

STANDARD WORLD

Company, Indianapolis.]

CHAPTER XXI.

At 8 o'clock of the following evening, that is to say, the 19th of September, Maurice mounted the Thalian Pass and left the kingdom in the valley behind him. He was weary, dusty, lame and out of humor; besides, he had a new weight on his conscience. The night before he had taken the life of a man. True, this had happened before, but always in warfare. He had killed in a moment of rage and chagrin a poor devil who was at most only a puppet. There was small credit in the performance. However, the rascal would have suffered death in any event, his act being one of high treason. In the long ride he had made up his mind to lock away forever the silly dream, the tender, futile, silly dream. All men die with secrets locked in their hearts; thus he, too, would die. His fancy leaped across the chasm of intervening years to the day of his death, and the thought was a happy one! He smiled sadly, as young men smile when they pity themselves. He knew that would never get over it-in a day. But tomorrow, or tomorow's tomor-

He took the pass' decline; the duchy spread away toward the south. A quarter of a mile below him he saw the barrack and the customs office which belonged to Madame the Duchess. The corporal inspected him "It is all right Monsieur Carewe," and his papers, spoke lowly to the customs inspector, who returned to his said the corporal; "I ought to recog-

"Ah, true. Her highness gives a grand ball at the chateau tonight. The court has arrived from Brunnstadt. Some will reside at the chateau, some at General Duckwitz's, others at the Countess Herzberg's."

'Has the duchess arrived at last, then?" was the cynical inquiry. "She will arrive this evening," answered the corporal, grinning. "A pleasant journey to you."

Maurice proceeded. "And that blockhead of an Englishman has not tumhead of an Englishman has not tumbled yet! The court here? A grand ball? What else can it mean but that Meders is colerating a victory to Madame is celebrating a victory to come? If the archbishop has those consols, she will wage war; and this s the prelude.' He jogged along. He had accomplished a third of the remaining distance, when he was challenged. The sentry came forward and scrutinized the rider.

in delighted tones. He touched his cap and fell back into the shadows. A mile farther, and the great chateau, scintillating with lights, loomed up against the yellow sky. He felt a thrill of excitement. Doubtless there would be some bright passages before the night drew to a close. He would make What would be Madame's future plans in regard to Fitzgerald? How would get him out of the way, now that had served her purpose? He

"The future promises much," he said, half aloud. "I am really glad that I came back."

out into the road. "O, it is Monsieur Carewe!" he cried. With a short laugh he disappeared.

of them." He was mystified. Shortly he came up in the patrol. The meet you. This is a pleasure indeed." speaker's face, and to his surprise be- end of over a half hour of hard work president; H. W. Brick, treasurer; held the baron whoe arm he had the Russian had secured he first honors on his horse again.

Bleiberg was known to us as early as men tried for a drag hold, but Hacken-We believed at one time that you | enschmidt forced the match, winning were not going to honor us with a in 22 minutes and 4 seconds with his second visit. Now to dress, both of half Nelson and body hold. us; at ten Madame the Duchess ar-rives with General Duckwitz and Colonel Mollendorf, who is no relation to the late Minister of Police in Blei-

Underneath all this Maurice discerned a shade of mockery, and it dis-

"Later, later!" cried the baron. "The The only clothes I have with me are on my back," said Maurice. "We shall arrange that. Your guard-hussar uniform has been reserved for you, at the suggestion of

And Maurice grew more and more disturbed. "Were they courteous to you on the

'Yes. But-"

"Patience! Here we are at the rear confine. Maurice snatched a glimpse of the front lawns and terraces. The trees and walls were hung with Chinese lanterns; gay uniforms and shimmering gowns flitted across his vision. Somewhere within the chateau an orchestra was playing the overture from "Linda di Chamounix." Indeed, with all these brave officers, old men in black bedecked with ribbons, handsome women in a brilliant sparkle of jewels, it had the semblance of a gay court. It was altogether a different crowd ever gathered to see a thorough, the stirring court. It was altogether a different scene from that which was called the ccurt of Bleiberg. There was no re-straint here; all was laughter, music, dancing and wines. The women were

The troopers dismounted in the court-"I'm a trifle too stiff to dance." Maurice innocently acknowledged. The baron laughed. "You will have take luck with me in the stablebarrack; the chateau is filled. rmory has been turned into a balloom, and the guard out of it." "Lead on!" said Maurice. At the entrance to the guardroom, which occupied the left wing of the stables, stood a lieutenant of the hussars.

