Cut a Day Out.

Special to Evening Telegram.
NEW YORK, June 18.

According to reports received here another hitch has been taken in the tightening of the earth, and the effect is to bring China and Japan one day nearer for those who journey thither by way of London, Paris and the Siberian Railroad. The 24 hours have been clipped from the railroad schedule between Moscow and Vladivostok, in Russia, by several principal junctions. Under the new schedule the tourist who leaves London on Monday may reach Yokohama on the second Monday following, or at Shanghai on the second Wednesday, 14 and 16 days, respectively.

The Kaiser's Knee.

Special to Evening Telegram.
POTSDAM, June 19.

The Emperor's physicians issued a statement to-day with reference to the knee from which the Emperor is suffering. They state that the inflammation is taking a most favorable course, and that the discharge has now almost ceased. They deny absolutely the story published this morning, declaring that the trouble is not furuncular in character, that no operation was performed yesterday, adding that Dr. Bier who was said to have been the operating surgeon, did not visit the palace yesterday. The whole story is defined by the doctors as an invention and a complete denial has been made to set aside the alarm of the public.

Noted Dramatist Dead

LONDON, June 19.

Henry Neville, the actor and dramatic writer, died here to-day. He was born in Manchester. He made his first London appearance in 1860.

Many persons suffer
With weak stomach and
More or less illness because
They fail to understand the
Simple and healthful plan
Of the following breakfast:

- Some fruit
 - Grape-Nuts with cream
 - One or two soft cooked eggs
 - Some nice crisp toast
 - A cup of well-made Postum.
- A man says:
"I couldn't go on that until noon."
- One or two day's trial
Will teach him some big facts
And make him "fit as a lord."
There is a deep, underlying
And scientific reason.
The best argument, however,
Is the actual experience
With such breakfasts.

Carbonear Indignant About Labrador Mail.

Special to Evening Telegram.
CARBONEAR, To-Day.

The Invermore arrived yesterday morning. Nearly every man, woman and child interested was anxious to hear of the safe arrival of their loved ones on the bleak coast of the Labrador, and yet they were made to wait 24 hours before the mail was delivered. The public are indignant. Who is to blame? The merchants have pocket Marconi systems. Poor people have to rely on the mail, and want justice from public servants. Speak up Mr. Goodison, Mr. Woods, or whoever is to blame for this new but callous arrangement.

The Vatican and Spain

Special to Evening Telegram.
MADRID, June 19.

A semi-official note intimates that if the Vatican insists upon coupling its protest against the Royal Decree, issued on June 11th, with the negotiations to revise the Concordat, the Government will break off all negotiations. The Royal Decree authorizes the edifices of non-Catholic religious societies to display the insignia for Public Worship and other ceremonies. Don Vico, the Papal Nuncio, made a formal protest against the decree on the ground that the Government should maintain the status quo, pending the result of the negotiations, relating to the revision of the Concordat.

RUNNERS TO MEET.—Arrangements are all but concluded for a meeting here between Johnny Hayes, the champion runner, and Bob Fowler, our own native runner and athlete. It is likely the match will take place in August and that both will run over a 15 mile course. Mr. W. J. Higgins is arranging matters here and an interesting race is in prospect.

P. S. A.

At the Pleasant Sunday Afternoon Class, held in the Congregational Church, yesterday, a large audience listened attentively to a thoroughly practical address delivered by Dr. Wilfred T. Grenfell on the nature of his work in connection with the Deep Sea Mission. The doctor's preliminary remarks were an interpretation of Christian service, he said, would doubtless be considered heterodox by some people; but it was the result of a close study of the mind of Christ, and the voice of God speaking to him through his intuitions. The Christian churches to-day were composed of members who thought that church-going, and the living of an upright life, constituted the essence of Christianity. It was infinitely easier to talk of bearing the cross, and wearing the crown, than to do work of a practical nature. The speaker also dissented from the distinction so frequently drawn between secular and spiritual labours. If he correctly interpreted the life of Christ, ministrations to broken bodies were as spiritual in their nature as ministrations to wounded spirits. The setting of a limb was appreciated by the Master equally as much as showing a man the way to Heaven. He firmly believed that the citizens of St. John's who were devoting their money and their energies to an attempted eradication of tuberculosis in the colony, were apostles of the Lord Christ, and would ultimately accomplish a task that was none other than the work of God.

Dr. Grenfell briefly outlined the progress of his work in Labrador during the last eighteen years, and enumerated a series of incidents in connection with the labours he had to perform. In concluding, he appealed for the sympathy, and, more particularly, the practical assistance of his audience in the great work of alleviating the lot of his fishermen in Labrador and Newfoundland.

The Susu Arrives.

The s.s. Susu, Capt. B. Barbour, arrived here yesterday from the Northward at 4 p.m. She had fine weather after leaving here on the 14th inst., but on the evening of Monday a N. E. gale began with a tremendous sea. This continued almost without abatement until Friday morning. The ship owing to adverse weather could not call at the Outer Wadhams, Musgrave Harbor, Tilton Harbor, Little Fogo Island, Peckford's Island and Ladle Cove when going North. As the ship returned the storm had abated sufficiently to enable her to land her mails and freight at Musgrave Harbor. The storm, so Capt. Barbour reports, was severely felt north, and though it is not definitely known owing to the ship's hurried departure from Musgrave what the losses are, but it is believed that many traps have been destroyed. At several places including Joe Batt's Arm and Fogo there was good fishing for a while last week and traps secured from 4 to 12 quintals. The ship met dense fog off Catalina Saturday. The ship had almost a full freight and her passengers were—Mr. Cartwright, Capt. John Bartlett, T. Lockyer, S. Parsons, Dr. Robertson, son and maid and a few steerage.

