News-Gathering Association Is

Share Capital.

NAME EXECUTIVE

Gathering At Toronto Unanimously Re-elects E. Smith As President.

Canadian Press Despatch.
Toronto May 2.—So far as name goes, Canadian Press Limited went out of existence yesterday, its place being taken by The Canadian Press.
The change in name of the co-operative, news-gathering association of the daily newspapers of Canada was authorized at the annual meeting of the association, following the passing by parliament of a special bill which changes the status of the association from that of a company without share capital, to a corporation without share capital, but otherwise the functions of the association remain unchanged.

Shows Improvement.
In his annual address the president, E. Norman Smith, dwelt on the general improvement in news service, particularly in the cable service, inaugurated about a year ago by an agreement with Reuters of London, and supplementary to the cable reports of the Associated Press, which the Canadian Press carries from New York. The president also made reference to the essentially non-partisan and unbiased character of the political reports carried by The Canadian Press, from Ottawa and elsewhere.

The management presented a very satisfactory financial report for the year, showing that the association is on a very sound basis. Officers and directors elected are as follows:

President, E. Norman Smith, Ottawa Journal; first vice-president, E.
H. Macklin, Manitoba Press; second vice-president, G. Fred Pearson, Halifax Chronicle; directors,

Nichols, Winnipeg Tribune; Burford Hooke, Regina Leader; J. H. Woods, Calgary Herald; and Charles Swain, Victoria Colonist.

J. P. B. Livesey, general manager, is also secretary.

Other members present were:
C. L. Sibley, Montreal Herald; E.
G. Smith, Quebec Telegraph; Arthur Penny, Quebec Chronicle; George Pelletier, Montreal Le Devoir; Oswald Mayrand, Montreal La Presse; G. A. Disher, Ottawa Citizen; Joseph Goulet, Ottawa Le Droit; Stewart
Lyon, Toronto Globe; John M. Imrie, Toronto Mail and Empire; C. O.
Knowles, Hamilton Spectator; W. B.
Burrows, St. Catharines Standard; W. J. Moir, Kitchener News-Record; Arthur Ford and Charles Thomas, London Free Press; Vernon Knowles, Winnipeg Tribune; John M. Imrie, Edmonton Journal; F. J. Burd, Vancouver Province; B. C. Nicholas, Victoria Times.

Thank President.

A feature of the annual meeting was the unanimous vote of thanks to the president, E. Norman Smith, for the unselfish and untiring work he has done for the association during the past three years. This was coupled with the request that he continue in the presidency for the ensuing year.

Thanks was also expressed to the first vice-president, E. H. Macklin, of Winnipeg, and the second vice-president, G. Fred Pearson, of Hal-fax, N. S.

How To Reel Off An Unlovely Complexion

The face which is admired for beauty must have a satin-smooth skin, pink and white and youthful looking.
The only thing known that can make such a complexion out of an aged, faded, or discolored one—a natural, not a painted, complexion—is ordinary mer-curized wax. This remarkable substance literally absorbs the unlovely cuticle, a little each day, the clear, healthy, girlish skin beneath gradually peeping out until within a week or so it is wholly in evidence. Of course patches, liver spots and pimples are discarded with the old skin. If you will procure an ounce of mercurized wax at the drug store, use like cold cream at night, washing this off morning, the results will astonish you—

ICE DEFERS DEPARTURE OF STEAMER HURONIC

Special to The Advertiser.
Sarnia, May 2.—Fully loaded with freight for western lake ports, the steamer Huronic, of the Northern Navigation Company, due to lift her beyond Detroit at western inlet to Lake Huron, owing to ice.

Word has been received here that two ice-breakers have succeeded in breaking through as far as the Soo, but could not get through the locks.

river will probably continue to De-tion will be suspended for probably two days. The Hamonic returns
