HERMINE THINKS
WILSON PICTURED WORLD ROSY HUED

Ex-Kaiser's Bride Says U. S.
Ex-President Moved by Idealistic Motives.

FREE FROM ILLUSION

Princess Declares Former German Royal Family Financially Embarrassed.

By FERDINAND JAHN.
Special Cable to The London Advertiser and The Philadelphia Public Ledger.
Doorn, March 21. — "What I reproach your former President Wilson for the most is that he saw the world through rose-colored spectacles." With this succulent comment, the Princess Hermine, bride of the ex-kaiser, who was granting me the only interview she has accorded since her marriage, summarized her impressions of America's war-time president based upon her reading.
Contrary to most of her countrymen, the princess did admit the belief that Woodrow Wilson had idealistic motives. "But he did not hold it necessary to seek, even from neutrals, a picture of actual conditions in Germany."

Victim of Propaganda.
Wilson, therefore, Hermine continued, "was a victim of Entente propaganda, not entirely without fault on his own part."
Regarding Germany's immediate future—and in this connection the ex-emperor agrees with his bride—the princess is free from every illusion. As I pointed out to her the national spirit sweeping Germany as a result of the Ruhr occupation she sighed. "I'm pessimistic," and switched the conversation to personal affairs.

Apocryph of the crown prince, who on Christmas and his father's birthday came to Doorn and who is expected here at Easter, Hermine called attention to his unenviable lot—banishment to Wieringen.
"In this he resembles his father," the princess said. "Both possess unusual energy and don't permit themselves to be crushed by exile." She told how the island home of the crown prince once was isolated by ice from all communication with the mainland, the population, including the prince, was gradually approaching starvation and aeroplanes were being made to transport food.
Just as the Dutch government was about to undertake this rescue mission a thaw came, breaking the ice.
That the ex-kaiser is living in no superfluity, but on the contrary modestly, could be seen in his bride's remarks about the growing hard times in Germany, with consequent flood of appeals for help.
"Unfortunately it has been impossible to meet all requests," Hermine said. "Suppliants who ask for ten or twenty guilders—four or eight dollars—and think they are quite modest, do not understand our situation.
That is for us a considerable sum of money."

Must Live Modestly.
The court chamberlain later explained to me how in Doorn one must "cut the cloth closely," especially as long as negotiations between crown and state regarding division of the emperor's fortune continue. They must live modestly here. When guests are invited the dinner consists of soup and entree, meat and dessert.
For their own meals the ex-kaiser and kaiserin have one meat and fruit.
Friday's menu, for instance, consisted of thick soup, baked sole, cake.
This was considered a great feast.
The court chamberlain assured me that talk of any difference within the Hohenzollern household—hidden away from the usual world byways—was the purest fantasy of fevered journalistic minds. The villagers—they are not entirely without prejudice, and surely willing to gossip—say that what they have seen of the couple bears out the statement that Wilhelm and his bride are real honey-moons.

AWARD SCHOOL CONTRACT.
Special to The Advertiser.
Waterloo, March 20.—Announcement was made today by the chairman of the separate school board that the contract for erection of the new addition to the Waterloo separate school has been awarded to Elliot Bros., local contractors. The new building will cost $63,000, according to the bid of the successful tender.

BODY OF WINNIPEG BOY FOUND IN ASSINIBOINE
Canadian Press Despatch.
Winnipeg, March 20.—The body of Harvey Simpson, aged 5, was taken from the Assiniboine River today.
Harvey and his chum, Sidney Morris, disappeared eleven days ago after they had gone to play, and when an exhaustive search had failed to reveal their whereabouts it was taken for granted that they had been drowned.
