LONDON AND ENVIRONS.

—This is Ascension Day.

—There is good perch fishing now from the piers at Port Stanley.—C. McCallum & Co., druggists, have assigned to Mr. Alfred Robinson.—Mr. John Bland, president of the Board of Trade, London, has been visiting relatives in this city. [Montreal Herald.]—The very interesting evangelistic services at Talbot Street Baptist Church are drawing to a close. Friday evening's meeting being the last. Special services are announced for this afternoon and to-night.

—Dr. Oronhyatekha is a fortunate brave.

He and his family have by resolution been admitted into the Mohawk band of the Tyrondinga reserve, and now receive their share of the annuity paid under the Indian Act.—At Gloucester Tuesday Prof. Wesley, proprietor of the Archangel Hotel, who prescribed for Lydia Virtue, a young girl, who subsequently died, was fined $100 and costs. Wesley served a period in jail here recently in default of a fine for a similar offense.—Mrs. Cleveland, an American fortune teller, has been arrested in Chatham for plying her vocation. The London police, she declares, were perfectly agreeable to her working in the city, and some years ago, when she visited Brantford, she said the mayor had given her a letter of introduction.—Patrick Lawson was yesterday afternoon sentenced by Squires J. B. Smyth and R. F. Lacey to six months at hard labor for vagrancy. Lawson is one of an English contingent recently shipped to this country, and for a time worked for Fred Talbot in London township. His actions were such that Mr. Talbot had him arrested about a week ago on a charge of insanity.
He was dismissed from custody, and again went to Talbot's, refusing to go away. For his misconduct Lawson will crack stones, saw wood and otherwise amuse himself till the end of October.—Christian Alexander, a young tailor, came before Judge Edward Elliott yesterday afternoon charged with stealing two suits of clothes from Mrs. Mary Brown, a tailoress, residing on Richmond street.
Alexander had been out of work for some time, and went to Mrs. Brown's seeking employment. He was hired to finish two suits of clothes and received $11 in payment. It only took him five days, and when he left Mrs. Brown's the two suits were missing. A search warrant was issued and Detective Rider went to the C. P. R. station, and found Alexander with his trunk and the two suits of clothes in it. Alexander said that he was not getting well paid he thought he would take the clothes to make some money. Mrs. Brown. The case was adjourned till Saturday.

est books in Canada. "The Life of Isidore Loyola," printed in Venice in 1586; "La ae, Du Pin," printed in 1691. The books are bound in vellum, and in good condition.

The New Order of Things.

St. Thomas Times: According to announcement the new order of things came into effect on the railroad here this morning. Fourteen months ago the residents here expected to see "Eddie" strutting into the station with a train of yellow cars, but March 1, 1893, came, and no Eddie or yellow cars, and in a few weeks the Yankee bubble broke, and the syndicate was no more. Since that time the M. C. R. has given an excellent service. Every servant of the company proved himself a gentleman, and most obliging and courteous to all. Yesterday morning at 7:30 a train of five cars of L. E. and D. R. rolled intothe station in charge of Conductor Ambrose Segner and Engineer James Porteous at the lever. On board were Superintendent ent. Woodville, Assistant Superintendent Austin and Superintendent of Construction Pim. A large number were present to welcome them. The new company have seen fit and are to be congratulated upon retaining our live, active and courteous agent and respected townsman, Mr. Dan McKay, as agent for them here.

Charged with Bigamy.

St. Thomas Times: Chief Fawcett went to London township yesterday and arrested Mary Jane Caines, or Hughes, for bigamy.
She was married on the 23rd of January, 1893, to Mr. Rodney J. Parker, of South Yarmouth. She was married about twenty years ago, it is alleged, to George Hughes, who was at the time of her second marriage and is still living. At the police court this morning she was remanded till Friday. The woman claims to have been divorced from her first husband in the States. She is about 40 years of age.

Early Instruction in Cheese-Making.

The course of instruction in making early cheese in operating the Babcock milk tester, now being carried on by the Western Dairyman's Association, is meeting with good results. Five factories in the list already published have been visited.
Mr. T. B. Miller, the instructor, in this work, reports a very large attendance of cheese-makers and a large amount of interest taken by them in the work. Mr.
Miller is visiting the Victoria and Attercliffe station factories this week, and will visit North Brant and Brant next week.J. W. Wheaton, secretary of the Western Dairyman's Association, addressed the members of the Ingersoll Cheese Board of Trade on Tuesday, referring to some of the questions now being brought before the markets in reference to the selling of cheese.
Rev. Mr. Wye's Trial.The trial of Rev. G. W. Wye by the commission appointed by the Bishop of Huron has been in progress at Amherst-burg for the past several days. The commissioners concluded their labors there Wednesday and adjourned to London to take the bishop's evidence at 2 p.m. to-day. Rev.
Mr. Wye was charged by a portion of the congregation with committing acts un-becomingly a person in his position, and that consequently his usefulness is gone. The debate ended with two members of the opposing factions having a fist encounter.
Mr. Bredin Hall, who sides with the rector, struck J. A. Patten, of the opposition, a severe blow in the face on being called a liar by the latter. This collision took place in the court room after the adjournment and in the presence of the commission and the attorneys.

