

Fashions and Personals

SOCIETIES and THE HOME

Theatres and Concerts

Weddings of the Month

BURKE-BLUE.

Highgate, July 2.—A pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Blue, Talbot street, Orford, on Saturday, when their only daughter, Minnie Bonetta, was united in marriage to Mr. Reginald Alexander Burke of Halesbury, Ont., son of Mr. Alexander Burke of Highgate.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. F. Kennedy of Morpeth in the presence of the immediate relatives of the bride and groom.

The bride, who was given away by her father, appeared at the strains of the Lohengrin wedding march played by Mrs. H. A. Cooper, sister of the groom. During the signing of the register, Mr. H. A. Cooper rendered a solo, after which the guests, numbering 16, sat down to wedding dinner.

Among the bride's gifts was a substantial check from her father. Mr. and Mrs. Burke left early in the afternoon by motor car for St. Thomas and Toronto. They will reside in Halesbury, Ont.

McCAMUS-BANKES.

One of the prettiest of June weddings was solemnized at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Emily Bankes, Dorchester, when Evelyn Ellinor Bankes became the bride of Lawrence David McCamus, principal of the new Trafalgar street school. The groom's father, Rev. D. M. McCamus of London, performed the ceremony, assisted by Rev. S. J. Thompson of Dorchester.

Promptly at 2:45 o'clock the bride entered the prettily-decorated drawing-room on the arm of her brother-in-law, Mr. Lloyd Buckenrough of Toronto, bearing with them the bride's wedding march played by Mr. Ford Gould, Dorchester. The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. L. Buckenrough, and the groom by his brother, Mr. W. R. McCamus, Brantford. During the signing of the register, Mrs. R. A. Logan, Dorchester, sang "The Crown."

After a very happy informal reception and wedding breakfast, Mr. and Mrs. McCamus left by train to spend the summer in Eastern Ontario, bearing with them the warmest congratulations of their many friends.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Buckenrough, J. A. McCamus, and Miss M. K. McCamus, Toronto; Rev. D. N. and Mrs. McCamus, Miss H. McCamus, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. McCamus, Brantford, Mr. and Mrs. James Campbell, Inspector S. T. Baker, London; Mr. W. R. McCamus, Brantford; a number of Dorchester friends, including Mr. and Mrs. W. Logan, Mr. Ford Gould, Rev. S. J. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Shiel, Mr. D. J. Campbell, Miss Christine Dean, Mrs. Daw. Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Logan, and the Misses Evelyn Moxey, Gretta Sill, Agnes Hestington, Muriel Dean and Thelma Logan.

GREENE-BALL.

A charming wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Ball, Elake street, Stratford, on Wednesday last, when their only daughter, Doris, was married to Mr. W. E. Greene, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Greene of William street, this city. The bride looked charming in a gown of ivory crepe with veil and orange blossoms, and carried a shower bouquet of Ophelia roses. She wore the groom's gift, a lovely string of pearls. Miss Margaret Roe of this city, niece of the groom, made a pretty bridesmaid, wearing a dress of white satin and carrying a lovely bouquet of roses. Mr. George Emley acted as groomsmen.

The house was lovely with roses and carnations. Mrs. Ball, mother of the bride, wore a lovely gown of black satin and carried a bouquet of roses and sweet peas. Mrs. Greene, mother of the groom, was gowned in black tulle with jet ornaments.

Don't Squeeze Black-Heads—Dissolve Them

Squeezing and pinching out blackheads make the pores large and cause irritation. Blackheads are caused by accumulations of dirt and secretions from the skin, and there is only one safe and sure way and one that never fails to get rid of them—a simple way, too—that is to dissolve them. Just get from any drug store about two ounces of peroxide powder—sprinkle a little on a hot, wet cloth—rub over the blackheads briskly for a few seconds—wash off and you'll be surprised to see that every blackhead has disappeared, and the skin will be left soft and the pores in their natural condition.

