IMPORTANT action was taken at the late meeting of the Senate and Board of Governors. As our columns are full we are not able to refer to it at length. We give a short statement of the work done. The principle of optional studies was adopted, and a committee was appointed to recommend what subjects should be allowed as optional. This committee also was directed to provide for instruction in Modern Languages during the coming term. Another committee was appointed to consider the selection of another professor. These committees are to render their reports in June next,

THE students of the college were favored with a Shaksperian reception by the ladies of the Seminary on the 13th inst. As the enterprise was an entirely new one for this community it is the enterprise was an entirely new one for this community it is not at all surprising that opinion slightly varies as to its success. But all unite in their commendation of the efforts put forth by the teachers and the young ladies of their charge to make the evening pleasant. The Principal especially with apt quotations from her favorite author assisted in making the evening lively and cheerful. The idea of introducing a more decided literary changes into these social requires is certainly reactive of favore. element into these social re-unions is certainly worthy of favorable consideration.

UNDER the fostering care of brazen throated sophs, the place of the defunct Glee Club is in a fair way of being supplied. It does'nt Macenna difference apparently about the quality or quantity of the music, quality being of that kind usually classed as locomotive tenor and variety the orthodox sophomoric howl. The ass brays because it is an ass. If those particular members of '89 wish to lay claim to ties of consanguinity with the above mentioned bird they can take no surer means of convincing Chipman Hall than by continuing those musical exhibitions.

THE CENTURY

For 1886-87.

THE CENTURY is an illustrated monthly magazine, having a regular circulation of about two hundred thousand copies, often reaching and sometimes exceeding two hundred and twenty-five thousand. Chief among its many attractions for the coming year is a serial which has been in active preparation for sixteen years. It is a history of our own county in its most critical time, as set forth in

THE LIFE OF LINCOLN,

BY HIS CONFIDENTIAL SECRPTARIES, JOHN 6. NICOLAY AND COL. JOHN HAY.

This great work begun with the function of President Lincoln, and continued under the authority of his son, the Hon. Robert T. Lincoln, is the only full and authoritative record of the life of Abraham Lincoln. Its authors were friends of Lincoln before his presidency; they were most intimately associated with him as private secretaries throughout his term of office, and to them were transferred on Lincoln's death all his private papers. Here will be told the inside history of the civil war and of President Lincoln's administration,—important details of which have hitherto remained unrevealed, that they might first appear in this authentic history. By reason of the publication of this work, which has been followed with unflagging interest by a great which has been followed with unflagging interest by a great audience, will occupy less space during the coming year. Gettysburg will be described by Gen. Hunt (Chief of the Union Artillery), Gen. Longstreet, Gen. E. M. Law, and others; Chickamauga, by Gen. D. H. Hill; Sherman's march to the Sea, by Generals Howards and Slocum. Generals Q. A. Gillmore, Wm. F. Smith, John Gibbon, Horace Porter, and John S. Mosby will describe special battles and incidents. Stories of naval engagements, prison life, etc., etc., will appear.

THE WAR SERIES,

NOVELS AND STORIES.

"The Hundredth Man," a novel by Frank R. Stockton, author of "The Lady or the Tiger!" etc., begins in November. Two Novellettes by George W. Cable, stories by Mary Hallock Foote, "Uncle Remus," Julian Hawthorne, Edward Eggleson, and other prominent American authors will be printed during the year.