"This is Monsieur Carewe," said the baron, "who will occupy a corner in the guardroom.' hand cavalierly; "happy to see you

Maurice entered, but not without suspicion. However, he was in a hurry [Copyrighted by the Bobbs-Merrill to mingle with the gay assembly in Company, Indianapolis.] doomed to proceed without the honor or the knowledge of his distinguished.

presence. Several troopers were lounging about. At the sight of the baron they rose.
"Messieurs," he said, "this is Mon-"Glad to see you!" they sang out in chorus. They bowed ironically.

Maurice gazed toward the door. As he did so four pairs of arms enveloped im, and before he could offer the slightest resistance, he was hand and foot, a scarf was tied over his mouth, and he was pushed most disrespectfully into a chair. The baron's mouth was twisted out of shape, and the troopers were smiling. "My faith; but this is the drollest affair I ever was in;" and the baron sat on the edge of the table and held his sides. "Monsieur Carewe! Ha! ha! You are a little too stiff to dance, eh? Shall I tender your excuses to the ledies? Ass! did you dream for a coment that such canaille as you, night show your countenance to any save the scullery maids? Too stiff to dance! Ye gods, but that was rich!

And you had the audacity to return I must go; the thing is killing He slipped off the table red in the face and choking. "The telegraph has its uses; it came ahead of you. We trembled for fear you would not come! make it droller in the telling."

forgive you the broken arm; this laugh and Maid of Barrie only went the first Maurice, white and furious, was positive that he never would laugh again. And the most painful thought was that his honesty had brought him to this pass-or, was it his curiosity? [To be Continued.]

DEFEATED JENKINS

Hackenschmidt in Two Straight Falls,

New York, May 4. - George Hackenaxation. How would they greet him? match for the world's catch-as-catchsive from the start, and threw Jen- prominent figures. kins with a half Nelson after 31 min-Maurice drew up. A sentry stepped what shorter, for Jenkins had weak-"Hang me," grumbled Maurice as he son and body hoid. Tim Hurst was Mr. Harley has the confidence and es- then had to wait half an hour for the went on, "these fellows have remark- referee. Before the match Frank Gotch, teem of all his players, and they are balance, was somewhat annoying to he would challenge the winner. leader ordered nim to dismount, an the ring shortly before 10 o'clock. The in this direction. order he obeyed willingly, for he was foreigner immediately placed Jenkins longing to stand again. He shook his legs, while the leader struck a match. knees inside of six minutes. In a rough Why, it is Monsieur Carewe!' he mix-up following, Jenkins lost one of getic, progressive men, who will look The play last evening was a splen-"Good! We are coming out to his shoes, and the referee allowed time after the executive end of the club. Lol did exhibition of fast and clean foot-broken a fortnight since. He climbed of the match. Jenkins appeared weak, but entered "I am glad you deem it a pleasure, for the second bout apparently in good form, and for the first few seconds had you imply, I should judge that you Hackenschmidt on the defensive. He ere expecting me."

was soon forced to the floor, however, and again took the defensive. Both 2 o'clock this afternoon," answered the schmidt threw his opponent away from the chateau before the ladies see you. his feet, and a moment later put Hack'Tis a gala night; we are all in our enschmidt to the mat and tried for best bib and tucker, as the English a harmon lock. Jehkins regained and the effect is very striking, indeed. The grandstand has been newly roofed and tucker, as the English a harmon lock. This feet, and a moment later put Hackone of the friends of both teams present.

The grandstand has been newly roofed and tucker, as the English a harmon lock. This feet, and a moment later put Hackone of the friends of both teams present. the chateau before the ladies see you. his feet, and a moment later put Hackbest bib and tucker, as the English a hammer lock. This failed and Hack-

WHITE AND BRITT

The international battle between "First, I should like to know-" he Jimmie Britt, of California, and Jabez White, l. f., White, of England, will be fought togates are but a dozen rods away. To night at San Francisco, So little is Murray, r. f., your room first; the rest will follow." known of White in this country, a com- Soffel, 2b., parison of his measurements with O'Brien, s. s., those of Britt, both authentic, will be Carr, 3b., of interest The figures follow: of interest. The figures follow:

Britt.		White.
ft. 6 in	Height	5 ft. 71/2 i
	Weight
6 inches	Reach	681/2 inche
4 inches	Chest (norma	1) 341/2 inche
61/2 inC	hest (expand	ed)371/2 i
3 in Ch	nest (contrac	ted) 341/2 i
	Neck
21/2 inches	Biceps	1234 inche
	Forearm
inches	Wrist	61/2 inche
94 inches	Waist	291/2 inche
	Thigh

SYSONBY AND RACE KING DIVIDE THE MONEY EVENLY

bred race in America was at Belmont Park today to witness the sensational stand. dancing and wines. The women were young, the men were young; old age stood at one side and looked on. And the charming Voiture-verse of a countess, Maurice was determined to seek her first of all. He vaguely wondered how Fitzgerald would carry himself throughout the ordeal.

The troopers dismounted in the courtrounced their satisfaction, with the was heavily played by the general pubresult as it stood, and the rich purse, lic at 4 to 1. These two carried the amounting to more than $14,000, was bulk of the wagers.

Race King was offered the public at long odds, and there were few who thought highly of the tiny colt's chances. The time of the race was disappointing, showing that the Belmont track is still Catalina, who dropped back, hopelessly "now" and colors of the race was disappointing.

ovening of the wonderful new racing stretch and directly toward the grandhe guardroom."

"Ah! Monsieur Carewe," waving his plant on the homestead on Long Island stand, Sysonby was seen to bear away and the fourteenth renewal of the Met- toward the outside rail, and at his side ropolitan handicap, more than 50,000 was race King.

people made the trip to Belmont Park.

The scene in the vast inclosures when thoroughbreds dashed along the rail. the handicap horses paraded was a First one brown muzzle showed in front memorable one. In the grandstand, and then the other as the racers capable of seating a city, not a vacant strained every fiber to gain an inch. chair was to be seen. On the broad Shaw and Smith were driving like expanse of lawn, starting from the mad, and their charges finished so

> Rivaling in its extent of patronage, in the gayety of the costumes, in the Epsom Downs, the opening of Belmont handicaps, and felt rewarded thereby, Park was a bewildering spectacle. even if not successful in backing the Added to the intense interest displayed in the new track, came the unexpected result in the Metropolitan Handicap, which never before has been marked by a dead heat. The enthus-iasm of the great crowd as the two highly trained thoroughbreds came tearing down the long stretch, nod for > nod was thrilling. Beldame, the champion filly of last year, that had been liberally applauded as she was led to the post in advance of the rest of the field, was

PHILLIPS WILL RIDE FOR SEAGRAM STABLE

Toronto, May 4. - The feature work at the Woodbine today was the trial of the Dyment and Hendrie platers. Will King and Maid of Barrie worked with Heather Jock and Lorne Reel, from the Hamilton lot. Will King beat the Hamilton horse all the way, going Men, guard him as your lives, while I report to Madame. I dare say she will distance was done in 2:24 pulled up. distance was done in 2:24 pulled up. The work was by no means as fast He stepped to the door, turned, looking into the prisoner's glaring eyes; he doubled up again. "We are quits; I King had lots at the end. Lorne Reel > to Wire In and War Whoop at his possible. farm in Oakville, Lady Lightfoot drop-

New York, May 4. - The greatest forgotten in the rush at the finish of crowd ever gathered to see a thorough-bred race in America was at Belmont voices lifted in a tumult of excited cheers as the horses passed the judges' divided.

Sysonby, for whom Mr. Keene last vear refused an offer of $100,000, was the favorite in the betting, his stable mate, Delhi, having been withdrawn.

Race King was offered the public at the post the favore the first quarter at the public at the "new" and slow.

Drawn by the dual attraction of the whirled around the bend into the homestead, and for a distance of near- closely to the ground that the judges ly an eighth of a mile, people were were unable to separate them.

packed together in one great black The shouling multitude, which had been stilled for an instant for the royal struggle, broke out in a cheer afresh as the cissors went up denoting a dead setting of the scene and every detail heat, for the crowd had witnessed of the surrounding a Derby day at something seldom seen in the big

> James D. Keene and O. L. Richards, owners of Sysonby and Race King, quickly settled the question of the dead neat by dividing the proceeds. Bets on the results were settled the same way, backers of both horses re-ceived half the total sum involved in heir wagers.

