TENDERS LUNCHEON TO ALBERTA GIRLS

Municipal Chapter I. O. D. E. Pays Tribute To Basketball Champions.

"We want to thank the Daughters of the Empire for this entertainment today and others who have done so much on our behalf while we have been in London. We hope to take back to Edmonton with us the Dominion championship. At the same time we wish to assure you that the feelings of Westerners are most kindly towards the east, and we only hope the Shamrocks will some time pay us a return visit. We will be glad to welcome any of you at any time you choose to visit our 'wild and woolly' west."

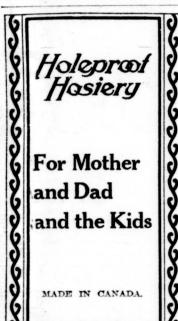

The speaker was Principal J. P. Page, coach of the Edmonton Commercial High School players, champions for Western Canada, and the occasion the luncheon tendered at the Hunt Club Wednesday afternoon by the Municipal Chapter, I. O. D. E., in compliment to he prairie visitors, and also the skilful young home players, the Sham-

While defeated by a big score in the first game Tuesday night, the Shamrocks were by no means downhearted. The friendly "come back" of Coach A. T. Taylor of the Shamrocks was: "After the ability demonstrated by the winning team Tuesday evening in the Armories, there isn't a doubt that wonderful basketball players, but we hope when we play by our own rules Thursday evening we will win the championship for London.

An evidence of the splendid camaraderie existing between the two eams, the good sportsmanship of the players, was the fact that both after luncheon speeches received equally warm applause.

Want Every Woman a League Member.

UNDER the leadership of Miss Dorothy McCann, first vice-president, the London Catholic Women's League will conduct a big drive for members on Sunday, May 28, dividing the parishes into districts and giving each member a list of families to call upon in an effort to enroll every Catholic woman as a member of the league.

the Municipal Chapter felt it an honor as well as a great pleasure to entertain visitors from the Western mediate relatives of the young couple Provinces, and especially a group so distinguished in the field of sport. Appreciation was also expressed of the credit the Shamrocks have brought upon their home city. Miss Winnifred Martin, captain of the Edmonton team, spoke briefly.

An open fire was a welcome touch hospitality on the damp day, although the view from the windows and veranda was one of early summer loveliness. The table decorations evoked exclamations of delight from the Edmonton girls, branches of apple blossoms at their very best filling a large silver loving cup in the center, and rayed out from it over the cloth, with clusters of lilacs scattered between.

Covers were laid for 26, including the hostesses, the Edmonton players, Misses Winnifred Martin (captain) Dorothy and Daisy Johnson, Nellie Perry, Constance Smith, Eleanor Mountifield; Misses Carrie and Pearl Blackwell, Helen Woolley, Mary Lindsay, Edna Holland, Lottle Garrett, Kathleen Stewart, Kathleen McAvoy of the Shamrocks; Mrs. A. E. Ferte, Toronto, who is visiting Mrs. McKillop: Misses Taylor and Armstrong, and Messrs. J. P. Page, A. T. Taylor, Jack Marshall (Edmonton) W. Smallman, E. Irwin and G. Mc-

A NEW BROWN FYES

Dear Miss Grey,-I am going to ask for some help. Would any of the Boxites send me any crochet patterns of caps or bags or lace for pillow cases? I would like to correspond with Dad's Brown-Eved Housekeeper if she would write first, or any other friend about 13 or 14. I came fourth at school. I go to the Wortley Road School. My address will be with Miss Grey if any of the Boxites would like to write to me. I hope next time I can help somebody. I am going to send a few small envelopes for the M. B. to put flower seeds in.
