CAUTION.
The Cornwall Manufacturing Company have pleasure in intimating the complete restoration of their works at Cornwall which are now in full operation, producing large quantities of White and Grey Blankets, and Heavy Medium Class Tweeds.
They regret, however, having again to call attention of the public to the continuance of the disreputable practice of importing English Blankets and selling them as Canadian. These Blankets are made largely of Shoddy and Cotton Waste, with a small percentage of pure Wool, and though slightly in appearance, closely imitating the Cornwall Blankets, and ticketed "Canadian Manufacture," have neither warm nor wear, but can be sold at a lower price than the Cornwall Blankets (which are made of Pure Wool) can be produced for.
The public are cautioned against this at tempted deception, and respectfully informed that the name of the CORNWALL MANUFACTURING COMPANY is printed on the ticket of every Blanket made by them.

Town and County News.

Ma. T. J. Day has sent us the Family Herald for October. For sale at Day's bookstore.

A second lodge was organized at Elora on the 3rd inst., named the Fountain Temple, No. 505.

Famous cattle fair on Thursday was very poorly attended, and little business was done.

Ma. John Anderson has sent us the Family Herald for October. For sale by him.

Ma. James Cairns, of Fergus, at the ripe age of 80, was presented by his wife with a bouncing young son, on the 9th.

There is an immense amount of lumber piled on the route of the Southern extension of the W. G. & B. Railway, awaiting the completion of the road to be shipped.

TRAIN DELAYED.—The morning train going west on the G. T. R. was delayed several hours by a run off of a freight train near Toronto. The train did not reach Guelph till after one o'clock.

A NUMBER of people about Camlock, presented the Y. M. C. A., of Fergus, with a handsome copy of the Bible on Tuesday, in token of their gratitude for organizing and conducting a prayer meeting there during the past summer.

We notice the death of Mr. James Gordon, a resident of Nichol for thirty-one years, and was well known and respected throughout the whole Township. He suffered from a cancer in the face for a number of years, and at last succumbed to its power.

THE FERGUS EXPRESS says that William, son of Mr. Alex. Petrie, school teacher, West Garafra, on Monday last, was looking at a man boring an auger hole, when he put his face close to the opposite side of the timber, and the auger coming through pierced his eye-ball. It is probable that the poor child will lose the sight of the eye.

Y. M. C. A.—The regular weekly meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association was held in their rooms last evening. Vice-President Mr. David McCrae in the chair. Mr. J. Wilkie gave a very excellent essay "God and Nature," which called out the thanks of the association. Next Thursday the committee will endeavor to get up the public meeting, when they hope to have, as usual, a very good programme.

INCENDIARISM IN LOWER NICHOL.—The Fergus Express says:—On the night of Friday last, some person or persons set fire to an unoccupied house on the farm of Mr. Wm. Taylor, Lower Nichol. The building, which was a log one, was entirely destroyed. Mr. Donald Cameron, whose house was quite close, had a narrow escape of being burned. The Township council should offer a reward for the apprehension of the perpetrator. Such ruffianism should not be allowed to go unpunished.

RUNAWAY.—This (Friday) morning a wagon belonging to Mr. Souver, West End, Guelph Township, had a narrow escape from a runaway. As he was driving down Wyndham street, when at the corner of the Market Square, the bolt attached to the pole came out, and the horses started off. He, along with his wife and children were thrown out opposite Mr. D. Bunyan's, but beyond having their dresses soiled by the mud sustained no injury. They were taken into Mr. Bunyan's and well cared for. The horses were stopped before any injury was done.

Mr. Fronds on the Relations Between England and Ireland.

At a dinner given to the distinguished historian, Mr. Fronds, by his publishers in New York, on Tuesday, he thus discussed on the relations between England and Ireland.

Some eighteen months ago, at a London breakfast table, it was mentioned that one of the most prominent Fenian leaders was making a tour in the United States, dilating upon English tyranny, and the wrongs of Ireland. No doubt the text is a pregnant one, and it probably did not suffer in the commentary. Irish patriotism has many a charge to bring against England, which can be but too well substantiated. England cannot complain if Irishmen have a long memory. These are, however, features in the long tragical story which, if they do not palliate, at least explain and make intelligible much that we could wish undone—features which naturally enough the Irish overlook, yet which should be borne in mind, if an impartial judgment is to be formed on the controversy. I was aware how great an influence America possesses in Ireland. The judgment of America has more weight in Ireland than twenty batteries of English cannon; and that judgment ought to be pronounced after hearing only the counsel of the plaintiff. I said hastily, I think I will give over and give some lectures on the other side. I spoke without serious intention; but the idea having once presented itself gathered form and fixity. I am not an Irishman. I do not own an acre of land in Ireland, but circumstances during the last thirty years have thrown me among the Irish people. They are a people who either attract strongly, or repel strongly. I myself had always felt myself specially drawn toward them. When at college, I used to spend my vacations wandering in the Irish mountains. I have lived in peasants' cabins for months together. I was once laid up with a severe illness in the wilds of Mayo, and the poor creatures treated me with a tenderness which I shall never forget. Their history attracted me. Their condition personally interested me. I knew Ireland, as I was very unwell, and I had read afterwards, in 1848, in the Smith O'Brien insurrection. Since that time I have been an Irish tenant. Indeed, I may say I am an evicted tenant. I have been turned out of my holding, and can sympathize with the special wrong of the country, as I was very unwell, and I had read afterwards, in 1848, in the Smith O'Brien insurrection. Since that time I have been an Irish tenant. Indeed, I may say I am an evicted tenant.
