ARKONA

Mrs. Lottie Field and children have returned, after spending the last two weeks visiting relatives in Flint, Mich.

Mr. Basil Fuller of Flint, Mich., spent the weekend at his home here. Mr. and Mrs. Gaetz, who have spent the past month visiting with Mr. and Mrs. P. Beasly left on Monday for Moosejaw, Sask. Mr. Gaetz purchased a new Chevrolet sedan, and will motor home via Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. George Martin of Detroit are renewing acquaintances in and around Arkona.

A line of ladies' and children's Gingham Dresses just opened out. Prices surprisingly low.—Brown Bros.

Messrs Samuel Rivers and W. H. Thompson made a business trip to London last week.

Miss Hendrick of Sylvan is spending the week with Miss H. Johnson.

Mrs. Will Baldwin of Sarnia spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Evans.

Rev. Spracklin of Alvinston will occupy the pulpit of the United church next Sunday morning and evening.

A new shipment of voiles and broadcloths just opened out.—Brown Bros.

Mr. Wesley Lucas has returned home after spending a week with his daughter, Mrs. W. A. Williams of Aylmer.

Sunday morning, June 14th, marked the inaugural service of the United church in Arkona. The occasion was held in what had been formerly the Methodist church and was conducted by Revs. Gale and Boulton.

The church was filled with a worshipful congregation, eager to witness the uniting of local church forces. The program used by the large gathering in Toronto on June 10th was adopted in part, and was concluded by the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper.

Rev. Gale, whose church voted nineteen to fourteen against union, brought with him some thirty members and adherents. This new congregation has caught the enlarged vision and will undertake their task in the spirit of the new day.

J. F. Elliot, Cowan, Cowan & Gray, Auctioneer. Vendor's Solicitors.

PLYMPTON

Born in Plympton on Saturday, June 13, to Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Minnelly, a son.

Dr. and Mrs. H. L. Forbes, Toronto are visiting with relatives in Plympton.

Miss Donna Clements, Sarnia, is visiting at the home of her grandfather, Mr. John MacDougall.

Miss Catherine Ferris spent the weekend with her friend, Miss Helen Minnelly.

The single men defeated the married men in a lively game of baseball played on the Athletic ground at J. Cochran's on Monday evening.

A number of girls of the London Road were guests at a shower given at the home of Mrs. Norman Morgan on Saturday in honor of Miss Annie Morgan, whose marriage takes place on Wednesday.

WEDDINGS

WHEELER—MORGAN

The home of Mrs. R. Morgan, London Road, was the scene of a pretty wedding on Wednesday afternoon, June 17th, when Annie Leila, the youngest daughter of the house became Mrs. Frank Wheeler. Mr. Wheeler was a former resident of the sixth line and is now living in Pontiac, Mich. The ceremony took place under an arch of evergreens, roses and peonies. Promptly at three p.m. the bride entered on the arm of her father to the strains of the wedding march played by Miss Verna Hale. Rev. W. J. H. Pether of Wyoming officiated at the ceremony. During the signing of the register Miss Dorothy Hall sang "Honest and Truly" accompanied by her mother. The bride was supported by Miss Mabel Pike, while Mr. Delbert Wheeler acted as best man. Miss Lorene Dell gave a number of violin selections during the luncheon which followed, at which fifty-five guests sat down. The tables were beautifully decorated in pink and white—roses being the prevailing flower. The bride wore a becoming gown of sand satin faced crepe trimmed with jet. Her jewelry consisted of a rope of pearls the gift of the groom. Her bouquet was a pleasing arrangement of sweet peas and maiden hair fern. The bridesmaid wore peach shot taffeta and carried a bouquet of snapdragon.

Friends were present from Strathroy, Watford, Pontiac, Mich., and Port Huron, Mich. The happy couple left for a motor trip to London and other points and on their return will reside at Pontiac, Mich. The bride was the recipient of many beautiful gifts. Numerous articles were also presented at a miscellaneous shower on Saturday at the home of Mrs. N. Morgan.

GILBERT—FRALEIGH

At the Gratiot Park Methodist Episcopal Parsonage, on June 9th, the marriage was quietly solemnized of Thelma A. Fraleigh, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Fraleigh, of Jedd, Mich., to Chester C. Gilbert, of Detroit, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. N. Gilbert, Elk St., Port Huron. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Wm. S. Smith. The bride looked charming, gowned in cream colored chenille crepe. She carried an arm bouquet of American Beauty roses and maiden hair fern. The attendants were the bridesmaid's sister, Miss Belle Gilbert of Port Huron, and the bride's brother, Mr. C. Presby Fraleigh of Jedd, Mich. Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert left immediately for Detroit where they have a home in readiness for them. The bride has many relatives living in Watford and vicinity.

McLELLAN—NEWELL

A quiet but pretty wedding took place on Wednesday June 17th, at two o'clock in St. James' church, Brooke, when Miss Laura Ethel Newell became the bride of Mr. Samuel J. McLellan, the Rev. J. H. Hooford officiating. The bride wore a very becoming gown of cocoa satin canted with hat and scarf to match and carried a bouquet of sweetheart roses and valley lilies.

The wedding music was played by Mrs. Clifford Lucas.

After the ceremony a dainty luncheon was served at the bride's home and later the bride and groom left by motor, and will visit points east before their return. The bride's going away gown was an ensemble dress of orange and navy crepe and almond coat with white fur. After their return they will reside on the groom's farm 12th line, Brooke.
