hundred pounds freight, duty and exchange paid, a local wholesale dealer announced this morning. The dealer said he did not buy because he was waiting for the price of sugar to drop to 15 cents.

A. S. Richardson, sugar broker, claimed to have 50,000 bags of St. Lawrence sugar, which he could sell below refinery price. He held that the government knew the excess profits of the refineries and should be familiar with their enormous profits of the last few years. "Why should all the refineries be allowed to sell at the same price?" he asked.

"They buy their raws independent of, and their refineries sell to approximately the same; why should the board of commerce not compel competition amongst them? In the United States they have the Lever Law to prevent just cutting of competition."

A good life is nothing more than a lot of days lived well.

Instead of taxing the wedding fees of clergymen why do not the civil authorities adopt the sales tax idea.

policemen to come into his house and see if anything was wrong.

This closed the case for the defence. His Honor, in his remarks stated that the case had been filed by Miss Price. Mr. Forrest's evidence differs entirely from Miss Price's as to time. He considered that Mr. Fitzgerald had committed an offence in going over to Dr. Park's property and for doing so would fine him $10.00 and the costs of the court.

C.N.R. Collision Near Sackville

The boat train which connected with the Prince Edward Island ferry at Cape Bretonville, had a head-on collision with a gravel special Saturday evening at Yarm Ridge on the C.N.R. a few miles west of Sackville. The wreck was fortunately attended by the loss of life, and no very serious injuries to passengers or train hands. C. G. Skovron, brakeman, who suffered the most severe injuries was badly bruised in one leg. Some of the passengers on the express sustained slight bruises and a shaking up, as a result of the contact of the trains.

The engineers on both trains jumped and escaped injuries. Both engines were more or less damaged and derailed and the truck torn up. The collision is alleged to have been due to the gravel special crew forgetting about the boat special and being on the main line on her time. The gravel special was standing still and the express was slowing down as engines came together, which accounts for the collision not having more serious results.

Traffic was blocked at the point of the wreck some eight or ten hours.

Many an optimist is simply a fatalist with a sound direction, and a fine line of sighting his mind and his eye on the probable facts.