WASHINGTON ON TOP;

JOY AT THE CAPITAL Washington, May 4.-Joy that knows no bounds is rampant in the breasts of a large majority of the inhabitants of this burg, who are experiencing for the first time in fifteen years the extraordinary sensation of having the Washington baseball team occupy the highest position for two consecutive days in a major baseball league. For fear that the opportunity will not present itself again in a long while, a popular subscription was raised today to celebrate the return of the conquering heroes. A great throng of base said the corporal; "I ought to recognize the horse a mile away. You will repay me. How Madame the will repay me. How Madame the three-quarters of the journey.

Countess will laugh; And Duckwitz— Johnny Dyment has been after H. ball enthusiasts met the team at the determined the general will die of apoplexy! O, Phillips to ride for him this year, but pot this evening, and the players were but you are a sorry ass; and how neatly we have clipped your ears!" And into the corridor he went, still laughing, heartily and joyously, as if what had taken place was one of the finest jests in the world.

Mayrice white and furious was posi-The parade wound up at the Hotel Regent, where the players were banquetted farm in Oakville. Lady Lightfoot dropped the foal this morning. Mr. Giddings says it is one of the best lookers ever til after midnight. Officers of the club

TORONTO TO OPEN THE HOME GAMES FOR BARRACKS

Be the Opposing Team-The Line-Up.

Toronto, May 5.-The local Eastern The Bathurst Street Football Club schmidt won from Tom Jenkins, of League championship baseball season and the Wolseley Barracks team met furious love to the pretty countess; it would be something in the way of re-would be something in the world's catch-as-catch-would be something in the way of re-world's catch-as-catch-world be something in the way of re-world's catch-as-catch-world be something in the way of re-world's catch-as-catch-world be something in the way of re-world be something in the world's catch-as-catch-world be something in the way of re-world be something in the world be something in the worl teams will battle for the supremacy. can championship, at Madison Square The game will begin at 3:45 o'clock, Garden, in two straight falls. In the with appropriate ceremonies, in which finish was 3 to 1 in favor of the Barfirst bout the Russian took the aggres- Premier Whitney will be one of the racks. During the last part of the the struggle commences. Toronto team will be well managed manager a great success. The public,

Furthermore, the club this year has a them know that they are not the mainpoard of directors composed of success- stay of the sport. less Applegath, secretary, and M. W. clean baseball at Diamond Park, and who carried off the honors.

te assist Manager Harley in accomplishing that end. been erected all around the grounds, The center section of the stand will be reserved for ladies and their escorts, and smoking will not be allowed in that levelity.

After Mr. Whitney makes his speech and demonstrates his ability in handling high balls, different from the TO MEET TONIGHT Belleville variety, the game will be called by Umpire Jack Egan, and the teams will line up as follows: Toronto is THE RING.

Rochester. O'Brien, s. s. Manning, 1. f., Smith, 2b., Yancey, c. f., Carey, 1b., Kennedy, 3b., Steelman, c., Currie, p. Cleary, p.

BURNS AFTER BARRY.

Tacoma, Wash. May 4. — Tommy chased from Travis the trotter, Dr. Burns, the former Detroit boxer. Strong.

rutinized the rider. "O, it is Monsieur Carewe!" he cried Tom Went Down Before Rochester's Aggregation Will Soldiers' Football Team Scores Another in a Fast, Clean Game of Football.

was called at 6:45, and the score at the game it was almost impossible to see street parade in carriages, so that the utes and 15 seconds of hard wrestling. natives may have a view of the play- all teams, if the members would be The second and last bout was some- ers and officials at close range before on the grounds on time, and thus have the game started at a proper hour. ened, and Hackenschmidt won in 22 by "Dick" Harley, himself as fine a player as ever stepped on a ball field. The fact that eight members were out to the grounds last night on time and memories. I can't recollect any of Iowa, appeared and announced that determined to make his first year as a the spectators particularly. Managers and 1,505. Hackenschmidt and Jenkins entered no doubt will appreciate their efforts of teams would do well to lay off the late comers for a few games and let ried. "Good: We are coming out to this shoes, and the fetters and the fetters and the fetters are the executive end of the shape to continue the match. At the Maurice gazed keenly into the shape to continue the match. At the Seitz, president; J. J. McCaffery, vice play. The Barracks team was capplay. tained by Wallace; the Bathurst team Baxter and "Pop" Burger, directors. by Brown. Owing to the splendid work Their intention is to give Toronto good on both sides, it would be hard to say

