HANCE LOGAN SAYS IT WOULD EQUAL CEDING OF HELIGOLAND TO GERMANY.

St. John, N.B., Oct. 24.-Hance Logan, head of the recent Canadian Trade Commission to the British West Indies which laid the ground-work for the Canadian West Indian trade treaty, last night addressed a meeting here in the interests of Hon. W. E. Foster, secretary of state.

"The United States last year sold in the British West Indies over $25,-000,000 worth of manufactured goods and farm produce, all of which could have been procured in Canada and Replying to the Japanese statesmen this afternoon, M. Briand emphasized the participants in the conference took care to link them with the spirit of the League covenant.

Competition "When I met Chancellor Luther (of Germany) in our first private interview," said M. Briand, "I told him we would succeed or fail accordingly as we perceived the magnitude of our task, and that if he talked as a German and I as a Frenchman we perhaps would not succeed at all. "We achieved not only security between us, but also planted the germ of world peace, because dropping our nationalities we talked as Europeans."
