Cable News.

Special to Evening Telegram.
 NEW YORK, Jan. 14.
 No material change has taken place in the condition of Premier Whitney, of Ontario.

LONDON, Jan. 14.

Dr. Armstrong, Professor of Chemistry, does not accept the views of those who preach about the decadence of England. Addressing a conference of scientists, he declared that the boasted superiority of Germans was all moonshine. It takes ten Germans to do the work of two Englishmen. He said the German can only get one pot to boil at a time. The country that can stand the mediæval conditions existing in Alsace, is not a country where originality and individuality are developed.

W.C.T.U. Meeting.

A meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, held in the Institute building yesterday afternoon, was largely attended. Mrs. S. Benedict presiding. The world society's motto, "For God and Home and Every Land," will be displayed at the public meeting to be held to-night at Gower Street Church. The music will be rendered by the different city choirs and many prominent clergymen will speak on the prohibition movement. Mrs. Pippy, the recent delegate to the World's and National Conventions, will also deliver an address on Prohibition and the movement to set apart January 15th as a day of intercession and prayer for the success of the cause. This is to be established as a constitutional measure, and the Rev. J. W. Bartlett will attend to the petitions to be presented to the Legislature in this direction.

It was decided that more copies of the Union Signal, the official organ of the W. C. T. U., be ordered and freely distributed. Arrangements were made for the annual treat for the inmates of the Poor Asylum, which will take place on Monday next. A concert is in preparation and gifts will be distributed to the inmates. Persons desirous of assisting in the charitable enterprise may send their donations to Mrs. Benedict, 48 Queen's Road.

The Busted Man.

The man who never has the price finds life a dismal fraud; the world presents a face of ice that simply can't be thawed. When to the eating house he pokes to break his daily fast, the waiters wait on 'tother folks, and leave him till the last. When he goes to the grocer's lair, or to the butcher's den, the clerks wake up to see who's there, then go to sleep again. There's not much honor or respect for any hopeless jay who's never able to collect enough to pay his way. Of course it's wrong; we shouldn't judge a man by what he owns; we shouldn't sneeringly say: "Fudge! He has no stack of bones!" The man whose pockets are a blank should get the cordial hand as well as one who to the bank takes coin to brat the band. But facts are facts, though they're not nice—and all the sunny smiles are for the man who has the price, the coin in forty styles. You may be long on sterling worth, but if you're short on kale, you'll find it lonesome here on earth, and protests won't avail. Your observation should suffice to teach you this is true; then always strive to have the price, and folks will play with you.