Britton, President of the C. E. M. S., at Bay de Verde, occupied a place in the choir. The address was delivered by Rev. A. G. Bayley, R.D., of Bonavista, who expatiated on the reasons that led to the inauguration of the C. E. M. S. There are now 3,000 branches and 90,000 active workers. He hoped to see the C. E. M. S. still further extended all over the country.

Guy Celebration.

We have heard from our correspondent at Harbor Grace that great preparations are being made for the celebration in August. The committee is an energetic one and leaving no stone unturned to make a big success. We have seen circulars that have been sent broadcast, both in the Old World and the New World, calling all their friends back for a great reunion on this occasion. A circular has also been sent inviting every manufacturer in Newfoundland to take part in the Exhibition to be held during the several days of the celebration. There is to be a large gathering of all connected with the celebration on Thursday next, at the Coughlan Hall, Harbor Grace, and Mr. H. J. Shortis has been invited to give a lecture on the old times in Conception Bay. Mr. Jas. Vey, our well known artist, who has delighted our people so often with his beautiful lime light views, has promised to take part with Mr. Shortis and illustrate his lecture with over a hundred views of Conception Bay. He also states that he has twenty new views taken at the seal fishery last winter, the finest that has ever been seen in the country and he promises to bring these forward for the first time at this lecture. When we remember the racy anecdotes that Mr. Shortis has given it makes us all wish to be present at this lecture and see him in his native health delighting the audience with stories that will stir them to the heart core.

Obituary.

We tender Mr. Nicholas Ready, of H. M. Customs, our sympathy on the death of his son, Patrick, which occurred on Saturday last. He was a young man of splendid physique and his friends will be sorry to hear of his death.

S. MILLEY

At the R. C. Cathedral.

Rev. Monsignor Roche preached at Vespers last evening at the Cathedral, selecting for his text "I have loved, O Lord, thy habitation and the place where thy glory dwelleth," from the 26th Psalm. The discourse was on the Church, the material Church and the earthly tabernacle of our Lord. The rev. preacher in eloquent terms explained the relation that existed from the early Christian times between religion and the material church. Our Divine Lord's attitude to the material church was amply illustrated in the Scripture when He drove the money changers out of the Temple and said "My houses is a house of prayer." The material church is the scene of the principal incidents of our lives; there we received Baptism, Confirmation, the Blessed Eucharist and Penance. The youth and maiden pledge their matrimonial vows before the altar and when life goes out of the body it is taken to the church to have the last prayers read over it. No wonder, then, our warmest affections and holiest memories are connected with the church. Our fathers have expressed their faith and hope in the erection of the sacred edifices, and we should love the place where the living God condescends to dwell in the Blessed Sacrament. This week we celebrate the Feast of St. John the Baptist, the Patron Saint of the Cathedral. The occasion is opportune to renew our love and veneration for the church, the "Place where His glory dwelleth."

An Enemy to the King.

The historic drama, "An Enemy to the King," will be presented at the T. A. Hall to-night by the popular Chicago Stock Company as the inaugural to another week of the standard productions which have gained for the organization an enviable reputation during the past fortnight. This play will prove one of the most interesting thus far produced. Its scenes are laid in France during the last day of the great Napoleon, and history and fiction are happily combined to form a play of life and color. No expense has been spared in furnishing the drama with costuming and mountings of a particularly elaborate character and a performance of an exceptionally high order of merit is guaranteed. Mr. Dorente will essay the role of the young soldier of the King, who through his fealty to the cause he serves is persecuted by enemies seeking his downfall. In spite of intrigue and malicious falsehoods the girl he loves remains true to her heart's desire and in the end right triumphs over the evil-doers and happiness comes to all. Miss Prae and the entire acting company will be seen in the production, and a large advance sale of seats denotes the exceptional amount of interest that is being shown in the production.

Rheumatic Pains, How Common!

Cold has a vicious way of finding out aching muscles or weak joints. Inflammation develops and excruciating pain, stiffness and aching all over follows. An application of Nerviline at the start gives immediate relief and prevents worse trouble. When the pain is very acute, Nerviline has a chance to show its wonderful penetrating and pain-subduing power. It strikes in deeply.—It is this strike-in-deep quality that proves its superiority to feeble remedies. Then this goodness is magnified by its great strength, easily five times greater than most liniments. So powerful and curative a liniment at hand offers perfect security against pain. Nerviline is the only guaranteed pain remedy offered in the world. Forty years of success in many countries warrants its manufacturers saying, if it does not relieve, get your money back. No relievable pain, not even Neuralgia, Lumbago, Sciatica or Rheumatism, can resist the magic power of Nerviline. Sold by druggists, large size 50 cents; trial size 25 cents.
