TERRIBLE CATASTROPHES

Many People Killed by a Landslide in Italy.
Forty Children Drowned by Breaking Through the Ice on the River Lis.

Holocaust at a Rehearsal of Christmas Exercises—Six Girls Burned to Death and Many Others Injured.

Rome, Dec. 23.—A terrible disaster took place yesterday afternoon at Amalfi, the popular tourist resort on the Gulf of Salerno.

About 2 o'clock an enormous rock, upon which stood the Cappuccini Hotel, slid bodily into the sea with a deafening roar and without a moment's warning, carrying with it the hotel, the old Cappuccin monastery below, the Hotel Santa Caterina and several villas.

Many people were buried in the debris, which crushed four vessels to the bottom of the sea, destroying their crews. The mass of earth which slipped was about 50,000 cubic yards.

The population is in a state of terror, fearing fresh calamities. Troops have arrived upon the scene and begun rescue work.

It is believed that the loss of life is heavy including a number of monks and the occupants of the hotel. As yet it is impossible to ascertain the exact number.

Amalfi is a small but lively town of 7,000 inhabitants situated at the entrance of a deep ravine, surrounded by imposing mountains and rocks of the most picturesque forms. The Cappuccin monastery was founded in 1213 by Cardinal Pietro Caiano for the Cistercians, but came into possession of the Capuchins in 1583. The building, which stood in the hollow of the great rock that precipitated from the top to a height of 230 feet, contained fine cloisters and a charming veranda, and offered magnificent points of view. The town is mentioned for the first time in the thirteenth century, when it enjoyed the protection of the Eastern Emperors. In the twelfth century the sea began gradually to undermine the lower portions, and a terrible inundation in 1343 proved still more disastrous.

Forty children were drowned. Brussels, Dec. 23.—Upwards of 40 school children were drowned yesterday afternoon in an ice accident at Freilighem, near the French frontier.

The school children of the district had been given a holiday with permission to play on the River Lys. When the meriment was at full height the ice broke suddenly and the children disappeared. A few were rescued half dead, but the majority were drowned.

Thirty-six bodies have been recovered, but others are still missing. The catastrophe spread consternation throughout the town, where nearly every family suffered loss.

SIX GIRLS BURNED TO DEATH. Quincy, Ill., Dec. 23.—Six little girls were burned to death, four probably fatally injured during the rehearsal of Christmas exercises of one of the classes at St. Francis school yesterday. There were fourteen little girls in the class, and they represented different characters. Two of them appeared as lambs, and wore white dresses. Their costumes were set on one caught fire from an open gas jet, and in an instant the whole ring of little ones were in flames. Sisters of the school ran to the rescue, and were badly burned. Six died at the scene, and four of the survivors will die.

The dead are: Mary Waverling, Alma Middendorf, Bertha Freund, Jose Rosberg, Miss Hickey and Irene Freuburg.

The badly injured are: Josephine Bone, Wilhelmina Kottendorf, Lena Zeiger, Laura Menka, Miss Soenbgen, Alvia Timpa, Josea O'Connell, Andrew Butkueben, Sister Ludwigus, Sister Rodolphia, Sister Theodeta, Sister Ephra.

FATALLY CRUSHED. St. Thomas, Dec. 23.—Joseph Gaudiche, employed at the M. C. shops, who was crushed against a wall by a box cart on Monday, died of his injuries yesterday. He was aged 50, and leaves a widow. Two brothers, James and Thomas, and two sisters, Mrs. Boynton and Mrs. McDonald, reside in Toronto.

THIS MINISTER HAD ITCHING PILES

Three Painful Surgical Operations Failed to Cure—Suffered for Twenty Years—Found Relief and Cure in Dr. Chase's Ointment.

Rev. J. A. Baldwin, Baptist minister, Arkona, Ont., writes: "I wish to say that I have been a great sufferer for over twenty years with itching piles, both external and internal. I have used a great number of remedies and undergone three very painful surgical operations, all without obtaining benefit."

