TALES OF LONDON TOWN

MISSION MEETING.

A very successful meeting was held on Tuesday night last in the York Street Mission in the interests of the young peoples' forward movement for missions. Rev. A. Thomas gave an interesting address on the movement, and, assisted by Rev. S. Salton, of the Kensington Mission, he secured about $30 in promises on behalf of the forward movement. York Street League has never before been organized in behalf of this movement, and they have made a good beginning. INLAND REVENUE RETURNS.

The general store of Walter Mitchell, Port Stanley, was burglarized on Monday night, and between $90 and $100 in silver taken from the safe. The supposition is that the party or parties must have been in the store at the time of locking up for the night, as the doors were found locked next morning.

A heavy thunderstorm swept the northern part of Chatham on Sunday. The barns of Mr. Barker, on the ninth con-cession, were struck and burned, de-

RUMBALL-ROSS. Mr. John A. Rumball, eldest son of ex-Mayor Frederick G. Rumball, and Miss Bertha L. Ross, daughter of Mrs. James A. Ross, of this city, were Andrew's Presbyterian Church by the pastor, Rev. Robert Johnston, D.D. It was an extremely quiet wedding, at which only the members of families of the bride and groom and a few of their closest friends were present. There was neither bridesmaid nor groomsman. The bride wore her traveling dress, a pretty blue tailormade gown, with hat to match. Immediately after the wedding ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Rumball left on a trip wishes of all their many friends.

DR. McLAUCHLIN'S ELECTRIC BELT

It has restored health and strength to thousands of weak and impotent men. If used as I direct it is a positive cure and cannot fail.

Estella E. Gordon, Staples, Ont., writes: "I received the Belt all O.K., and am more than pleased with it. I think it is worth many times its price, as I have found it almost an instant cure. I have worn it less than one month."

Letters like this are in every mail. Ask them and be convinced. Mrs. John Whitefield, Columbus, Ont., says;—"To speak the truth. I cannot say too much for your Belt. It is the best remedy I have used since my health failed, and that is 32 years ago. All this time I have been spending money for drugs which did me no good. Since I got your Belt I have not taken one dose of medicine."

Ennis Chambers, Massey Station, Ont., writes:—"It is two months since I received your Belt and it is all right, and more than I expected. The nervousness is all gone and so is the tired feeling.