Asylum Atoms.

Government Inspector Tully inspected the asylum yesterday.A few days ago a couple of the male patients escaped and hired out with a farmer a few miles north of this city. The farmer soon became aware of queer actions on the part of his newly hired men, and becoming suspicious, informed the asylum authorities. When the attendants arrived to take them back, one of the men attempted to use a pitchfork, but was restrained.David J. Creighton, an attendant, had a narrow escape at the hands of a vicious patient the other day, and he is now on leave of absence with friends in Woodstock while his head assumes a normal condition. He was working with a patient named Burke, who was sent in from near Windsor several years ago. Without warning Burke struck Creighton on the head with a heavy chain he was handling.
Creighton's head was badly cut and bruised, and he had a fierce tussle with his man.

Seventy-Nine Dollars a Week.

The Free Press insists that there is nothing inconsistent in Alf. McCoubrey being city assessor and paid secretary of the Conservative Association at the same time. To fortify this view, the simple reference to which it characterizes as "A scurrilous attack," the Free Press says that Alf. Mc-Coubrey "was employed on the assessment commissioner's staff for six weeks only." If the Free Press tells the truth, and the city auditors make correct returns of the salaries paid to the city officials, Assessor McCoubrey, "who has been employed for six weeks only," is the best paid civic official in London. On reference to the report of the auditors, dated 1st March, 1894, it is found that "A. McCoubrey, assessor," for his share in compiling the assessment roll recently completed, drew $475. The Free Press thus asserts that Assessor and Conservative Secretary McCoubrey pocketed an assessor's salary of $79 a week! Who authorized the payment?

London West's Affairs.

At the last regular meeting of the London West Council the auditors' report as presented was produced by the clerk, and before the order of the meeting was handed over to the finance committee. The auditors, treasurer and collector were also ordered to appear with their papers and books on Friday evening, when another meeting will be held and the audit completed.
Councillor Hamilton recommended that Mr.
Horn's account for $10.07 be paid. Mr.
Horn had supplied tile for a drain placed across Oak street last year, and there was some dispute whether this year's council was liable for the amount. The recommendation of the board of works will not be carried out, but the matter was sent back for further consideration.
Reeve Macdonald reported having arranged with the school board for a weekly meeting in the schoolhouse. The officials will be instructed to attend every Friday night from 7:30 to 9:30 till further notice. Mr.
A. Stinchcombe addressed the council on behalf of the real estate owners regarding the cattle bylaw, and the village constable was ordered to enforce the same. Mr.
John Hobbs complained of a number of large holes on Oxford street, caused by the removal of telegraph or telephone poles.
The council will attend to the matter. A number of accounts were passed, including one from Magee, McKillop & Murphy for $30 for drafting the bill for the consolidation of the debenture debt of the village.
All the members were present.

Burlington, was prevented from suiciding by Officer Birch this afternoon. She had removed some portions of her clothing, and was diving herself of other garments when the officer placed her under arrest.

A Wonderful Cure.

Mr. and Mrs. Chute, of Aylmer, desire that we should publish their testimonial and let other sufferers know what Williams' Royal Crown Remedy (Nature's Liquid) has done for Mr. Chute. He writes: "For ten years or more I have been a sufferer with dyspepsia, and doctors with six of the most skilled doctors in this part of the country with but little relief and no benefit in return for the very large doctors' bills that I paid. I tried almost every conceivable remedy, but all to no purpose, until April, 1893, when I took to myself a wife, and it so happened that three years previous to our marriage she had been in poor health, and used part of a bottle of Royal Crown Remedy, and, knowing of its excellent qualities, she purchased upon me to give it a trial. I purchased one bottle of the Remedy and Pills, and by the time I had then used my general health was much improved, and by the time I had taken three bottles I was restored to good health, and my neighbors say that I am looking better than I have done for years. I believe Royal Crown Remedy to be the best value for the money on earth, and am thankful yours, WILLIAM CHUTE."HARDWOOD

A Jealous Murderess.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., May 2.—Miss Viva Castle, the only daughter of Congressman J. N. Castle, of Stillwater, and a niece of J. R. Williams, of New York, was fatally shot last evening in a restaurant by a colored woman crazed with jealousy. Miss Castle was caught in a rain storm and sought shelter in the hotel. The wife of the restaurant-keeper thought she had come to meet her husband by appointment, and placing a revolver to the young lady's head fired a bullet into her brain. Miss Castle is a beautiful girl of 19 years, and well known in the best circles of society in Stillwater.

To the Head Camp, Canadian Woodmen of the World.Dear Sirs,—So recent has been my acquaintance with your fraternity, and that acquaintance so intimately associated with my husband's sad death, that it is somewhat difficult for me to express my feelings of gratitude toward you.For the short time my husband lived after becoming one of your order he was loud in his praises of your objects and aims; since his sudden death I have found that you live up to those high principles. I have felt your sympathy and know of your kind offer of assistance, and now I have to thank you for my infant daughter for the check for $2,000, being the amount of the insurance policy held by my late husband in your order. Hoping that your order may prosper as it deserves, I remain your well-wisher,