Would Have Given $100
For One Night's Sleep

"Before I got Tanlac, I often said I would give a hundred dollars to get a good night's sleep, but now I sleep like a child every night and feel so well it doesn't seem like I am the same person," said Mrs. Annie Stillson, highly-esteemed resident of 263 Simcoe street, London, Ont.

"I suffered for years from nervousness and stomach trouble. My appetite had all but left me, and what I ate hurt me so bad that I actually dreaded to sit down to the table. My nerves were so unstrung I could hardly sleep at all, and I was so weak and trimmings, and wore a corsage of roses. After a wedding breakfast Mr. and Mrs. Greene left amid showers of confetti and good wishes for points east, and on their return will reside in this city.

The groom's gift to the bride was a handsome brilliant barpin, and to the groomsmen a gold stickpin. Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Greene, Mr. T. Ball, Mrs. T. Roe of London, and Mr. and Mrs. C. Broadley of Windsor.

GEOGHEGAN-HAMILTON.

Listowel, July 2.—At high noon Saturday Margery, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Hamilton, was united in marriage to Mr. John Geoghegan of Elma. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Nicol of Knox Church, at the home of the bride's parents on the Mitchell gravel road.

The bride's wedding gown was of white duchess satin and she wore an embroidered net veil with pearl-trimmed cap. After the ceremony, which took place under a beautiful floral arch on the lawn, the young couple received the best wishes of the guests. During the signing of the register, Miss Adam Hamilton sang "O Promise Me."

A buffet luncheon was served by a number of the bride's girl friends, including Miss M. Sproule, Miss G. Cowan, Miss Twamley, Miss M. McKeever, Miss V. Hamilton and Miss R. Shearer.

Mr. and Mrs. Geoghegan left on the afternoon train for Toronto. The going away costume was a smart electric blue crepe frock with a cocoa marvellous wrap, with hat, gloves, hose and shoes to match. After their honeymoon the happy couple will reside in Smithville.

BANKES-DICKSON.

Hyatt Avenue Methodist Church was the scene of a pretty summer wedding Saturday afternoon, when Norma Isabel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dickson, Dreaney avenue, was married to Harold Francis Bankes, also of London, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Bankes, Brantford.

Rev. B. Johnston McCormick performed the ceremony. Promptly at 3:30 the bridal party entered the church, as Lohengrin's Bridal Chorus was played by J. H. C. Woodward. During the signing of the register, Miss Grace Crouse, wearing a pretty frock of lemon crepe, with a white hat, sang "Love's Coronation."

The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a lovely gown of sequins, over an underdress of ivory satin. Her veil of embroidered net, with a crown of orange blossoms. Her shower bouquet was of Ophelia roses. Miss Hazel Dickson was her sister's bridesmaid, and was gowned in pink and green crepe, with a white hat and white shoes, and a corsage of pink roses. Mr. Osborne Bankes, a brother of the groom, acted as best man, and the ushers were Messrs. A. Hodgins and George Bankes.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The bride's mother, who received with the young couple, wore a gown of midnight blue tulle with a black hat and a corsage of Sunsets roses. Mrs. Bankes also assisted in receiving, and was gowned in a gown of brown crepe, with a brown hat and a corsage of sweet peas. Mr. Evelyn Bankes, sister of the groom, wore a graceful gown of pink silk, with a sand hat, and Miss Gertrude Bankes was also gowned in pink.

Mr. and Mrs. Bankes will spend their honeymoon in Detroit. The bride wore for traveling a sand suit with shoes to match, and a leghorn hat. Upon their return they will reside in London.

RWIN-MONTGOMERY.

Dover Presbyterian Church was decorated with beautiful roses and palms for the marriage of Bessie Marie, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Montgomery, to Thomas C. Irwin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Irwin of Raleigh, which was solemnized on Saturday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Rev. Norman Lindsay performed the ceremony.

