PECULIAR ACCIDENT.

Annapolis, N. S., Jan. 6—The little eight-year hold daughter of Edgar Hopnson of Liver Granville, metwith a very peculiar and painful accident. While she was coasting down hill on a sled she slipped off, striking the side of her nose, close to the base, against the sharp edge of a tin can frozen in the ground, thereby outting that organ completely off from the face. Dr. Robinson attended the child, who is doing as well as can be expelled under the circumstances.
