Practical Problems To Be Discussed by Emergency Corps Tuesday

Evening. How women may help to win the war and how women may help to shorten the war are two subjects upon which valuable information will be given at the grand patriotic rally to be held in the Masonic Temple, Tuesday evening, July 11, at 8:15 o'clock, under the auspices of the Women's Emergency Corps of No. 1 Military District. Owing to the interest in the Women's Emergency Corps movement, which has been aroused throughout Western Ontario, and the prominence of the speakers who have been secured, it is expected a number will come from outside points for the meeting. Those who are desirous of having a part in the big demonstration of patriotism are advised to be at the hall early and obtain places. The speakers of the evening are Lieut.-Col. Mulloy, blind veteran of the South African war, a professor in the R. M.