To the strains of the wedding march played by Miss Emma Morris, the bride entered the church with her father. She wore a beautiful wedding gown of white georgette and lace over tulle, with a crown of orange blossoms, and the groom's gift, a rope of pearls. Her flowers were Ophelia roses. Miss Jean Montgomery was the bridesmaid and wore a pretty frock of shell pink georgette over pink silk, and pink hat, and carried Columbia roses. The flower-girls, little Miss Ethel Montand tired many days I couldn't do my housework. "But it's a pleasure to sit down to a meal now, for I enjoy my food like a child does candy, and nothing I eat hurts me a particle. My nerves are perfectly calm, and my sleep rests me so I feel refreshed throughout the day. Tanlac has no equal."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 37,000,000 bottles sold.

Tanlac Vegetable Pills are Nature's own remedy for constipation. For sale everywhere.—Adv.

MISS ISABEL GRIFFITHS, who was recently elected "Little Chief" of the "Irish" tribe at the Port Bruce camp for girls, held under the auspices of the London Y. W. C. A.

gomy and little Miss Viola Sutor were prettily attired in pink and green organdy, and carried dainty baskets of flowers. Mr. Maurice Ir-Keever, Miss V. Hamilton and Miss R. Shearer.

The groom's gift to the bride was a barpin; to the organist and soloist slipper ornaments; to the flower girls, gold pencils; and to the best man, a gold stickpin. A reception at "Dover Manley," the home of the bride's parents, followed the ceremony and nearly 80 guests were present.

Mrs. Montgomery wore black tulle and sequin hat, and Mrs. Irwin was gowned in blue georgette and black hat. The rooms were fragrant with roses, and the bride's table was centered with a silver basket of roses. A bevy of young ladies, the Misses Catherine Lindsay, Myrtle Dunlop, Edna Piles, Verna Stewart, Anna McKay and Freda White, in charming summer frocks, looked after the guests. Mr. and Mrs. Irwin left by motor for Toronto to spend the latter part of their honeymoon in navy tricotine, the coat opening over a gray blouse, hat and slippers to correspond. Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Calvin McKay of Kintore.

DUNLOP-FORSYTH.

An interesting event took place at Chalmers Presbyterian manse, Chatham, Saturday morning, when the marriage of Margaret, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Forsyth of Chatham township, and James D. Dunlop, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. Dunlop of Chatham township, was solemnized at 7:30 o'clock. Rev. James McCrea officiated. The bride was prettily attired in a traveling suit of navy tricotine, with a French hat of gray crepe, with touches of pink and blue, and was attended by Miss Nellie C. Johnston of Prairie Siding, who wore a reindeer tunic and hat to correspond. Mr. James Forsyth attended the groom. After an extended trip to Detroit and Cleveland, Mr. and Mrs. Dunlop will reside on the groom's farm in Chatham township.

CARROLL-DENNIS.

At high noon on June 28 the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Dennis, 254 Durand street, Sarnia, was the scene of a very pretty wedding, when their youngest daughter, Flora Cathrine, was united in marriage to Mr. David E. Carroll of Dutton, Ont. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, looked charming in her wedding gown of white satin crepe and embroidered veil with orange blossoms and carrying a shower bouquet of Ophelia roses, sweet peas and lilies of the valley. She wore the groom's gift, a string of pearls.

The Rev. J. E. Millard of Central Methodist Church officiated. The Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin was played by Miss Frances Dennis, niece of the bride, and during the signing of the register a beautiful piano solo was rendered by Miss Lydia M. Carroll, sister of the groom. After the ceremony guests to the number of twenty-five, all immediate relatives of the bride and groom, sat down to a dainty wedding breakfast served by girl friends of the bride.

Radio Programs

WEDNESDAY, JULY 4.
KOKA—326 Meters—East Pittsburgh, Pa.

