ROSY-CHEEKED-HEALTHY WOMEN

Know the Full Value of Rich, Red Blood.

Robust, healthy, red-cheeked women seldom worry. Their condition of mind and body is such that they can rise above the causes that bring melancholy and brooding. It is the woman with weak, watery blood who is thrown into nervous unrest by little annoyances that grow so great in the imagination that grow so great she must scream to relieve her feelings.

A woman's health quickly fails her when her blood becomes thin and weak. The stomach is disordered and all appetite vanishes. The nerves lose their strength and so sleep is not regular and does not refresh the body. A state of weakness arises that increases gradually and gives further cause for worry. Good blood is necessary to every woman who has grown pale and weak, and in this condition Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will be found of great benefit, because they enrich and purify the blood. Women who are anemic, who suffer from indigestion, palpitation, headaches, nervous attacks, will find new strength through a fair use of these pills. Among the women who have proved the value of this medicine is Mrs. Enos Levy, Hackett's Cove, N.S., who says: "About two years ago I began to fail in health and was very weak. My constitution was all run down, and my blood was weak and watery, as was manifest every month. I had heard of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and what they would do for the blood, and being in such a low condition I decided to try them. By the time I had finished the fourth box I found to my great delight that I was a great deal stronger, and my blood a deep red color. I have a lot of work to do besides taking care of my little one, and with my good health I enjoy it, and I can truthfully say I owe this condition to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills can be obtained through any medicine dealer or may be had by mail, post paid, at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

A meeting of the ratepayers of the Public Schools was called on Monday in Adelaide Village and was very largely attended. Everyone seemed perfectly satisfied and pleased with our schools as they are at present. Questions concerning the School Fair were also discussed and it was thought advisable to have two centrals instead of one so in all probability the school fairs will be held at Adelaide Village and also at Kerwood.

Those who were unable to hear Jack Miner and see his wonderful moving pictures surely missed a treat. Although the evening was most unfavorable a large number came out and were well repaid for the trouble. Mr. Miner is surely a masterhand as an entertainer and his lecture and moving pictures were enjoyed by all.

KEEP LITTLE ONES WELL IN WINTER

Winter is a dangerous season for the little ones. The days are so changeable—one day bright, the next cold and stormy, that the mother is afraid to take the children out for the fresh air and exercise they need so much. In consequence they are often cooped up in overheated, badly ventilated rooms and are soon seized with colds or gripe. What is needed to keep the little ones well is Baby's Own Tablets. They will regulate the stomach and bowels and drive out colds, and by their use the baby will be able to get over the winter season in perfect safety. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

THAT QUEER CITY OF ZION

Zion City is situated on the shore of Lake Michigan, between Chicago and Milwaukee and it is one of the most remarkable communities upon the American continent. Rev. Wilber Glenn Voliva is at the head of its government and issues his thunderous comments against what he terms modern errors of dress and ancient errors of science. It was from Zion City that Rev. Voliva recently announced that the earth was flat, and that the sun, moon, and stars were hung above it in a solid blue sky, just as chandeliers might be hung from a ceiling. He said that any other conception of the universe was at variance with the teaching of the Holy Scriptures. This was no news to the children of Zion City, for they have been taught this idea of the earth ever since Zion City was established. As for the adult members of the community, they accept implicitly what their Overseer has to say, for they have acquired the habit, and it is unwholesome to argue with him.

The city is a monument of one of the most curious religious fanatics of modern times, to wit, John Alexander Dowie, who went to the United States from Australia penniless, and inside of ten years was one of the best known men in the country and the possessor of vast wealth. At the time, his headquarters were in Chicago, and his taxes were so heavy that he decided he would establish a town of his own, where, if any taxes were to be paid, they would be paid to him. So he sent out real estate agents and they bought him several thousand acres of farm land, which was to become the city of the elect. He appealed to his followers, who numbered thousands, and they sold their possessions in other cities and moved out to Zion City. He established various industries, and in many respects showed exceedingly good judgment.

All went well until Dowie, with 3,000 of his band, descended upon New York with the avowed purpose of converting that city. The campaign was a failure and cost the Dowieites some $30,000. Bankruptcy proceedings were begun, the city was unable to pay its bills, and a receiver was appointed. He straightened out things to some extent, and Voliva, who had been summoned by Dowie because of illness, was put in charge, and the old prophet went to Mexico to rest. When he came back Voliva refused to give way and resolutely held to his authority. Soon after Dowie died, and from that day there has been nobody in Zion City to dispute the powers of the Overseer. He has conducted the affairs of the city successfully, according to the faithful, and if others do not like his methods they can stay away.

There are laws in Zion City such as probably exist nowhere else on earth. One cannot drink liquor; he cannot smoke; he cannot take medicine; he cannot have a doctor; he cannot eat pork or oysters. There are no moving pictures or other places of amusement. There is no baseball. There are no sinful card games or dances. The feminine styles are severely censored. There are no short skirts, but on the other hand, there is no filmy peekaboo hosiery. There are no low necked dresses, but still there are no balls to wear them at. There are no loafers or jollifiers. Everybody is hustling so that he can go home and eat his specified meal and go to bed and forget his troubles. There are plenty of churches and religious gatherings and no lack of uluses from Voliva, who was formerly an Indiana preacher.

Zion City is run this way because all the land is vested in Voliva. It is never sold. It is leased. On one occasion, through a never-to-be-forgotten error, a man bought a lot outright and opened a drug store. The town was in an uproar until Voliva bought it back with all its immoral drugs. The City Council is composed of Voliva's favorites. The Magistrates are nominated by him, and any laws that he deems necessary for the uplift of the inhabitants are passed. Most of them have been upheld by superior courts. But in Zion City there are hundreds of people who are not Zionists, but who have been attracted there by business or trade opportunities. They are in constant rebellion against the laws of the place, and hope eventually to become a majority and make over the town into the likeness of other American cities. In the meantime, there is little prospect of them succeeding. Voliva is firmly in the saddle and the earth is flat.
