

C. C. The former rev. gentleman took passage by the Plover on Monday from Bay-de-Verd for King's Cove, where he will remain as curate under the Rev. W. Veitch, P.P., of that place.

Captain W. Pike arrived at Harbor Grace, on Tuesday evening, from St. John's with a cargo of fish for John Munn & Co.

Who is to blame.—We have noticed since our establishment here, an advertisement appearing in the Harbor Grace Standard, every three months calling a meeting of the Court of Quarter Sessions at Carbonar and signed by our Magistrate. We have no objection to seeing it published in the Standard, but we must stand out for our rights and we want to know why they were not sent to us, and who is to blame. We cannot understand this matter, and we hope the proper authorities will give it their fullest consideration.

CARBONAR WIT.—While a drunken man was passing one of our townsmen the other day and using very low language, the townsman said "I wish the authorities would put down this cursed rum," when his son of about 6 summers, who was with him replied, "yes pa they are trying to do it there is a Sergeant putting down a glass of rum now," he pointed towards a certain counter.

Why is the Carbonar Herald like Judge Conroy?—one is a Judge of Irish and the other is an Irish Judge.

We understand that a young man belonging to Harbor Grace, some time since, while in the neighbourhood of Lady Lake, discovered a valuable specimen of silver and tin, and we have every reason to believe, from the statement of the finder, that a valuable mineral deposit is in the vicinity. The specimen has been shown to Professor Holloway of St. John's and he gave it as his opinion that it contained a very large percentage of silver.

We are glad to observe the much needed repairs to the Public wharf have been commenced with. The new Engine House also, is fast approaching completion. The erection of the long looked for and much needed Street Lamps will, we presume, soon follow in turn. What about the Railway; or is it too much of a good thing.

We learn that a number of fishing stages at Fresh Water and other parts of the shore were knocked down and swept away by the heavy sea which hove into the Bay during Saturday and Sunday last. We have not heard what amount of damage was sustained, but we fear it must be something considerable.

On Monday and Tuesday, a Requiem Mass was celebrated in Harbor Grace Cathedral, for Timothy Kane and Joseph Kane of Burnt Island.

The Rev. E. F. Walsh, Rev. D. Falconio and the Rev. W. Veitch, were in town yesterday.

Mrs. Lord, Miss Lord and Master Lord also Mrs. and Master Foray, who were on a visit to the Hon. J. Korke, left here on Friday per Glover.

Mr. and Mrs. Graham, left town about 10 o'clock last evening for Harbor Grace, where they will take up their residence and receive their visitors.

Miss A. Southcott, of St. John's, after spending a few pleasant weeks with a young lady friend in town, returned to St. John's by the Lady Glover on Friday.

Mrs. W. Henderson, of St. John's, who was on a visit to her friends also returned to St. John's on Friday last by the Glover.

We are pleased to note that our old friend Capt. T. Geary, was successful in securing a good catch of cod fish and is now doing very fair with the herring.

The "Matilda," Captain Hanrahan belonging to Messrs. J. Munn & Co.; from Harbor Grace for Labrador, put into this port Sunday last, head wind and heavy sea on. She left again on her voyage, at 7 o'clock Monday evening, the wind having changed to South West.

The schr. Crocus of Bonavista Bay Joseph Wills, master, whilst on the passage from Batteaux to Assizes Harbor, picked up on the 9th inst., off Cape Bluff, a ship's boat, in which were two men—one dead, the other living, but in a very weak condition. Taking the boat in tow, the Crocus put into Dead Island, where an investigation into the circumstances of the case was held by Mr. George Pike, and Capt. Alexander Reed of the English schooner Emulator, assisted by Messrs. Henry Hiscock, George Apsey, Francis Taylor, and John Sheppard. The following is the substance of the statement given by the survivors:

I am captain of the Bella Donna of Guernsey; the dead man was the steward of the vessel. We left Black Tickle in our boat at 10 a.m. on Tuesday, 7th September, for the purpose of fishing; remained out about five hours, and got under way to return, when we encountered a strong breeze of northerly wind, which compelled me to anchor under the lee of Saddle Island. Remained there until 2 a.m. next morning—wind increasing, when the mooring-rope parted and we were driven to sea. At noon of the same day, the steward, who was of a weakly constitution, became exhausted by exposure, and died. The boat drifted till about 6 o'clock, when the wind moderated, veering southerly. I set sail and made for land. At 4 o'clock the next evening (9th inst.), I was rescued by the schooner Crocus about two miles south of Cape Bluff. I was getting very weak and exhausted and wished to get on board the Crocus, but the master would not allow me to do so, and the crew threatened to cut the boat's tow-rope if I attempted to get on board. They towed me and my dead steward into Dead Island, at 6 p.m. on the 9th. The deceased man's name is Henry Noding. He belongs to London, England, and is 23 years of age. The deceased was buried by the Rev. J. Peters, Wesleyan Minister, at Dead Island, on the 10th inst. The Captain was sent on to Black Tickle.—Standard

MARRIED.—Last evening, at St. Patrick's Church, Carbonar by the Rev. D. Falconio, O. S. F., Mr. James Graham to Isabella, daughter of the late Thos. Casey. At Harbor Grace by the Rev. D. Falconio, O. S. F. Mr. John Phppard, of the Anglo-American Telegraph Company, to Katie the eldest daughter of Mr. M. Fitzgerald.