9:15 a.m.—Ball scores.
2:00 p.m.—Concert.
2:15 p.m.—Ball scores.
3:00 p.m.—Ball scores.
6:30 p.m.—Patrician address.
6:45 p.m.—The Visit to the Little Polke by the Dreamtime Lady.

7:00 p.m.—"Our National Parks," by Mr. John D. Carter of the Union situations. Few pictures have made such a successful tendency toward the unexpected.

Wardens who keep tab on the movies ought to be on the look-out now for stray aeroplanes hovering near the prison yards, as within a month or so two movie escapes have been effected thus. First it was Milton Sills in "Skin Deep," who managed a thrilling getaway. The second time Betty Compton, with the aid of an ex-district attorney makes everything very simple for an imprisoned safe-cracker.

"The Woman With Four Faces" is nicely off the beaten track of scenarios. Besides the able and attractive Betty, it boasts of good work by Richard Dix, George Fawcett and one or two other familiar figures.

There is one unusually artistic vaudeville act. The other two are fair. The feature film is the exceptional attraction.

Priscilla Deane figures attractively in the holiday bill at the Patricia. "The Flame of Life," a film adaptation of Frances Hodgson Burnett's story of life among the miners. Several spectacular scenes are sufficient to make the picture a point of strength, and the romance of Priscilla Deane, as the collier's daughter and the owner, kindles the interest throughout. There is plenty of the action which a holiday mood demands.

Pacific Railroad.
7:15—Concert.
8:45—p.m.—Ball scores.
9:55 p.m.—Time Signals.
WBZ—337 Meters—Springfield, Mass.
8:00 a.m.—Weather reports.
11:55 a.m.—Time signals; weather reports.
6:30 p.m.—Baseball scores. Bedtime story.

6:45 p.m.—Farmer's Talk.
7:00 p.m.—Patriotic address.
7:15 p.m.—Address.
7:30 p.m.—Musical program.
8:15 p.m.—Bedtime story for Benjamen Franklin.

8:25 p.m.—A few minutes with Benjamin Franklin.
8:30 p.m.—Baseball scores.
10:00 p.m.—Time signals.

KYW—345 Meters—Chicago, Ill.
8:30 a.m.—Late news and financial comment.
9:00 a.m.—Market reports.
9:30 a.m.—Late financial news and comment.
9:58 a.m.—Time Signals.
10:00 a.m.—Market reports.
10:05 a.m.—Weather reports.
10:30 a.m.—Late news and financial comment.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Gibson, Wroxeter, at noon Saturday, when their second daughter, Mary Hamilton, became the bride of Alward G. Wearing, eldest son of Mrs. Wearing and the late George Wearing.

The bride was given away by her father and wore a dainty gown of sand crepe. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. C. Ferguson, and the wedding march was played by Miss Eileen Gibson.

The house was tastefully decorated with myrtle and marguerites. After dinner an extended trip to Orillia, the bride traveling in a dress of cream flannel with blue cloak and hat. On their return they will reside on Sanderson street.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Gibson, Wroxeter, at noon Saturday, when their second daughter, Mary Hamilton, became the bride of Alward G. Wearing, eldest son of Mrs. Wearing and the late George Wearing.

The bride was given away by her father and wore a dainty gown of sand crepe. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. C. Ferguson, and the wedding march was played by Miss Eileen Gibson.

The house was tastefully decorated with myrtle and marguerites. After dinner an extended trip to Orillia, the bride traveling in a dress of cream flannel with blue cloak and hat. On their return they will reside on Sanderson street.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Gibson, Wroxeter, at noon Saturday, when their second daughter, Mary Hamilton, became the bride of Alward G. Wearing, eldest son of Mrs. Wearing and the late George Wearing.

The bride was given away by her father and wore a dainty gown of sand crepe. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. C. Ferguson, and the wedding march was played by Miss Eileen Gibson.

