

O. H. A. ADVISES LOCAL JUNIOR TEAMS TO GET TOGETHER

NOT IN FAVOR OF TWO TEAMS FOR LONDON

Representatives of Both Alerts and Mannhattans State Their Side of Case at Special Meeting.

TORONTO, Nov. 19.—At a special meeting of the O. H. A. executive held tonight, representatives of the Mannhattans and Alerts of London, Ontario, both of whom are placing junior teams in the O. H. A. series this year, were requested that an attempt be made to get together one good junior team.

The above dispatch is rather inadequate, but apparently the O. H. A. executive would rather see one good team in London than two poor ones. The delegates from the Alerts were Jack Greer, George Arthur and Stan. Reid, and from the Mannhattans, Tommy Laro.

Next week should see the air cleared, some definite way by both clubs. If the clubs cannot get together, there is much left but for one to drop out of the running. If, however, both decided to run teams, the O. H. A. would be powerless to intervene in any way, is thought in informed circles about town.

Without the executive got to the bottom of the controversy last night, but settled matters in a rather hasty manner rather than attempt any action.

STRATFORD 11 DEFENDS HOUGH TROPHY TODAY

STRATFORD, Nov. 18.—Saturday the Hough Cup football team of the local college is to meet the Listowel aggregation at the flats to decide who will hold the cup for the year. Stratford has had the cup for some time, but they will face a team Saturday, which will be their very best to take the cup from the Classic City.

The visitors come here with a three-goal lead, and this alone will be hard to overcome, although all the players are in the best of condition.

See that Collar that's what holds THIS original holder device has been imitated, but never equalled.

Re-Locks for this box have firm, threaded, metal collars that can't shrink—can't swell—screw tight—hold well.

The big, wonderful and thoroughly efficient latter—latter that "stand and work"—has never been equalled. It is latter for the skin as well as for the beard.

Why the hurry? Have you a dinner engagement? That is probably the extent of the wisdom that the catcher slips to the faltering pitcher. A few innings later the shortstop and third baseman suddenly halt the game and walk over to the pitcher's box for a conference. Perhaps the pitcher has developed a sudden streak of wildness, and the two infielders hope that a delay will give him a chance to regain his poise.

"I wonder what they are saying?" Fandom is always curious when there is a conference on the field. They feel that some strategy is being concocted, and they would like to be in on the know.

"Looks to me as if you are quitting," says the shortstop.

"If I had as much stuff as you, this chump would be made to make a foul," adds the third sacker.

That is about the extent of a lot of the so-called inside stuff. There are, however, two reasons for the confab. First, the hope that the delay will give the pitcher a chance to steady himself; second, the hope that the sarcastic comment will make the pitcher fight back.

Whenever I hear the expression "inside stuff," I recall an incident of several years ago at Washington. I was umpir-

LOTS OF "INSIDE STUFF" ON DIAMOND? OH, YES!

"SOME more inside stuff."

That is the thought of fandom as the catcher stops the game and walks out to confer with the pitcher.
