

CHICAGO MARKET.

RECEIPTS OF GRAIN IN EXCESS
LARGELY OF SHIPMENTS—DROUGHT COMPLAINED OF IN KANSAS—STEADY BUT SLOW MARKET.

Chicago, July 27.

Fairly good demands for export and otherwise keep the transfer of cereals continuous and prevent the large daily receipts from reaching too high an aggregate. Receipts are however, in excess of shipments and this with perhaps over-estimated future supplies makes prices lower and the market quiet and dull. Wheat at Liverpool was cabled as $\frac{1}{8}$ lower and likely to remain unchanged until more invigorating reports are to hand from America. Corn at Liverpool was $\frac{1}{4}$ higher and steady at that but very inactive. As usual the superfine weather reports have given place to less pleasant ones. Kansas is said to have had no rain to speak of for sixteen days and to be suffering in consequence. At Chicago all the wheats were $\frac{1}{8}$ to $\frac{1}{4}$ lower, all the corns $\frac{1}{8}$, $\frac{1}{4}$ and $\frac{1}{2}$ lower, all the oats $\frac{1}{4}$ lower than their closing prices of yesterday. Provisions were slower in opening to-day and did not seem to be getting so high prices as before. Hogs received to-day 27,000, to-morrow's estimate 21,000.

Primary receipts 918,131; shipments, 591,167, both nearly twice last years amounts.

Wheat—Car lots, 85, shipments, 6,000.
Corn—Car lots, 618; shipments, 426,177.
Oats—Car lots, 365; shipments, 10,968.