The house was tastefully decorated with myrtle and marguerites. After dinner an extended trip to Orillia, the bride traveling in a dress of cream flannel with blue cloak and hat. On their return they will reside on Sanderson street.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Gibson, Wroxeter, at noon Saturday, when their second daughter, Mary Hamilton, became the bride of Alward G. Wearing, eldest son of Mrs. Wearing and the late George Wearing.

The bride was given away by her father and wore a dainty gown of sand crepe. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. C. Ferguson, and the wedding march was played by Miss Eileen Gibson.

The house was tastefully decorated with myrtle and marguerites. After dinner an extended trip to Orillia, the bride traveling in a dress of cream flannel with blue cloak and hat. On their return they will reside on Sanderson street.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Gibson, Wroxeter, at noon Saturday, when their second daughter, Mary Hamilton, became the bride of Alward G. Wearing, eldest son of Mrs. Wearing and the late George Wearing.

The bride was given away by her father and wore a dainty gown of sand crepe. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. C. Ferguson, and the wedding march was played by Miss Eileen Gibson.

The house was tastefully decorated with myrtle and marguerites. After dinner an extended trip to Orillia, the bride traveling in a dress of cream flannel with blue cloak and hat. On their return they will reside on Sanderson street.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Gibson, Wroxeter, at noon Saturday, when their second daughter, Mary Hamilton, became the bride of Alward G. Wearing, eldest son of Mrs. Wearing and the late George Wearing.

The bride was given away by her father and wore a dainty gown of sand crepe. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. C. Ferguson, and the wedding march was played by Miss Eileen Gibson.

The house was tastefully decorated with myrtle and marguerites. After dinner an extended trip to Orillia, the bride traveling in a dress of cream flannel with blue cloak and hat. On their return they will reside on Sanderson street.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Gibson, Wroxeter, at noon Saturday, when their second daughter, Mary Hamilton, became the bride of Alward G. Wearing, eldest son of Mrs. Wearing and the late George Wearing.

The bride was given away by her father and wore a dainty gown of sand crepe. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. C. Ferguson, and the wedding march was played by Miss Eileen Gibson.

The house was tastefully decorated with myrtle and marguerites. After dinner an extended trip to Orillia, the bride traveling in a dress of cream flannel with blue cloak and hat. On their return they will reside on Sanderson street.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Gibson, Wroxeter, at noon Saturday, when their second daughter, Mary Hamilton, became the bride of Alward G. Wearing, eldest son of Mrs. Wearing and the late George Wearing.

The bride was given away by her father and wore a dainty gown of sand crepe. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. C. Ferguson, and the wedding march was played by Miss Eileen Gibson.

The house was tastefully decorated with myrtle and marguerites. After dinner an extended trip to Orillia, the bride traveling in a dress of cream flannel with blue cloak and hat. On their return they will reside on Sanderson street.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Gibson, Wroxeter, at noon Saturday, when their second daughter, Mary Hamilton, became the bride of Alward G. Wearing, eldest son of Mrs. Wearing and the late George Wearing.

The bride was given away by her father and wore a dainty gown of sand crepe. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. C. Ferguson, and the wedding march was played by Miss Eileen Gibson.

The house was tastefully decorated with myrtle and marguerites. After dinner an extended trip to Orillia, the bride traveling in a dress of cream flannel with blue cloak and hat. On their return they will reside on Sanderson street.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Gibson, Wroxeter, at noon Saturday, when their second daughter, Mary Hamilton, became the bride of Alward G. Wearing, eldest son of Mrs. Wearing and the late George Wearing.

The bride was given away by her father and wore a dainty gown of sand crepe. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. C. Ferguson, and the wedding march was played by Miss Eileen Gibson.

The house was tastefully decorated with myrtle and marguerites. After dinner an extended trip to Orillia, the bride traveling in a dress of cream flannel with blue cloak and hat. On their return they will reside on Sanderson street.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Gibson, Wroxeter, at noon Saturday, when their second daughter, Mary Hamilton, became the bride of Alward G. Wearing, eldest son of Mrs. Wearing and the late George Wearing.