"When I had given up in despair of ever being cured, I was told to try Dr. Chase's Ointment, and found relief at once. It took three boxes to entirely cure the pain and itching."

Dr. Chase's Ointment is a positive and guaranteed cure for piles. You can rely on it absolutely in every case. 50 cents a box, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

Mother's favorite remedy for croup, bronchitis, coughs and colds is Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine.

THERE is not a more dangerous class of disorders than those which affect the breathing organs. Nullify this danger with Dr. Thomas Electric Oil—a pulmonary acknowledged efficacy. It cures soreness and lameness when applied externally, as well as swollen neck and oriole in the head, and as an inward specific, possesses most substantial results.

We need to suffer that we may learn to pity.—London.

DINNER PILE.—Many persons suffer excruciating agony after partaking of a hearty dinner. The food partaken of is like a ball of lead upon the stomach, and instead of being a healing nutrient, becomes a poison to the system. Dr. Parmenter's Vegetable Pills are wonderful correctives of such troubles. They correct acidity, open the secretions, and convey the food partaken of into healthy nutriment. They are just the medicine to take if troubled with indigestion.

A Great Bulder.—The D. & L. Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil is a great bulder. It gives weight, adds healthy flesh, and overcomes any downward tendency of health. Davis & Lawrence Co., Ltd., makers.

FESTIVITIES IN THE SCHOOLS

Annual Christmas Entertainments by Public School Pupils.

Many of Them of a Patriotic Character—A Number of Presentations.

The pupils of the Simcoe street school held their annual Christmas exercises yesterday afternoon. The rooms were all tastefully decorated and presented a very attractive appearance. Excellent programmes were given in the different rooms.

Mr. Beal's and Miss Skelton's classes held their entertainment together in the kindergarten, and a very enjoyable time was spent. Those taking part were: Olive Avey, Robert Angus, Olive Sussex, three girls (dialogue), Mary Douglas, Tom Logan, Gordon Cottrell, Letta Lyons, Chester Smith, Sophie Jacobson and Dorothy Edge.

The pupils of Grade VI had the room tastefully decorated with flags and drawing done by the pupils. After a programme of songs and recitations a splendid feast of nut, candies, etc., was enjoyed by the pupils.

In room II, the following scholars contributed to the programme: Charlie Westman (chairman), Clara Newton, Lock Hrisco, Wilhelmina Sage, Neil McDonald, Eldridge Gale, Ethel Moore, Flossie Chatto, Beatrice Thorne, Lena Sweeney, Charlie Graham, Edna Lister, Johnstone Wilkins, Hilda Stephenson, Jennie Ingle, Minnie Short, Mabel McLeod and Edna Clappitt.

In room VIII, a concert was given by the children, after which oranges, candies and nuts were distributed. The following scholars contributed the programme: Maud Hill, Nellie Nixon, Annie Gartshore, George Wheatcroft, Vernon Davis, Fred Land, F. Denison, S. O'Neill, Mamie Weekes, Florence Weekes, Frank Denison was chairman, and several choruses were given by the class.

The programme in room 9 consisted of a number of choruses by the class and individual numbers by Bert Miller, Laura Ingle, Pearl Kermath and Laura Swayze, G. Hoskins and B. Foden, L. Ingles, J. Sweeney and T. Brown.

The National Anthem by the class brought the affair to a close. The pupils of Miss Fleming's class spent a very enjoyable time Thursday afternoon. A lengthy programme of songs, recitations and dialogues was carried out, after which the children disposed of a goodly quantity of candies, nuts and oranges. The room was appropriately decorated for the occasion with holly and blackboard drawings. Master Charles Wagoner made a very pleasant chairman during the afternoon.