Mr. Frank Hoover acted as time-Visitors to the grounds today will keeper, and Sergt. Millie was referee. hardly recognize the playing field. Mr. J. W. Couse, of the London team, Towering, twenty-foot fences have was an interested spectator. There were a large number of other civilian This makes the sixth consecutive win for the Barracks team this year. The

TURFMEN HEAVILY FINED BY BOARD OF REVIEW

New York, May 4. - E. E. Smathers. of New York, was fined $250 and Z.
K. Travis, of Toledo, was fined $100 today by the board of review of the National Trotting Association. The penalties were imposed in connection with the case against George Hoyt, of At Lexington—Curlie Ji Binghamton, N. Y., presiding judge, and Homer J. Kline, of Lexington, Ky., and Howland Russell, of Boston. judges, which was also considered today, and dismissed. The case grows out of the Massachusetts stake race known in the east as Noah Brusso. The board gave out a statement in J. Kerr and Mrs. Dr. Lindsay, Strathwon the middleweight champion- which it was declared that the sale roy; honorary president, James Cam-

SATURDAY AS USUAL WILL BE

A DAY OF RARE BARGAINS!

Women's Spring Jackets.

Five dollars is a very moderate price to pay for a smart, spring Jacket-$7.50, $8.50 and $9.00 are the regular values of these we are talking about. Black and Fawn English Cloth, leg-o'-mutton sleeves, tight back, semi-box front.....

Light colors, all sizes.

Friday and Saturday, one table Women's Women's Summer Wrappers, made of Smart Tweed Walking Costumes that washable percale in navies, grays and are marked regular $10.50. $6.50 all colors; skirt has flounce; waist is lined. Made for the season. lined. Made for the season. 75c Special Tan and Embroidered Hose.

We hurried a delivery of Tan and Embroidered Hose here for Saturday's selling. Although a small one it will supply those who have been patiently waiting for them.

Embroidered Black Cashmere Hose, red Fine Tan Lisle Hose, lace from top to white, yellow and mauve, self-embroidered. bottom. A limited quantity.

25c pair.

50c pair.

15c Wash Goods Going With a Rush.

These American Wash Goods have the style and it didn't take long for our women customers to find them out and realize that at 15c a yard they are a Chapman snap. Forty different styles worth 25c and 30c yard. Ask for Toile de Laine at 15c yard.

At Buffalo-

At Jersey City-

At Rochester-

Buffalo

Park.

EASTERN STANDING.

THE MEMPHIS MEET.

Memphis, May 4.—The Western Jocup purses to the amount of $750. The rons and patronesses, J. Kerr and Mrs.

J. Kerr and Mrs. Dr. Lindsay, Strath-

LAWN BOWLING.

Reduced to.....

A Parasol To Match Your Costume.

THAT'S WHAT FASHION DEMANDS FOR SMART DRESSERS.

A complete assortment of plain and fancy Coaching Parasols, with and without borders-the border is very fashionable-all colors to choose from. Choose early.

Prices: $1.75 to $6.75.

Men's "Ironclad" Overalls

"Ironclad" Overalls stand on the market without a peer. They're as strong as the name implies. Made of durable blue and black denim, double-faced and double-stitched. All sizes, at $1.00 pair.

J. H. Chapman @ Co.,

126, 128, 128½ DUNDAS STREET. Terms Cash.

Phone 791.

YESTERDAY'S SCORES IN THE MAJOR LEAGUES HOW THE CLUBS NOW STAND.

THE EASTERN. Montreal .259 Chicago R. H. E. Providence 2 .250 Philadelphia New York St. Louis Attendance, 3,227.

At Baltimore—
Baltimore— THE AMERICAN. and Jacklitsch. Umpire, Moran. Attendance, 1,982.