The bride was given away by her father and wore a dainty gown of sand crepe. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. C. Ferguson, and the wedding march was played by Miss Eileen Gibson.

The house was tastefully decorated with myrtle and marguerites. After dinner an extended trip to Orillia, the bride traveling in a dress of cream flannel with blue cloak and hat. On their return they will reside on Sanderson street.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Gibson, Wroxeter, at noon Saturday, when their second daughter, Mary Hamilton, became the bride of Alward G. Wearing, eldest son of Mrs. Wearing and the late George Wearing.

The bride was given away by her father and wore a dainty gown of sand crepe. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. C. Ferguson, and the wedding march was played by Miss Eileen Gibson.

The house was tastefully decorated with myrtle and marguerites. After dinner an extended trip to Orillia, the bride traveling in a dress of cream flannel with blue cloak and hat. On their return they will reside on Sanderson street.

At the Movies Last Night

"Nobody's Money."

With all amusement resources stepping on it for holiday attractions, movies yesterday had to be of the first water in order to attract many more than the habitual fans. Programs at all three picture-houses were fairly successful in an effort to vie with outdoor sports. Feature pictures were particularly good.

At the Allen was shown "Nobody's Money," with Jack Holt and Wanda Hawley. In quite a lively and rather humorous manner, it deals with the campaign for the election of a governor, with Jack Holt as a mysterious "Douglas Roberts," who generally engineers things to his own satisfaction, and that of the governor, but to the mystification and chagrin of several other interested persons.

Jack Holt is very popular, and without being extraordinary, "Nobody's Money" gives him a chance of recording good work.

"The Woman With Four Faces."

Since her success in "The Miracle Man," Betty Compton has been a favorite in "The Woman With Four Faces" at Loew's she is not only several degrees better than her usual best, acting unusually well, but the picture itself is developed to a point of fascinating interest. Together with a strong bit of propaganda for the extinction of the last remnants of first-class action and startling

The tables were decorated with pink Premier roses and lilies of the valley. A profusion of summer flowers made effective decorations throughout the house.

The happy couple left on the S.S. Huronic for their honeymoon. The bride traveling in a suit of navy polka twill opening over a gray blouse, with hat, fur and slippers also of gray.

On their return Mr. and Mrs. Carroll will reside on the groom's farm, north of Dutton.

GRIFFITH-GRIFFITH.

Parkhill, July 2.—A quiet wedding took place on Thursday afternoon at one o'clock at the Methodist Parsonage, when Mrs. Abbie Griffith, daughter of Mr. Benjamin Sheppard, daughter of the bride of Mr. Nathaniel James Griffith of London. The Rev. L. W. Hill performed the wedding ceremony.

The bride was very becomingly attired in a tailored suit of navy blue tricotine with blouse of gray tulle and hat to match, and carried a bridal bouquet of lilies of the valley and roses. After the ceremony the happy couple returned to the home of the bride's father, when a dainty dinner was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Griffith left for a short wedding trip and will be at home to their friends at 104 Dundas street, London, after July 1st.

WEARING-GIBSON.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Gibson, Wroxeter, at noon Saturday, when their second daughter, Mary Hamilton, became the bride of Alward G. Wearing, eldest son of Mrs. Wearing and the late George Wearing.

The bride was given away by her father and wore a dainty gown of sand crepe. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. C. Ferguson, and the wedding march was played by Miss Eileen Gibson.

The house was tastefully decorated with myrtle and marguerites. After dinner an extended trip to Orillia, the bride traveling in a dress of cream flannel with blue cloak and hat. On their return they will reside on Sanderson street.

Radio Programs

WEDNESDAY, JULY 4.
KOKA—326 Meters—East Pittsburgh, Pa.

