London, Oct. 6.—Even the greatest battle of the war may prove to have had less weight in deciding the future of Europe than the events of the past few days in the southeastern kingdom. King Constantine of Greece, brother-in-law of the German Emperor, seems to hold the balance of power of the Near East in his hands for the present. In the second crisis, where Greece seemed on the brink of entering the war by the side of the Entente Powers, he has virtually dismissed the foremost Greek statesman, Eleutherios Venizelos, from the premiership, and has asserted personal control of the government. King Ferdinand of Bulgaria has rejected Russia's ultimatum demanding that she break with the Central Powers and expel German officers who have taken charge of Bulgaria's army and land, at the same time, according to several correspondents, has sent an ultimatum to Serbia, allowing a time limit of twenty-four hours, for the cession of Macedonia to Bulgaria. The program of the Germanic empires apparently includes the consolidation of their field operations with their Turkish allies by sweeping clear a channel from Berlin and Vienna to Constantinople. For the accomplishment of this program they have already secured the co-operation of Bulgaria. They need the neutrality of Greece and Roumania, and then must crush Serbia.

Petrograd, via London, Oct. 6.—Great surprise was occasioned here by the turn of events in Greece. The Russian foreign office learned this afternoon of the resignation of Premier Yezizelos after an audience with the King, in which the King declared that he could not pursue the policy of the Venizelos cabinet to an end.

Athens, Oct. 6, via Paris, Oct. 7.—King Constantine has asked Alexander Zaimis, a former premier, to form a cabinet.

London, Oct. 6.—The dramatic downfall of the Greek cabinet astounded diplomatic circles here. What the outcome will be no one appears to be able to predict, but the emphasis is placed on the fact that the Venizelos party has a considerable majority in the country.

Paris, Oct. 7.—The official communication issued by the war office tonight records the continuation of the artillery actions in Artois and on the Lorraine front. At various points the Germans delivered strong counter attacks, but were driven back. The text of the statement follows: "A violent bombardment by both sides has occurred in the environs of Nienport and in the sector of Het-Sas-Stoenstraele. Artillery activity continues on all sides in Artois. We make slight progress to the south of Thelus, near the road from Arras to Lille. A sudden attack, attempted by the enemy on one of our advance positions near Popincourt, to the south of Roye, was completely stopped. On the Aisne our batteries caused by their fire two very violent explosions in the region of Juvincourt, and set fire to the station at Juvincourt. In Champagne the Germans, during the course of the day, delivered two counter-attacks against our positions to the west of the Navarian farm. They were both repulsed. The enemy suffered heavy losses. Engagements with bombs and grenades took place in the Argonne at La Fille Mortie and Haute Chevauchee. The enemy directed, to different points of the Lorraine front, especially near Arracourt, to the north of Reillon and to the northeast of Badonviller, a strong cannonade, to which we replied effectively. In the Vosges we dispersed a strong German reconnaissance which had started to attack one of our posts to the east of Sondernach. One of our aeroplanes shot down this afternoon, in Champagne, a German captive balloon which fell in flames within the enemy's lines."

London, Oct. 7.—On the eastern front the German offensive against Drinsk is at last making some headway. The German official communication says that Field Marshal Von Hindenburg has penetrated the Russian lines over a front of about three miles. Throughout the centre the Russians are still on the offensive. Champagne, the country over which the French made their big gains late in September, is still the main district of contention in the west. The reports are so contradictory, however, that it is difficult to ascertain what is actually happening. The Germans admit that the French have made slight progress, but on the whole, claim to have repulsed the Allied general offensive. On the other hand, the French declare that it is a German offensive which has been repulsed. As the result of a month's minor actions in Gallipoli, Gen. Sir Hamilton reports the British have gained three hundred yards on a front of four miles at Suvla Bay. The long-threatened Austro-German offensive in the Balkans, with the added menace of Bulgaria, has begun in earnest. Almost simultaneously with the rupture of diplomatic relations between Sofia and the Entente Powers an Austro-German army, estimated at 400,000 men, with an enormous weight of heavy artillery, started to attack Serbia from the north and west, and according to the Berlin official reports, crossed the Drina, Danube and Save rivers at many points and firmly established itself on the Serbian side. The Anglo-French troops, which were landed at Saloniki with the tacit consent of the Greek government, are being hurried northward to assist Serbia and it is possible, keep the Bulgarians from capturing the Saloniki-Nish railway, the only source by which the Serbians can be fed with munitions of war. The hope for support from Greece has not been forth coming. King Constantine, by the dismissal of Premier Venizelos, having shown that while his country sympathizes with the cause of the Allies, he is not prepared to go against the Central Powers, or to fulfill the obligations of the Greco-Serbian treaty of alliance, which provides that one ally must go to the assistance of the other in the case of attack. A new Greek cabinet, composed of men of pro-German and pro-Ally sympathies, has been appointed, and the expectation now is that this public opinion forces the hand of the government and insists on action on the side of the Allies. Greece will remain neutral. It is hardly conceivable to the Entente diplomats that Greece will go over to the Central Powers, for they point out Bulgaria is known to covet some of her territory, and the treatment of Greek nationals in Turkey makes it virtually impossible for her to become the ally of that country.

