last says that a committee of the Maritime Board of Trade was appointed at the Truro meeting to present a memorial to Sir Louis Davies, for his use as Canadian Commissioner at the Quebec conference. The committee, it is said, authorized Sir Louis, on their behalf, to offer to the United States the free use of Canadian inshore fisheries by United States of the Canadian inshore fisheries by United States on the prize states of the prize states of the national anthem was full of error as to facts, as the Interpolation, and it was only after the greatest persuasion its writing, the articleit sent forth is nevertheless of interest as United States to write the story.

This privilege to be given in exchange for access to Borto Rico and Cuba, for Canadian products on the same eustoms tariff as is imposed on the United States products. It is also stated that a committee of the Halifax board of trade made similar representations to Sir Louis. This is what is going the rounds of the press. If the report is true, it would seem to be a somewhat arbitrary undertaking for these committees to assume the right to speak for the right to speak for the same the right to speak for the sam dertaking for these committees to assume the right to speak for the Maritime Provinces in a matter of such importance. Cuba and Porto Rico have scarcely come under the laws of the United States, and there may be many things to consider before any States, and there may be many things to consider before any such arrangement should be made. To say the least, the action, if true, seems a little precipitate.

ant Governor then sent for Mr. Semlin, Leader of the opposition in the last Legislature and asked him to form a ministry. It will be remembered that Mr. Semlin commanded a following of the service of the commanded a following of the commanded as followed as followed as followed as followed as followed as followed commanded a following of only about one half of the members elect who were opposed to the Turner Government. The other wing was divided between the famous Joe Martin and a Mr. Cotton of Vancouver. The latest accounts indicate that the factions have been united under Mr. Semlin, both Martin and Cotton accepting office in the new Gov-ernment. Martin becomes Attor-ney-Ceneral, and Cotton Provin-cial Treasurer. The probabilities are that another general election will be brought on right away. From these facts it will easily be seen how deep was the plot that deprived the Turner Government of office. Mr. Turner is a Conservative and as such is not a persona grata to Lieut. Governor McIndes, who, in mitation of Lord Aberdeen, is evidently most McIndes, who, in imitation of Lord Aberdeen, is evidently most anxious to please his masters at Ottawa. Apparently fearing that, by the time the Legislature met, Mr. Turner might have a majority of the members with him, the Lieut Governor summarily dismissed him and in turn marily dismissed him, and in turn, entrusted the task of forming an administration to two men, each following in the Legislature than the man he forced out. It has evidently come to this; that the Government at Ottawa and the Lieutenant Governors appointed by them are bound that Conservative Governments must be dri ven from office by fair means or foul. It must be admitted that this is a rather extraordinary state of affairs in a country where representative government is sup-posed to exist.

One of the wealthiest farmers in eastern Ontario—M. Purcell, of Glen Walter—was instantly killed in his carriage by a train on the Grand Trunk Railway. He had returned only the night before from a visit to Prince Edward Island and Nova Scotia. He was a brother of the late P. Purcell, ex.M. This is what it says: As for reciprocity, the attainment of which is hoped for by the Canada P. for Glangarry.

Still Carst in the Canadian men and journals that believe or profess to believe that, in order to secure reciprocity with that country, Canada must join the Union. Nevertheless, indirectly the sessions of the commission are likely to be productive of good, especially as regards the repeal of the treaty that limits us to one warship on the lakes. In this, as

NEWS OF THE WEEK.

This season's Labrador fisheries are very unsuccessful, in fact, almost a failure. The North Bay fleet, however, has, according to a Lunenburg, N. S. despatch, done exceedingly well. On Thursday last, as a train was passing over Trail Rive bridge, in the northern section of Vancouver Island, past of the bridge broke and the train fell into the river from a height of 120 feet. Six lives were lost and a number

Whilst the intense heat prevailed in England and France during the last two weeks many cases of sunstroke were reported. A thick fog in the English Channel also caused much inconvenience. Paris was even hotter than London. During the manœuvres at Begiers Lieutenant Colonel Longuet fell from his horse and died from the overpowering heat. At the same time the inhabitants of the Austrian mountain regions suffered from extreme cold, the thermometer having, within a few hours, fallen from 100 to 50 de grees. Snowstorms prevailed at Gratz, Insbruck and several other places,
