Strafford, July 4.—During the raising of a large barn at R. Nicklin's, township of Mornington, at which about 100 men were engaged, an accident occurred which resulted in the death of one man and the injury of several others. Two beams had been raised and the third was about half way up, when it came back upon the men. In attempting to get out of the way William Glen, a young man about 25 years of age, stumbled over a stick of timber and before he could rise the beam fell upon him with such force as to burst open his abdomen, inflicting awful and fatal mjuries. GREEN GOODS MEN ARRESTED. Three of Them Captured by Officers at Van Buren, Mo.

St. Louis, Mo., July 4.—Three important arrests have been made by United States officers at Van Buren, Mo. The prisoners are William Chilton, John A. Chilton and Absalom Coleman. The offense charged is that of green goods game, whereby they are alleged to have netted $2,000 profit per month. The men were held in $2,000 bail each. Their plan of action was to advertise thus: "Counterfett money—none: $1 to $100 C. S. A. bills. Fine toned paper; perfect engravings. Parnone; $1 to $100 C. S. A. bills. Fino toned paper; perfect engravings. I'articulars, 4 cents." Correspondence being opened, would-be purchasers were, the officers allege, given to understand that the stuff offered for sale was easily shoved counterfeits, and the victim of course received Confederate bills. It is claimed by the men that they sold Conly onfederate bills, and pretended nothing else, while the officers assert that captured letters prove a clear green goods case. clear green goods case