Paris, Oct. 8.—From Champagne comes the news: We have gained a foothold in the fortified "Le Trapezia," and carried several trenches and two blockhouses included in the salient still held by the enemy in front of his second line of defence. More than 200 prisoners, a bomb-thrower and some machine guns were captured.

London, Oct. 9.—Following is an extract from Sir John French's official communication: "In spite of the enemy's artillery fire we have pushed our trenches steadily forward northeast of Loos, between Hill No. 70 and Hulluch, and gained ground varying from 500 to 1,000 yards in depth.

Paris, Oct. 11.—"We have made very perceptible progress in the wood in the west of the road from Souchez to Angres, in the Souchez valley, and to the east of the Givenchy wood blockhouse. We also have gained ground on the ridges toward Lefolie. We captured about 100 prisoners from the guard corps. In Champagne we have made further progress to the north of Thure, and carried, by a vigorous attack, the whole of the German fortified works to the south of the village on the side of the Lagoutte gully. We captured there 108 prisoners, among them two officers.

London, Oct. 12.—Belgrade the Serbian capital was carried by assault on Saturday by combined Austro-German forces. The Teutons were repulsed with great loss South of the Dvna River.

Monday, Thanksgiving Day, was observed as a public holiday. Business was generally suspended in the city.

Petrograd advices say that two Russian torpedo boats have destroyed nineteen Turkish sailing vessels off the Austrian coast since Thursday. They were carrying supplies for the Turks.

Hon. M. Kennedy and Hon. Dr. S. R. Jenkins, members for the first district of Queens and for Charlottetown respectively, have been sworn in members of the Provincial Executive. One more seat remains to be filled.

The death is reported in Baltimore of the Right Rev. Monsignor Thomas J. Broderick, rector of St. Martin's Church, after an illness extending over several months. The deceased prelate was a native of Charlottetown and brother of the late Father James Broderick, who died in this city a good many years ago. R. I. P.

On Thursday last, His Honor, Judge Stewart delivered judgment in the matter of the application for a recent made by Mr. John S. Cousins against A. C. McEvin, refusing the account. In a lengthy written judgment his honor showed that the affidavit on which the application was based was founded on hearsay, not facts; consequently the application was thrown out.

Solemn Ceremonies.

On Sunday last, the parishioners of St. Peter's, Head St. Peter's Bay, were favored with a visit from the Bishop of the Diocese, Rt. Rev. Dr. O'Leary. His Lordship, who had come on the invitation of the zealous pastor, Rev. A. McAulay, arrived on Saturday evening from Charlottetown, accompanied by his secretary, Rev. Dr. Hughes. His Lordship officiated at an early Mass on Sunday morning. The high Mass at 10 o'clock was sung by Rev. Dr. Hughes, and his Lordship preached an eloquent and impressive sermon from the Gospel of the day.

At 4 o'clock in the afternoon, his Lordship officiated at the solemn blessing and consecration of a new cemetery, or an addition to the old one. He was assisted in the ceremonies by the pastor, Rev. Father McAulay, Rev. Dr. Hughes and Rev. Pius A. McDonald of Morell.

The ceremony was a very lengthy and solemn one. The plot of ground to be blessed was roped off and five crosses had been so erected as, of themselves, to constitute a large cross in form. A larger cross was so placed as to be equidistant from either side of the ground and about one-third of the length from the top of the plot. Opposite this at either side was a smaller cross. A smaller cross was also placed at the top and bottom of the ground in line with the larger cross in the centre. In this way the five crosses were in the form of a large cross.

When the time arrived for the ceremony, his Lordship in appropriate and bearing his crozier, accompanied by the clergy, proceeded from the sanctuary and advanced to the main entrance of the church and thence to the cemetery, all chanting the "Benedictus." The large congregation followed.

The Bishop and clergy proceeded to the main cross in the centre, where his Lordship knelt, and the clergy and choir chanted the Litany of the Saints. This was followed by the prescribed prayers. His Lordship next sprinkled the grounds, up and down with holy water, the clergy and choir singing. Prayers and singing were then held at each of the crosses and three lighted candles were placed on each cross, one on the top and one on the end of each arm. At the conclusion of the solemn ceremony, the procession returned to the church, followed by the congregation.

His Lordship then ascended the pulpit and preached a splendid sermon concerning the ceremonies just held, the origin and growth of burial places and the doctrine of purgatory. It was an admirable discourse. During his sermon he pointed out that the first cemetery had been blessed 83 years ago by Bishop McEachern and the second one about 25 years ago. None of those present at the first were now alive, and the majority of those who assisted at the second had gone to their reward.

The services concluded with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. Rev. Pius A. McDonald officiating, assisted by Rev. Father McAulay.