In Grade 2 recitations were given by Edna Stephenson, Ruby Stephenson, Lily Hayes, George Long, Ivy Campbell, Frankie Roe, Ida Moore, John Greer, Fred Davis, Mabel Moorhouse, Sadie Barnes, Herbie Newton, Eddie Barrows, Russell Croden and Ernie Powell. These were interspersed with choruses by the class. Jessie Long gave a solo.

The children of Grade 1 held their Christmas concert Thursday. A programme was rendered consisting of recitations, solos and choruses by the class. The small performers had an appreciative audience in their friends and playmates. At the close of the concert oranges, nuts and candies were distributed to the children.

AT THE KINDERGARTEN. The children of Simcoe street kindergarten held their annual Christmas exercises Wednesday, before a large crowd of spectators. The performance consisted of songs and games, illustrating the Christmas thought, the Santa Claus chorus being especially well rendered, and "Soldiers of the Queen" recited with loud applause. But the climax was reached when a huge Christmas tree, decorated with chains, lanterns and presents, all the work of the children, was presented to view at the close of the programme. The children were allowed to present their beautiful gifts to the mothers; then each child was made happy by receiving a dainty present, and each was given a card and filled with popcorn and candy.

The proceedings closed with "God Save the Queen."

VICTORIA SCHOOL. Divisions VI and VII of the above school entertained a large number of parents and visitors from the following programmes: Class recitation, "Kris Kringle," five girls; dialogue, "Seven Little Sisters"; carol, seventh division; dialogue, "The Model Class," boys of the seventh division; recitation, "The Christmas Story," sixth and seventh divisions; dialogue, "The New St. Nicholas," sixth division; carol, "Christmas Bells," seventh division; dialogue, "The Christmas Story," sixth and seventh divisions. A feature of the entertainment was the presentation to Miss Maud M. Walsh of the beautiful Boyle medal, which is given each year to the scholar in each school who passes highest in the entrance examination.

In each of the rooms a musical entertainment, followed by a Christmas tree, was given, and the children went away with their pockets well filled with the sweet things that Christmas never fails to bring. In one of the rooms, instead of a Christmas tree, the children hung stockings about the room, and brought presents for one another to fill them.

Questions Answered.

NEGLIGENCE.—A spur of the railroad is in the middle of the street. A car to be loaded stood on this spur. A number of teams were driving up on the left-hand side of the street. A is following with the rest. B crossed the track and tried to crowd between the car and A, who told him that he was getting out of his proper place, but B said he was going to crowd in, and hit his (B's) horses with the whip. A's horses jumped and broke the wheel of B's wagon. Is A liable for damages? Ans.—Not upon the facts stated, which show that the damage was caused by B.

SIMCOE.—A makes a will, which says: "And, fourth, to divide and pay the residue of all my estate, share and share alike, unto my children," naming each child, "payment to be made by my executors as soon as they are in a position to do so." Before A's death two of his sons die, and each have a wife and children. In accordance with section 27 of the wills act, who will receive their share? Ans.—The widow and children of each son receive his share under section 36 of the act. One-third to widow and rest of share to children equally.

FALSE PRETENCE.—A came around lately with his team, gathering for his neighbor B, whom, he said, had the misfortune of having his house and barn burned, and that the family barely escaped in their night clothes. He would take most anything, grain, clothing or cash, and got a good load in this locality, and also some cash. Now, it seems that his whole story was a fabrication, and there was no buildings burned. Is B liable to be punished as a criminal? Ans.—Yes, if the facts are as stated, he may be convicted of obtaining property by false pretences, and liable to imprisonment not exceeding three years.

When Grip prevails, Cough Syrup, Emulsions, Inhalers and even Pills and Plasters are panned off as cures. But the true cure is "77" prepared by Dr. Humphreys in 1894 when Grip was raging and the people panicked by its fatality. "77" sprang into popularity dispersing the plague, restoring confidence and quieting the fears of the people.

Its popularity is ever extending until it is used in every family for Grip, Colds, Coughs, Sore Throat, Influenza and Catarrh and as a preventive for Pneumonia.