9:15 a.m.—Ball scores.
2:00 p.m.—Concert.
2:15 p.m.—Ball scores.
3:00 p.m.—Ball scores.
6:30 p.m.—Patrician address.
6:45 p.m.—The Visit to the Little Polke by the Dreamtime Lady.

7:00 p.m.—"Our National Parks," by Mr. John D. Carter of the Union

situations. Few pictures have made such a successful tendency toward the unexpected.

Wardens who keep tab on the movies ought to be on the look-out now for stray aeroplanes hovering near the prison yards, as within a month or so two movie escapes have been effected thus. First it was Milton Sills in "Skin Deep," who managed a thrilling getaway. The second time Betty Compton, with the aid of an ex-district attorney makes everything very simple for an imprisoned safe-cracker.

"The Woman With Four Faces" is nicely off the beaten track of scenarios. Besides the able and attractive Betty, it boasts of good work by Richard Dix, George Fawcett and one or two other familiar figures.

There is one unusually artistic vaudeville act. The other two are fair. The feature film is the exceptional attraction.

Priscilla Deane figures attractively in the holiday bill at the Patricia. "The Flame of Life," a film adaptation of Frances Hodgson Burnett's story of life among the miners. Several spectacular scenes are sufficient to make the picture a point of strength, and the romance of Priscilla Deane, as the collier's daughter and the owner, kindles the interest throughout. There is plenty of the action which a holiday mood demands.

Pacific Railroad.
7:15—Concert.
8:45—p.m.—Ball scores.
9:55 p.m.—Time Signals.
WBZ—337 Meters—Springfield, Mass.
8:00 a.m.—Weather reports.
11:55 a.m.—Time signals; weather reports.
6:30 p.m.—Baseball scores. Bedtime story.

6:45 p.m.—Farmer's Talk.
7:00 p.m.—Patriotic address.
7:15 p.m.—Address.
7:30 p.m.—Musical program.
8:15 p.m.—Bedtime story for Benjamen Franklin.

8:25 p.m.—A few minutes with Benjamin Franklin.
8:30 p.m.—Baseball scores.
10:00 p.m.—Time signals.

KYW—345 Meters—Chicago, Ill.
8:30 a.m.—Late news and financial comment.
9:00 a.m.—Market reports.
9:30 a.m.—Late financial news and comment.
9:58 a.m.—Time Signals.
10:00 a.m.—Market reports.
10:05 a.m.—Weather reports.
10:30 a.m.—Late news and financial comment.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Gibson, Wroxeter, at noon Saturday, when their second daughter, Mary Hamilton, became the bride of Alward G. Wearing, eldest son of Mrs. Wearing and the late George Wearing.

The bride was given away by her father and wore a dainty gown of sand crepe. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. C. Ferguson, and the wedding march was played by Miss Eileen Gibson.

The house was tastefully decorated with myrtle and marguerites. After dinner an extended trip to Orillia, the bride traveling in a dress of cream flannel with blue cloak and hat. On their return they will reside on Sanderson street.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Gibson, Wroxeter, at noon Saturday, when their second daughter, Mary Hamilton, became the bride of Alward G. Wearing, eldest son of Mrs. Wearing and the late George Wearing.

The bride was given away by her father and wore a dainty gown of sand crepe. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. C. Ferguson, and the wedding march was played by Miss Eileen Gibson.

The house was tastefully decorated with myrtle and marguerites. After dinner an extended trip to Orillia, the bride traveling in a dress of cream flannel with blue cloak and hat. On their return they will reside on Sanderson street.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Gibson, Wroxeter, at noon Saturday, when their second daughter, Mary Hamilton, became the bride of Alward G. Wearing, eldest son of Mrs. Wearing and the late George Wearing.

The bride was given away by her father and wore a dainty gown of sand crepe. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. C. Ferguson, and the wedding march was played by Miss Eileen Gibson.