At Cleveland—
C At Chicago-Sullivan. Umpires, Kelly and McCarthy. Attendance, 3,973. At Philadelphiaand Grady. Umpire, Klem. Attendance, pires. Hassett and Conway. Waddell and Schreckengost, Connolly. Attendance, 4,654. Rochester0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 8 At Detroit-NATIONAL STANDING. Detroit20200000*-4 5

Won. Lost. tendance, 2,500. AMERICAN STANDING. Baltimore Won. Lost. P.C. Brooklyn Washington Jersey City 4 .500 Cleveland 8 THE TURF.

key Club have decided to conduct a race meet in Memphis, to commence

MacKay, A. McDermand, Dr. Wilkinson, Rob Jackson, W. B. S. Craig and the day after the St. Louis season closes. Definite announcement of plans W. J. Clarke. will be made after the meeting of the Western Jockey Club stewards in Chi- BASEBALL. cago on Tuesday. The meeting, or a portion of it, will be held at Billings TORONTO GETS CRYSTALL. Toronto, May 4. — Manager Dick Harley, of the Toronto Ball Club, wired resident Seitz this morning that he SARNIA RACES MAY 24. had signed Pitcher Bill Crystall, Cry-Sarnia, May 4.-The Sarnia Driving stall, who is a left-hander, was held Club have decided to hold a one-day by Toledo last year, but jumped to race meet on the 24th, and will hang programme will consist of the followwould not release him. ing events: 2:12 class, purse $200; 2:17 trot and 2:22 pace, purse $175; 2:24 trot CHANGED NAME. and 2:29 pace, purse $175; running The Riversides of the Junior City races, 5-8 mile, purse $100; 3-4 mile, League will hereafter be known as the Blue Label Juniors. purse $100. YESTERDAY'S WINNERS. WILL PREVENT SUNDAY BALL. At New York-Blandy, 7 to 1; Veron-Kalamazoo, Mich., May 4.-Prosecutese, 12 to 1; First Water, 9 to 10; Sying Attorney Jackson tonight ansonby, 2 to 1; Good and Plenty, 7 to nounced that no Sunday baseball would be played in Kalamazoo or in this At Lexington-Curlie Jim, 6 to 1; county this summer. He has instruct-Raindance, 2 to 1; The Thrall, 3 to 1; ed the sheriff that the law must be Cappamore, 2 to 1; Youth 1 to 4; Oroenforced. The first game was scheduled for next Sunday. The management announces that the game will be played and the players will stand trial, and the PETROLEA'S OFFICERS. case will be made a test one. It will Petrolea, May 4. — The Petrolea Lawn Bowling Club has elected the following officers for the year: Patbe taken to the supreme court, if necessary. METHODIST LEAGUE'S OFFICERS. At a meeting of the Methodist Baseball League held last night in the Y.

Burlington. Toronto tried to get him from Toledo this spring, but Toledo

tee, H. Barrington, W. J. Clarke, Wil- | morrow evening, at the Y. M. C. A., liam Caldwell, R. Vansickle; skips, I.
Greenizen, W. F. Cooper, W. L. McKenzie, B. P. Corey, J. Hutchcroft, William Dunlop, J. C. Waddell, Thomas
William Dunlop, J. C. Waddell, Thomas to complete arrangements for opening TOMORROW'S GAME.

Won, Lost.

Following is the line-up for the Perrin-McClary game tomorrow: Perrins -Catcher, Summers, pitcher, Clarke or Bennett; second base, Perkins; left field, Gregory; third base, White; center field, Wood; first base, Taylor; right field, Jeffrey; shortstop, Dunn; substitute, Johnstone.

McClarys-Baul, shortstop; Jackson, second base; Hutchinson, first base; Early, right field; Steele, catcher; Breen, third base; Collins, center field; Eccleson, left field; Phillips, pitcher; Lindsay, substitute.

FOOTBALL.

LONDON'S TEAM. The London team chosen for the opening game of the season at Wood-Goal-Dunlevy.

Half Backs-Daly, Gregory and Campbell. Forwards - Garrett, Aikenhead, Brown, Gilbert and Crisp.

BAYFIELD WON.

LUCKY GUS GARDNER.

Bay City, Mich., May 4.-Jack Doug-

Cincinnati

.588 St. Louis571 Boston

stock is as follows: Backs-Wallace and Bryant.

Spare-Hague. The train leaves the G. T. R. depot at 4:15 o'clock. The recent game between Bayfield and Hensall was won by Bayfield (not Hensall), by a score of 2 to 0.

"Patience! Here we are at the rear gates."

"Patience! Here we are at the rear gates swung open, and the little troop passed into the chateau state of the little troop passed into the chateau state of the little troop passed into the chateau state of the little troop passed into the chateau state of the little troop passed into the chateau state of the last night in the roar last night in the following officers were last night in the roar last night in the roar last night in the following officers were last night in the first norm. It is discovered in the roar last night in the first norm. It is discovered in the roar last night in the